Scriptwriting For High Impact Videos Imaginative Approaches To Delivering Factual Information:

Scriptwriting for High-Impact Videos John Morley, 2010-11-01      Scriptwriting for High-impact Videos John Morley, 1992

This text takes a process oriented teaching approach as it guides the student step by step through the creative process. It provides examples, thought provoking questions and concepts to spark the imagination at every step and reveals seven essential strategies for improving any video as well as offering techniques for involving content experts and decision makers in the process whilst maintaining creative control.

Television Production Handbook Herbert Zettl, 1997. Thousands of students have learned the basics of television production techniques with Herbert Zettl's pace setting best selling Television Production Handbook. In this Sixth Edition you will learn about the latest equipment and techniques that are changing the face of the industry. Whether you're a novice or have prior exposure to television production you will find this handbook's two tier organization helpful in directing you to topic coverage that's appropriate for your level of knowledge. This book covers all aspects of television production from cameras, lighting and audio to editing, visual effects and every stage of production. In this edition you will find the latest information on such topics as lighting techniques, the newest small digital camcorders, nonlinear editing, desktop production and other uses of the computer in postproduction. And the book's numerous illustrations and photographs give you a clear view of the world of television production.

Audio in Media Stanley R. Alten, 1999. On sound in the mass media.

Today's Video Peter Utz, 2006. In a society that is increasingly steeped in video culture, the role of videographer is more and more prominent. Here is a do it yourself guide to videography that offers comprehensive information for anyone working in or hoping to enter this fast growing field. Written by an educator, this revised and updated manual provides detailed information on shooting and editing videos. It begins with basic concepts and progresses through all facets of video equipment and technique. Discussions deal not only with the mechanics of shooting a video but also with the artistry involved. Special emphasis is placed on pre production planning and the necessity of considering subject as well as audience. Helpful hints on production staging and budgeting are also included. Mini glossaries within the sections define important terms. The final section is devoted to in depth strategies for shooting specific types of videos including newscasts, legal, corporate and music videos and weddings and other events.

Writing for Video Gene Bjerke, 1997      Vocational and Technical Resources for Community College Libraries Mary Ann Laun, 1995

Video Basics 3 Herbert Zettl, 2001. Meeting the instructor's needs for a briefer book, this text distills video basics so that they can be covered in a single term. The book moves students from video concepts and processes to production tools and techniques and finally to the production environment, studio or field, inside or outside and its effects. A more conceptual framework leads the student from the idea, what to create, to the image, how to create on video.

Video Basics 2 Herbert Zettl, 1998. This book distills video basics, moving readers from video concepts and processes to production tools and techniques and finally to the production environment, studio or field, inside or outside and how it affects what is done.

Sight, Sound, Motion Herbert Zettl, 1999

Describes the major aesthetic image elements light and colour space time motion and sound and how they are used in television and film The volume provides comprehensive coverage of aesthetic theory and inclusion of visuals and examples
