The Ultimate

Scene and Monologue Sourcebook Ed Hooks, 1994 Preparing for an audition and unsure of what you want to do The Ultimate Scene and Monologue Sourcebook is the book you've been waiting for Unlike scene books that reprint 50 to 75 monologues excerpted from plays but don't include any background information this annotated guide tells you what you really need to know about audition material from more than 300 contemporary plays Here is how the book works Suppose that you're looking for a dramatic male female scene When you scan Part One Play Synopses and Analyses you come across an entry for The Middle of the Night by Paddy Chayefsky This is what you see The Middle of the Night by Paddy Chayefsky Samuel French Synopsis A kindly 53 year old widower falls in love with a 23 year old woman who is unhappily married to a musician No one in their circle of acquaintances approves of this union but their love is true Analysis Excellent human drama frequently touching Actors who play the widower need to have a good feel for New York City Brooklyn speech patterns This sensitivity isn't as essential for the part of the woman All levels Scenes Monologues Male Monologues 1 Female Female Scenes 1 Male Female Scenes 2 In addition to basic information about the play author and publisher the entry provides you with the story line a critique of the play and the number of audition worthy monologues and scenes it contains If the description of this particular play piques your interest your next step is to turn to Part Six Male Female Scenes for specifics about the selection This is what you'll see there The Middle of the Night by Paddy Chayefsky Samuel French Drama Act II Scene 2 pp 40 44 The Manufacturer 53 and The 23 After an unsatisfactory attempt at lovemaking The Manufacturer feels awful that he wasn't able to perform usually The is very understanding He then asks her to marry him The actor playing The Manufacturer must have a good feel for regional New York speech patterns This skill is less critical for the actress playing The Start The Manufacturer I'm sorry Betty End The Manufacturer Oh my sweet I love you so much you don't know If you change your mind tomorrow I won't be angry with you I won't lie to you Betty I'm afraid This entry tells you what type of scene this is dramatic where you'll find the selection act scene and page numbers the length of the scene the names and ages of the characters the context in which the characters are speaking and the first and last lines of the scene If the material seems appropriate all you have to do is get a copy of the play and get to work Because The Ultimate Scene and Monologue Sourcebook enables you to make informed decisions about the suitability of more than 1 000 monologues and scenes which you can find easily through the book's extensive cross indexes you'll gain a critical edge in the auditioning process

French Romance of the Later Middle Ages Rosalind Brown-Grant, 2008-11-13 Whilst French romances of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries have long enjoyed a privileged place in the literary history of France romances from the later middle ages have been largely neglected by modern scholars despite their central role in the chivalric culture of the day In particular although this genre has been seen as providing a forum within which ideas about masculine and feminine roles were debated and prescribed little work has been done on the gender ideology of texts from the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries This study seeks to fill this gap in the scholarship by analysing how the views of gender found in earlier romances were reassessed and reshaped in the texts produced in the moralising intellectual environment of the later medieval period In order to explore these topics this book discusses fifteen historico realist prose romances written in the century from 1390 many of which were commissioned at the court of Burgundy It addresses key issues in recent studies of gender in medieval culture including the construction of chivalric masculinity the representation of adolescent desire and the social and sexual roles of husbands and wives In addition to offering close readings of these texts it shows how the romances of the period were informed by ideas about gender which circulated in contemporary works such as manuals of chivalry moral treatises and marriage sermons It thus aims not only to provide the first in depth study of this little known area of French literary history but also to question the critical consensus on the role of gender in medieval romance that has arisen from an exclusive focus on earlier works in the genre

Conjugal Relationships in Chinese Culture Chi Sum Garfield Lau, Kelly Kar Yue Chan, 2023-04-16 This book reviews the presentation of conjugal relationships in Chinese culture and their perception in the West It explores the ways in which the act of marriage is represented misrepresented in different literary genres as well as in cultural adaptations It looks at the gendered characteristics at play that affect conjugal relationships in Chinese societal practices more widely It also distinguishes between the essential features that give rise to nuptial arrangements from the Chinese perspective looking at what in which Sino and or Western mentalities differ in terms of notions of autonomy in marriage It excavates the extent to which marriage is constituted in forms of transaction between female and male bodies and asks under what circumstances wedding ceremonies constitute archetypal or counter archetypal notions in pre modern and modern society Authors cover a range of fascinating cultural topics such as posthumous marriage necrogamy as an ancient and popular folk culture from the perspective of Confucian ideology as well as looking at marriage from ancient to present times duty and rights in conjugal relations inter racial and inter cultural marriage widowhood in Confucian ideology issues of legitimacy in marriage and concubinage the taboos surrounding divorce and re marriage and conjugal violence The book serves to revisit the cultural connections between marriage and various art forms including literature film theatre and other adaptations It is a rich intellectual resource for scholars and students researching the historical roots cultural interpretations and evolving aspects of marriage as shown in literature art and culture

Postdramatic Tragedies Emma K. Cole, 2020 Ancient tragedy has played a well documented role in contemporary theatre since the mid twentieth century In addition to the often commented upon watershed productions however is a significant but overlooked history involving classical tragedy in experimental and avant garde theatre Postdramatic Tragedies focuses upon such experimental reinventions and analyses receptions of Greek and Roman tragedy that come under the banner of postdramatic theatre a style of performance in which the traditional components of drama such as character and narrative are subordinate to the immediate affective power of more abstract elements such as image and sound The chapters are arranged into three parts each of which explores classical reception within a specific strand of postdramatic theatre text based theatre devised theatre and theatre that transcends the usual boundaries of time and space such as durational and immersive theatre Each offers a semiotic and phenomenological analysis of a particular case study covering both widely known and less studied productions from 1995 to 2015 Together they reveal that postdramatic theatre is related to the classics at its conceptual core and that the study of postdramatic tragedies reveals a great deal about both the evolution of theatre in recent decades and the status of ancient drama in modernity
