A Relationship Is a Living Thing Russell Crescimanno, 2009-04 Many marital relationships that dissolve could survive and even thrive if the couple realized that there is an art and science to love and intimacy and were willing to learn and practice it This involves learning how to experience the difference between our ego and our Self Quieting the mind through meditation using methods both traditional and home made is the key to this experience It is the felt sense of the deep Self within that moves us to choose to be kind or considerate when our egos would have us behave otherwise When we extend ourselves in friendship a genuine fondness for one another begins to grow which then nurtures the soul of our relationship Cultivating these qualities promotes deep spiritual partnership and long term intimacy This book offers both principles and practices for those who feel they may be ready to engage this kind of soul centered learning Russell Crescimanno Ph D is Professor Emeritus at Piedmont Virginia Community College He has been teaching courses in sociology for forty years One in particular called Marriage and Family Relations became his passion as both his personal life and the climate of the culture regarding marriage and divorce changed over time He has also been a student and practitioner of the science of meditation and Self realization for twenty years This work has complemented his specialization in the sociology of knowledge and his desire to understand how society shapes human consciousness and therefore our relationships Motivated by the growing divorce rate in the country the painful stories of so many students who come from broken homes and the dissolution of his first two marriages he has been increasingly invested in learning what it takes to keep love alive and what we now know is sure to deaden it

Autobiography of a New York City Salesman Rich Mollura, 2019-10-02 A wondrous and fascinating account of a parallel life of Conscious Evolution and Kundalini Activation directly from the streets of New York City If you are attracted to the ideas of spirituality and raising the level of consciousness of humanity as a whole you will want to peer into the inner life of Rich Mollura In the early 1980 s Rich was initiated into a surprising transformational journey by the relentless force of Kundalini Energy and Conscious Evolution This powerful and ancient mystery spontaneously and intelligently re engineered Rich s Being Little by little over 40 years he came to appreciate an unexpected and ingenious dimension of Life which revealed beauty mystery and profundity The strangest part of this tale is that while these transformations occurred he was simultaneously living an ordinary parallel life as a leading salesman to NYC businesses Unknown to virtually anyone he was waking up every morning at 3 AM to refine psychological insights and perform esoteric practices that he would later use to negotiate the movements inside his body as he worked to interconnect and comprehend this spectacular unfolding Imagine sitting in business meetings with jolts of bio electricity firing down limbs and electrifying your brain All while appearing normal and consistent with the world without notice Rich invites us into a world that was private but explosive as he tells how everyone from Carl Sagan and Walt Whitman to the Wizard of Oz and Eckhart Tolle among others came to become intellectual companions along the way Rich shares how he used his accumulated wisdom to weather everyday challenges that included the loss of his beloved mother to a Glioblastoma to how he and his wife Nancy addressed their son Richard s Crohn s and Celiac condition and other life challenges that threaten us all Rich details how life s higher wisdom can come to inspire and support our journey through higher energies of the body nature and ancient wisdom This book will help you to Embrace life as your teacher and partner Learn new and inventive teachings that could inspire your unique growth Open to how spider webs and butterflies can come to enlighten you Realize the profound potential of the energies of the human body From Experience to Relationships Jasna K. Schwind, Gail M.

Lindsay, 2008-04-01 The six writers in this book explore the contribution and the transferability of narrative inquiry from curriculum studies to daily life in education and in healthcare They examine the interconnectivity of reconstructed experience with the construction of disciplinary identity and knowledge Thinking narratively they write auto biographically about relationships between teachers students nurses colleagues and or people in their care As narrative inquirers they are curious how research moves forward professional situations in education and healthcare The narrative plotlines of knowledge construction curriculum building and identity formation thread through the chapters In education and healthcare the reconstructed experience of a teacher is shown to be foundational to curriculum content and processes In nursing education we see congruence between narrative inquiry Clandinin Connelly and theorists such as Watson 1999 include the nurse in the caring situation as shapers of the experience of people in their care As practitioner researchers teachers in education and healthcare construct who they are and how they are in relationship in the context of social situations Inquiry not certainty Dewey 1929 is a life stance that is formative for education Practitioners in education and in healthcare will be interested in this book as a way to make meaning of their experience Policymakers and administrators will be interested in this book as a way of conceptualizing teachers knowledge as a source of curriculum Researchers will be interested in this book as a demonstration of how narrative inquiry illuminates ways of being that are educative and an innovative way to study curriculum
