Relationships in the NHS Geoff Meads, 2000 This work tackles many of the issues facing the NHS from a relational perspective and focuses on what relational healthcare has to offer today's NHS. Trust in Experience Geoff Meads, Tricia Meads, 2018-08-11 Primary Care Trusts are a flagship initiative of government policy for modernising the NHS. The new requirement for frontline healthcare professionals to work together stretches across both community care and public health and as a result traditional boundaries are being blurred and new local roles and resources are emerging right across the primary care sector. This book draws practical lessons for Primary Care Trusts from applied research and development programmes in other parts of the NHS, other parts of the public sector, parallel developments in the private sector and relevant international experience. With contributions from the Health Management Group and its associates, this book provides a comprehensive approach and practical guidance. It includes new specific models for local development on clinical governance, evidence-based medicine, use of applied health services, research, social services, collaboration, new organisational partnerships, public health alliances, community hospital usage and managed care. Trust in Experience will enable readers to create PCTs as their own organisations and not simply as local agents of central policy and perceive changes as positive opportunities whilst recognising the risks involved.

Helping Relationships in Mental Health Steve Morgan, Jo Campling, 2013-11-11 How do you respond to the distress of a man who is sitting before you in his own flat, towels draped around his shoulders, newspaper wedged beneath the brim of his hat, an upturned frying pan over his head and a partially filled washing up bowl balanced on top of the frying pan? He holds the bowl with one hand and a cigarette in the other while he forcefully proclaims the secret services have placed someone in the flat above to drop radioactive dust down on him all day and all night. To start with you could offer him a light for his cigarette. The most likely medical response would be to consider increasing his antipsychotic medicine, though a cursory glance at his medical history suggests that inpatient admissions and large multiple prescriptions of injections and tablets have failed to eradicate the distressing fears that the secret services have occupied the ward above. Perhaps all the increased medication will achieve is to stop him going upstairs intent on retribution. It may even leaden his limbs sufficiently to make his current balancing act too difficult to sustain
