Hermann Hesse's Fictions of the Self Eugene L. Stelzig, 2014-07-14 This masterful synthesis of criticism and biography surveys all of Hermann Hesse's major works and many of his minor ones in relation to the intricate psychological design of his entire life history Eugene Stelzig examines what it means to be an autobiographical writer by considering Hesse's fictions of the self as an exemplary instance of the relationship between life and art and between biography and autobiography In a graceful and inviting style he frees this major confessional writer from the confines of German culture and the status of cult figure of the 1960s and situates him in the tradition of world literature and in a variety of literary psychological philosophical and religious contexts Three introductory chapters on autobiography and Hesse set the stage for a chronological study Then follows a penetrating analysis of the balance between biographical fact and confessional fantasy in Hesse's long career from the failed autobiography of his first literary success Beneath the Wheel through the protracted midlife crisis of the grotesque

Steppenwolf period to the visionary autobiography of his magisterial fictional finale The Glass Bead Game Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 O. Muraleedharan, 2024-12-16 O V Vijayan 1930 2005 was an acclaimed Malayalam novelist short story writer cartoonist translator columnist political analyst and public intellectual In a literary career spanning almost half a century he published six novels twelve volumes of short stories eight volumes of non fictional prose three volumes of reminiscences three volumes of cartoons and four self translations This book offers a comprehensive understanding of O V Vijayan s work by analysing his fictional and non fictional works cartoons and columns and situates him in the context of Malayalam literary culture and Indian literature at large The volume discusses themes such as the politics of everyday life culture religion and the changing nature of Indian society struggles of a writer and thinker the idea of socially responsive radical modernism ecology and subculture and the politics of self translation These readings explore Vijayan s legacy as an iconic figure of modernism in Malayalam fiction who reinvented its language as an unrelenting critic of the modern nationstate and its excesses as a post colonial thinker and as a visionary who transcended the binaries of the mundane and the magical the political and the spiritual and the premodern and the postmodern Part of the Writer in Context series this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of Indian literature Malayalam literature English literature comparative literature postcolonial studies cultural studies global south studies and translation studies Life Writing and Space Eveline Kilian, Hope Wolf, 2017-05-15

How does our ability desire or failure to locate ourselves within space and with respect to certain places effect the construction and narration of our identities Approaching recordings and interpretations of selves memories and experiences through the lens of theories of space and place this book brings the recent spatial turn in the Humanities to bear upon the work of life writing It shows how concepts of subjectivity draw on spatial ideas and metaphors and how the grounding and uprooting of the self is understood in terms of place The different chapters investigate ways in which selves are reimagined through relocation and the traversing of spaces and texts Many are concerned with the politics of space how racial social and sexual topographies are navigated in life writing Some examine how focusing on space rather than time impacts upon auto biographical form The book blends sustained theoretical reflections with textual analyses and also includes experimental contributions that explore independencies between spaces and selves by combining criticism with autobiography Together they testify that life writing can hardly be thought of without its connection to space Queer Country Shana

Textualizing the Immigrant Experience in Contemporary Quebec Susan Ireland, Patrice J. Proulx, 2004-04-30 Immigration to Quebec has led to the decline of the idea of the homogenous national identity within French language literary production and the creation of a new literature of multiple Quebecois identities according to editors Ireland and Proulx Concepts of diversity and hybridity run throughout the 16 essays contained here which seek to collectively explore the way immigrant writers position themselves in relation to Quebecois literature and society A few essays explore the general contours of Quebecois cinema and theater in relation to these questions but the majority are devoted to more focused examinations of particular writers of novels short stories and poems

Autobiography in Black and Brown Michael Nieto Garcia, 2014-11-15 Richard Wright was the grandson of slaves Richard Rodriguez the son of immigrants One black the other brown each author prominently displays his race in the title of his autobiography Black Boy and Brown Wright was a radical left winger while Rodriguez is widely viewed as a reactionary Despite their differences Michael Nieto Garcia points out the two share a preoccupation with issues of agency class struggle ethnic identity the search for community and the quest for social justice Garcia's study the first to compare these two widely read writers argues that ethnic autobiography reflects the complexity of ethnic identity revealing a narrative self that is bound to a visible ethnicity yet is also protean and free These autobiographies according to Garcia exemplify the tensions and contradictions inherent in identity In their presentation of the self we see the rejection not only of essentialized notions of ethnic authenticity but also of any conception of an ethnic self that is not also communally derived The image reflected in the mirror of autobiography also reminds us that consciousness itself is altered by our reading and that the construction of modern ethnicity is shaped to a considerable extent by print culture

"Lincoln's Humor" and Other Essays Benjamin P. Thomas, 2024-04-22 This volume gathers the best previously unpublished and uncollected writings on Abraham Lincoln and Lincoln scholarship by one of his great biographers Benjamin P Thomas A skilled historian and a masterful storyteller himself Thomas was widely regarded as the greatest Lincoln historian of his generation With these essays he combines historical depth with narrative grace in delineating Lincoln's qualities as a humorist lawyer and politician From colorful tall tales to clever barbs aimed at political opponents Lincoln clothed a shrewd wit in a homespun backwoods vernacular He used humor to defuse tension illuminate a point put others at ease and sometimes for sheer fun From an early reliance on broad humor and ridicule in speeches and on the stump Lincoln's style shifted in 1854 to a more serious vein in which humor came primarily to elucidate an argument If I did not laugh occasionally I should die he is said to have told his cabinet and you need this medicine as much as I do Thomas brings his deep knowledge of Lincoln to essays on the great man's tumultuous career in Congress his work as a lawyer his experiences in the Courts and his opinions of the South A gracious survey of Lincoln s early biographers particularly Ida Tarbell stands alongside an appreciation of Harry Edward Pratt a key figure in the early days of the Abraham Lincoln Association Thomas also assesses Lincoln s use of language and the ongoing significance of the Gettysburg Address This diverse collection is enhanced by an introduction by Michael Burlingame himself a leading biographer of Lincoln Burlingame provides a balanced portrait of Thomas and his circuitous path toward writing history The Encyclopedia Americana ,1999 A thirty volume encyclopedia covering important world events while providing major new treatments of selected topics in various academic fields
