The Sea of Becoming Mary S. Vasquez, 1991 The present volume responds to a perceived need for a unified body of serious critical work from a variety of perspectives on the literary production of this dynamic and original writer It includes ten essays interviews and an annotated bibliography the first ever available on Tusquets Post-totalitarian Spanish Fiction Robert C. Spires, 1996 This study records an epistemic shift away from logocentric and totalizing approaches to reality by analyzing the links between the novelistic strategies used by Spanish writers from 1975 to 1989 and recent international events and theoretical trends in science mathematics communication studies and art Cultural Representations of Queer Aging in Spain Heather Jerónimo, Raquel Medina, 2025-06-02 This collection examines representations of Spanish queer aging through investigations of literary and cinematic representations of this demographic offering a showcase for research on communities often made invisible due to age and sexual identity in Spanish culture with wider implications for queer aging studies research The volume builds on theoretical foundations established by queer aging studies scholars and the ways in which queer aging differs from heterosexual aging examining negative topics that arise in literature and film such as the AIDS crisis the silencing of queer aging individuals and social stigmas against this group in addition to positive topics like the creation of communities and spaces for queer aging characters Chapters are structured in conversation with one another about key themes in depictions of queer aging in Spanish culture Several chapters examine such topics as the aging body stereotypes and discrimination old age tropes and queer invisibility while others highlight positive representations in exploring the importance of the connection to home family and community spaces for queer communities The collection represents a critical step in future work on queer aging to take future research beyond the Spanish context to extend to new geographic and disciplinary borders This book will be of interest to scholars in aging studies gerontology studies queer theory health humanities and Spanish literature and culture Literary Labyrinths in Franco-Era Barcelona Colleen P. Culleton, 2016-07-22 Bringing together works by Salvador Espriu Juan Goytisolo Merc Rodoreda Esther Tusquets and Juan Marsa that portray memory as a disorienting narrative enterprise Colleen Culleton argues that the source of this disorientation is the material reality of life in Barcelona in the immediate post Civil War years Barcelona was the object of harsh persecution in the first years of the Franco regime that included the erasure of marks of Catalan identity and cultural history from the urban landscape and made Barcelona a moving target for memory The literature and film she examines show characters struggling to produce narratives of the remembered past that immediately conflict with the dominant version of Spain's historical narrative formulated to legitimize the Civil War Culleton suggests the trope of the laberinto used as an image or device in all five of the works she considers and translated into English as both maze and labyrinth opens up a space that enables readers to take vulnerability to outside interference into account as an inseparable part of remembrance While the narratives all have maze like qualities involving a high level of reader participation and choice the exigencies of the labyrinth with its unicursal demands for patience perseverance and faith always prevail Thus do the Francoist narrative and social structure in the end resurface and reassert themselves over the narrating character's perspective
