Peter Ackroyd J. Gibson, J. Wolfreys, 2000-04-07 Peter Ackroyd The Ludic and Labyrinthine Text offers the reader the first major critical study in English of one of Britain's most inventive playful and significant writers of the twentieth century This study playfully yet rigorously engages with these aspects of literary stylistics and personal and national identity so important in Ackroyd's work Rejecting the postmodern label previously attached to the author Gibson and Wolfreys provide a consideration of all Ackroyd's writing to date from his poetry and critical thought to his novels and biographies offering an indispensable account to anyone interested in Ackroyd and the condition of the novel at the end of the twentieth century

Memoirs of an Anti-Semite Gregor Von Rezzori, 2007-12-04 The elusive narrator of this beautifully written complex and powerfully disconcerting novel is the scion of a decayed aristocratic family from the farther reaches of the defunct Austro-Hungarian Empire In five psychologically fraught episodes he revisits his past from adolescence to middle age a period that coincides with the twentieth century's ugliest years Central to each episode is what might be called the narrator's Jewish Question He is no Nazi To the contrary he is apolitical accommodating cosmopolitan He has Jewish friends and Jewish lovers and their Jewishness is a matter of abiding fascination to him His deepest and most defining relationship may even be the strange dance of attraction and repulsion that throughout his life he has conducted with this forbidden desired inescapable imaginary Jewish other And yet it is just his relationship that has blinded him to and makes him complicit in the terrible realities his era Lyrical witty satirical and unblinking Gregor von Rezzori's most controversial work is an intimate foray into the emotional underworld of modern European history

Helen Morgan Christopher S. Connelly, 2024-08-06 An emotive soprano heartrending melodies about unrequited love and a draped over the piano persona made Helen Morgan 1902-1941 the original torch singer but she was so much more The versatile actress appeared on Broadway in film and on radio In a number of stage revues she danced sang and excelled in sketch comedy She played Julie in Kern and Hammerstein's Broadway musical Show Boat 1927 and also starred in the duo's Sweet Adeline in 1929 That same year Morgan appeared in Rouben Mamoulian's classic film Applause When the Great Depression made theater roles scarce she headed the CBS radio program Broadway Melodies and worked in the emerging medium of television Yet Morgan's life was one of extremes She earned a million dollars throughout her career but remained in constant debt She was one of the most universally beloved people in her profession but a stable romantic relationship eluded her until the very end of her life She was a protofeminist who aided women facing unplanned pregnancies yet she also sought respite in a man whose financial support would allow her to retire from the stage Through it all she battled alcoholism brandy would eventually extinguish her flame in 1941 Helen Morgan The Original Torch Singer and Ziegfeld's Last Star is the first biography of the gifted performer since 1974 Author Christopher Connelly utilizes interviews newspaper articles and family scrapbooks to present an honest and unflinching look at Morgan's life Connelly's meticulous research addresses Morgan's troubled childhood including her mother's six marriages and the trauma of her stepfather's arrest and conviction for manslaughter in 1913 Also revealed are details regarding her early career in vaudeville and silent film insights into the speakeasy and supper club culture that served as a backdrop to Morgan's career and accounts of her outstanding accomplishments philanthropic actions and enduring popularity This gripping narrative presents the brief but brilliant life of a complex talented and iconic entertainer

Mamoulian David Lührssen, 2013-01-25 An Armenian national raised in Russia Rouben Mamoulian 1897-1987 studied in the influential Stanislavski studio renowned as the source of the method acting technique Shortly after immigrating to New York in 1926 he created a sensation with an all black production of Porgy 1927 He then went on to direct the debut Broadway productions of three of the most popular shows in the history of American musical theater Porgy and Bess 1935 Oklahoma 1943 and Carousel 1945 Mamoulian began working in film just as the sound revolution was dramatically changing the technical capabilities of the medium and he quickly established himself as an innovator Not only did many of his unusual camera techniques become standard but he also invented a device that eliminated the background noises created by cameras and dollies Seen as a rebel earlier in his career Mamoulian gradually gained respect in Hollywood and the Directors Guild of America awarded him the prestigious D W Griffith Award for Lifetime Achievement in 1983 In this meticulously researched biography David Lührssen paints the influential director as a socially conscious artist who sought to successfully combine art and commercial entertainment Lührssen not only reveals the fascinating personal story of an important yet neglected figure but he also offers a tantalizing glimpse into the extraordinarily vibrant American film and theater industries during the twenties thirties and forties

Aesthetics of Early Sound Film Daniel Wiegand, 2025-10-01 This volume takes a fresh look at the various aesthetics emerging globally in the early sound film era with a focus on the films fundamentally experimental and inventive character By considering films and production contexts often neglected in film studies it strives to counter the still dominant view of the transitional period as a time of yet to be perfected forerunners of classical sound film Instead authors highlight the sense of fruitful uncertainty in this period of media change and transformation Subjects covered include visual and auditory style the uses of speech music and noises aesthetic conceptions in sound film theory and intermedial aesthetics The volume's scope is decidedly international covering production and reception contexts in the Soviet Union Japan the USA Germany France Italy the UK and Switzerland

Defining Cinema Michael Slowik, 2024 Defining Cinema Rouben Mamoulian and Hollywood Film Style 1929-1957 takes a holistic look at Mamoulian's oeuvre by examining both his stage and his screen work and also brings together insights from his correspondence his theories on film and analysis of the films themselves It presents a filmmaker whose work was innovative and exciting who pushed hard on cinema's potential as an artform and who in many ways helped move cinema towards the kind of entertainment that it remains today

Dirty Rotten Strategies Ian I. Mitroff, Abraham Silvers, 2010 Discusses how and why organizations and special interest groups of all kinds attempt to solve the wrong problems with intricate solutions Possibilities Mind Bernard G. Berenson, 2001

With the mathematics of inequality The Possibilities Mind gives us the first real theory of science for understanding and applying the unfinished state of creation From the groundbreaking series by Dr Robert Carkhuff and Dr Bernard Berenson

Forever Pursuing Genesis Leonard Mustazza, 1990 The title of this book Forever Pursuing Genesis derives from a statement that Vonnegut once made about the nature of the universe and humankind's place in it This study applies that statement to the narrative themes that Vonnegut has treated in his career Reinventing Paulo Freire Antonia Darder, 2017-06-14 One of the most influential critical educators of the twentieth century Paulo Freire challenged those educational inequalities and conditions of injustice faced by oppressed populations In this new edition of Reinventing Paulo Freire Antonia Darder re-examines his legacy through reflections on Freirean pedagogy and the narratives of teachers who reinvent his work The fully revised first part provides important historical political and economic connections between major societal concerns and educational questions raised by Freire and their link to the contemporary moment including questions tied to neoliberalism coloniality and educational inequalities At the heart of the book is a critical understanding of how Freire's pedagogy of love can inform in theory and practice a humanizing approach to teaching and learning Powerful teacher narratives offer examples of a living praxis committed to democratic classroom life and the emancipation of subaltern communities The narratives clearly illustrate how Freire's ideas can be put concretely into practice in schools and communities These reflections on Freirean praxis are sure to spark conversation and inspiration in teacher education courses Through a close theoretical engagement of Freire's ideas and key insights garnered from lived experiences the book speaks to the ways Freire can still inspire contemporary educators to adopt the spirit of liberatory pedagogy By so doing Reinventing Paulo Freire is certain to advance his theories in new ways both to those familiar with his work and to those studying Freire for the first time The Poetics of Epiphany in the Spanish Lyric of Today Judith Nantell, 2019-11-15 Drawing on the poetry of four major voices in the Spanish lyric of today Judith Nantell explores the epistemic works of Luis Mu oz Abraham Gragera Josep M Rodr guez and Ada Salas arguing that for them the poem is the fundamental means of exploring the nature of both knowledge and poetry In this first interpretive analysis of the epistemic nature of their poetry Nantell innovatively engages these poets each of whom has contributed one of their own poems along with a previously unpublished explication of their chosen poem Each also provides an original biographical sketch to support Nantell's development of a poetics of epiphany Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Radiant Joy Brilliant Love Clinton Callahan, 2020-11-05 This hard hitting and innovative book about man woman relationship immediately challenges the deceptions about love and intimacy rampant in today's patriarchal culture At the same time Radiant Joy Brilliant Love reveals a step by step process for discovering and living out alternative possibilities The author claims that even the best of our relationships are still generally basic level what he calls Ordinary Human Relationship He asserts that two more domains remain to be explored namely Extraordinary Human Relationship and Archetypal Love The book shows exactly how to enter these new domains and how to stay there long enough to cultivate genuine intimacy nurturance excitement and satisfaction together The material for this book is startlingly original and fresh directly distilled from over thirty years of trial error and reevaluation within seminars and trainings conducted by the author in the U S and Europe The essential teaching tools are Thought Maps that illustrate and guide the dynamics of evolving relationship coupled with a series of experiments explorations to be undertaken alone or with one s partner Topics include What your mother never told you and your father didn t know about love and relationships Making the leap from Defensive Learning to Expansive Learning Breaking out of the relationship Box The lie of being unlovable Navigating in the realm of feelings Communication skills for explorers
