Forgetting Fathers David Marshall, 2015-09-24 An eloquent personal reflection on the fascination of family history and the desire to both discover and escape origins In Forgetting Fathers David Marshall weaves together the stories of his grandfather and great grandfather with his own quest to solve the mystery of his family's past Beginning as a search for his lost family name Marshall attempts to understand the origins of his grandfather who spent part of his childhood in the Hebrew Orphan Asylum of the City of New York He also reconstructs the life and death of his great grandfather a Russian immigrant tailor who died at age thirty six in a private sanitarium dedicated to the treatment of mental and nervous diseases The narrative becomes a detective story that reflects on our ambivalence about origins the relation between history and mourning and the compulsion to search for life stories Forgetting Fathers combines historical accounts based on records reports and public documents with autobiographical reflections and speculations Included throughout are photographs newspaper clippings and facsimiles of original documents that provide a sense of both the texture of the times and the fabric of archival and genealogical research One of our most gifted literary scholars David Marshall in Forgetting Fathers has written an unforgettable detective story born in a deeply felt personal quest to solve the mystery of his grandfather's name The result is not only an absorbing read it is a profound testament to the human impulse to know who we are and from whence we came For Marshall that secret was locked a century ago in the Hebrew Orphan Asylum of the City of New York and in his odyssey to find and turn the key Marshall becomes the living proof of Eudora Welty's timeless line Remembering is done through the blood Henry Louis Gates Jr Alphonse Fletcher University Professor Harvard University Forgetting Fathers is a truly remarkable piece of work The pertinacity of Marshall as a reader as a critic as a theorist impels him on his quest to learn all that he can about his past The book is riveting Jonathan Freedman coeditor of Jewish in America From the Hebrew Orphan Asylum to the history of New York tailors David Marshall weaves his Jewish family memoir with gripping details An enlightening contribution to the growing body of research on the lives and institutions of twentieth century Jewish immigrants Mikhal Dekel author of The Universal Jew Masculinity Modernity and the Zionist Moment

The Boy He Left Behind Mark Matousek, 2001-02-01 A riveting story in the hands of a master storyteller James McBride The Color of Water I was four years old when my father came back to kidnap me begins this gripping memoir about Matousek's search for James Matousek the drifter father he never knew Described by the New York Times as part reminiscence part detective story part spiritual musing this memoir is more than the story of one man's search for his father it is also a look at the meaning of life and how fathers contribute to that meaning Growing up in a family of troubled women Matousek's sister committed suicide when the author was 29 he describes the turmoil of growing up fatherless in America an experience shared by millions of children in what sociologists have called the Age of the Absent Father and the difficult ultimately successful struggle to figure out what being a man really means in an age of shifting definitions and evolving sexuality With the tension of a mystery story the climax occurs when Matousek meets a man he believes to be his father But is he And does Matousek who has reconciled with his mother as she lay dying really care These are just two questions leading to this memoir's surprising conclusion The Father Connection Josh McDowell, 2008 A modern classic on father child relationships is revised and redesigned continuing its legacy of helping dads to lovingly raise their kids based on God's teaching

Adopted Women and Biological Fathers offers a critical and deconstructive challenge to the dominant notions of adoptive identity The author explores adoptive women s experiences of meeting their biological fathers and reflects on personal narratives to give an authoritative overview of both the field of adoption and the specific history of adoption reunion This book takes as its focus the narratives of 14 adopted women as well as the partly fictionalised story of the author and examines their experiences of birth father reunion in an attempt to dissect the ways in which we understand adoptive female subjectivity through a psychosocial lens Opening a space for thinking about the role of the discursively neglected biological father this book exposes the enigmatic dimensions of this figure and how telling the relational story of reconciliation might be used to complicate wider categories of subjective completeness belonging and truth This book attempts to subvert the culturally normative unifying system of the mother child bond and prompts the reader to think about what the biological father might represent and how his role in relation to adoptive female subjects may be understood This book will be essential reading for those in critical psychology gender studies narrative work sociology and psychosocial studies as well as appealing to anyone interested in adoption issues and female subjectivity Fatherhood University Dr. Sarel van der Merwe,2024-03-10

Moses by God are beyond the scope of human law They are rules meant to hold us together but when dishonored they lead to discord and violence In this fierce articulate narrative Hedges who graduated from seminary at Harvard Divinity School looks through the lens of each commandment to examine the moral ruin of American society With urgency and passion he challenges readers to take a hard look at the disconnect between their supposed values and the shallow self absorbed lives many people actually lead Taking examples from his personal life and twenty years of reporting Hedges explores one commandment at a time each through a particular social group With each story he reveals the universal nature of personal suffering discovery and redemption and explores the laws that we have tried to follow often unsuccessfully for the past 6 000 years

Rosemary in Search of a Father Charles Norris Williamson,Alice Muriel Williamson,1906 Fictive Fathers in the Contemporary American Novel Debra Shostak,2020-02-20

Fictive Fathers in the Contemporary American Novel explores the unstable construction of heteronormative white masculinity in the contemporary United States by focusing on relationships between fathers and their children Debra Shostak reads the novels of 18 North American writers publishing in the late 20th and early 21st centuries as allegories of cultural conflict and change within the nuclear family the authors considered include Paul Auster Don DeLillo Jeffrey Eugenides Jonathan Safran Foer Jonathan Franzen John Irving Jonathan Lethem Carole Maso Bobbie Ann Mason Cormac McCarthy Claire Messud Viet Thanh Nguyen Tim O'Brien Marilynne Robinson Philip Roth Mona Simpson Jane Smiley and Anne Tyler These novelists portray father figures who often literally or figuratively absent from the family scene disrupt the familial order and their family members identities Shostak's close readings illuminate unexpectedly conservative even subversive ideological positions at the heart of these fictions Fictive Fathers traces the eroding myth of paternal authority that sustained a patriarchal model within real American families and their literary representations

Making Men Into Fathers Barbara Meil Hobson,2002-01-10 Fatherhood is on the political agenda in many countries often cast in terms of crisis One side of the policy debate focuses on fathers as deadbeat dads who do not provide financial support and care for their children The other revolves around making men into active and engaged fathers However these policies are often at odds with the employers reluctance to accommodate work schedules to fathers needs In Making Men into Fathers prominent scholars in gender studies and the critical studies of men consider how varied institutional settings and policy logics around cash and care contour the possibilities and constraints for new models of fatherhood determining the choices open to men From different historical and societal perspectives the authors provide insights into the studies of men as gendered subjects including the role of transnational and global issues of fatherhood and the emergence of men's movements contesting and reimagining fatherhood

Wounded Masculinity and the Search for (Father) Self in American Film Susan Mackey-Kallis,Brian Johnston,2023-12-12 Drawing on texts and theorists of Greek myth psychoanalysis and masculinities Susan Mackey Kallis and Brian Johnston develop and offer a model of rhetorical and mythic criticism to analyze popular American film In this book Mackey Kallis and Johnston focus their analysis on films that point to the need for father atonement ego decentering and the resurrection of the lost feminine to heal our collective gendered cultural wounds Many of these mystic films they contend affirm the role of meaningful suffering compassion integration of the feminine self sacrifice and transcendence as antidotes to the inevitable woundedness of the human condition Ultimately the authors argue for the importance of digging into the substance of cultural wounds rather than superficially suturing them over to change the conversation about woundedness and provide a roadmap for healing gendered relations in contemporary American culture The book concludes with a discussion of Joseph Campbell s interpretation of the metaphorical power of myth and its transcendent function to argue for a theory of us rather than a theory of us versus them Scholars of film gender studies American studies cultural studies gender studies and psychology will find this book of particular interest The
