divided into sections wherein contributions examine finds and their archaeological social and economic contexts from specific regions It concludes with an overview of the significance and role of these objects in Early Bronze Age societies of the Aegean and eastern Mediterranean region This will be the first time that this material has been systematically gathered together Highly illustrated it follows and builds on the successful preceding volume Early Cycladic Sculpture in Context Oxbow 2016

development of sculpture and painting as perceived by the ancient writers The new and substantial bibliography organised by topics as they appear in the book emphasises works that deal directly with the literary sources or that supplement our knowledge of the personalities and monuments described in the sources This collection will be welcomed by students and teachers of Greek art who have long been in need of an authoritative and reliable sourcebook for their subject Children in the Hellenistic World Olympia Bobou, 2015 Bobou offers a systematic analysis of ancient Greek statues of children from the sanctuaries houses and necropoleis of the Hellenistic world in order to understand their function and meaning Looking at the literary and epigraphical evidence she argues that these statues were important for transmitting civic values to future citizens Masterpieces of Greek Sculpture. A Series of Essays on the History of Art Adolf Furtwängler, 1895 Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B.C. William A. P. Childs, 2018-04-10 Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B C analyzes the broad character of art produced during this period providing in depth analysis of and commentary on many of its most notable examples of sculpture and painting Taking into consideration developments in style and subject matter and elucidating political religious and intellectual context William A P Childs argues that Greek art in this era was a natural outgrowth of the high classical period and focused on developing the rudiments of individual expression that became the hallmark of the classical in the fifth century As Childs shows in many respects the art of this period corresponds with the philosophical inquiry by Plato and his contemporaries into the nature of art and speaks to the contemporaneous sense of insecurity and renewed religious devotion Delving into formal and iconographic developments in sculpture and painting Childs examines how the sensitive expressive quality of these works seamlessly links the classical and Hellenistic periods with no appreciable rupture in the continuous exploration of the human condition Another overarching theme concerns the nature of style as a concept of expression an issue that becomes more important given the increasingly multiple styles and functions of fourth century Greek art Childs also shows how the color and form of works suggested the unseen and revealed the profound character of individuals and the physical world Journal & Proceedings of the Asiatic Society of Bengal, 1906 Includes section Numismatic supplement no 5 45 previously issued in the society's Journal later in its Journal 3rd ser
