contemporary and past religious practices ideas and institutions within a shared framework Mediating Faiths Michael Bailey, Guy Redden, 2011 Mediating Faiths brings together scholars working across a range of fields including cultural studies media sociology anthropology cultural theory and religious studies in order to illustrate how religion continues to be responsive to the very latest social and cultural developments in the environments in which it exists They raise fundamental questions concerning new media and religious expression religious youth cultures the links between spirituality personal development and consumer culture and contemporary intersections of religion identity and politics Overcoming Religious Illiteracy D. Moore, 2007-10-02 In Overcoming Religious Illiteracy Harvard professor and Phillips Academy teacher Diane L Moore argues that though the United States is one of the most religiously diverse nations in the world the vast majority of citizens are woefully ignorant about religion itself and the basic tenets of the world's major religious traditions The consequences of this religious illiteracy are profound and include fueling the culture wars curtailing historical understanding and promoting religious and racial bigotry In this volume Moore combines theory with practice to articulate how to incorporate the study of religion into the schools in ways that will invigorate classrooms and enhance democratic discourse in the public sphere Religion and Cultural Studies Susan Laura Mizruchi, 2001 Americans have never been more religious than they are now at the dawn of the twenty first century By all reports attendance rates at traditional places of worship are high and rising the influx of new immigrant religions has revitalized standard faiths and drawn in those who had strayed from them Popular television shows like The Simpsons feature characters who go to church every Sunday and speak to God special events like the 1998 outdoor mass in Worcester Massachusetts for a comatose girl believed to have miraculous powers attract thousands of people This collection is both part of this ferment and an intellectual reflection upon it Religion and Cultural Studies features essays by major scholars from the fields of anthropology history literary criticism and religion in order to enrich critical discourse about religion and culture Despite the variety of disciplines represented by this group of scholars and the variety of cultures explored in their essays from fifteenth century Flemish asceticism and nineteenth century African American spiritualism to Russian blood libel trials and Alien Abduction Reports in the twentieth century their common ground is the question of religion's place in current American academic analysis and more broadly in American life today The volume's range of vocabulary and subject matter is aimed at vitalizing scholarly interest in the field of religion and cultural studies and deepening intellectual inquiry in the contemporary academy The contributors are Eytan Bercovitch Karen McCarthy Brown Gillian Feeley Harnik Richard Wightman Fox Jenny Franchot Giles Gunn Geoffrey Galt Harpham Bruce B Lawrence Jack Miles Susan L Mizruchi and Jonathan Z Smith The Transition of Religion to Culture in Law and Public Discourse Lori G. Approaches to the Visual in Religion Daria Pezzoli-Olgia, Christopher Rowland, 2011-06-16 The authors of this volume investigate the analysis of visual sources and their indispensable role for understanding and interpreting religions their symbol systems and the wider traditions of which they are a part A particular interest in this study is the focus on the methodological challenge of images from a comparative perspective The common concern that ranges over all the contributions is the search for a methodological perspective where images may be analysed in a comprehensive way with particular regard for the social and wider intellectual settings as well as the religious in which the images are embedded Accordingly we seek to show that visual sources need to be interpreted from different angles In the last decades a broad range of publications has contributed to highlight the significance of images and visual media in general for understanding religious traditions communities and discourses in both historical and contemporary perspective In more recent research streams focussing on visual media in religious traditions and symbol systems various avenues have opened up and been explored focussing on the status of images and of the gaze of the viewer as central aspects Furthermore there are illuminating contributions dealing with the theoretical premises and settings with which to approach the visual as a central component of religion on the one hand giving an overview of essential definitions and implications on the other hand concentrating on specific techniques and or media
