Search For Reality The Art Of Documentary Filmmaking:

The Search for "reality" Michael Tobias, 1998 This ambitious book from author producer and director Michael Tobias draws together the voices of 40 renowned documentary filmmakers from around the world These contributors shed unique light on contemporary culture and aesthetics the filmmaker's commitment to the documentary form and the documentary production process from concept to marketplace They also probe provocative questions What is reality in a documentary Can and should there be objectivity in a documentary What is the role of social advocacy in a documentary How do new production technologies affect a documentary's message This is the first book that brings together an international roster of documentary filmmakers to speak about the very heart and soul of their art It should prove to be an invaluable guide for both professionals and students and will appeal to general filmgoers as well

The Documentary Makers David A. Goldsmith, 2003 A series of in their own words interviews with 15 directors whose work has in some way extended the boundary of the documentary They constitute a tiny proportion of those working in the field but they represent the state of the documentary across the world from the limited resources of China's only independent director with no access to his nation's television to the big budget series that attract tens of millions of American viewers Some will only work on film with all its paraphernalia of moviemaking while others insist on working alone with nothing more than a Handicam Some question even abhor the use of commentary others wouldn't dream of doing without Some work by the rules of cinema verite and some use dramatization while still labeling their work documentary Regardless of the where and the how they all seek to reproduce reality whatever that might be Book jacket

Documentaries Andy Glynne, 2008-03-01 Currently one of the most popular film and TV genres due to the success of Michael Moore Supersize Me and March of the Penguins documentaries and the process of creating them are subjected to scrutiny in this guide which comes with a bonus DVD featuring three award winning documentaries discussed as case studies Fans of the genre will enjoy a history of the art form and interviews with industry insiders and award winning filmmakers who contribute their tips tricks and advice Aspiring filmmakers will find advice covering the whole production process from developing a concept to marketing and distribution Details on the full range of current film festivals are also included

D.A. Pennebaker Keith Beattie, 2011-10-15 This volume is the first book length study of the extensive career and prolific works of D A Pennebaker one of the pioneers of direct cinema a documentary form that emphasizes observation and a straightforward portrayal of events With a career spanning decades Pennebaker's many projects have included avant garde experiments Daybreak Express ground breaking television documentaries Primary celebrity films Dont Look Back concert films Monterey Pop and innovative fusions of documentary and fiction Maidstone Exploring the concept of performing the real Keith Beattie interprets Pennebaker's films as performances in which the act of filming is in itself a performative transgression of the norms of purely observational documentary He examines the ways in which Pennebaker's presentation of unscripted everyday performances is informed by connections between documentary filmmaking and other experimental movements such as the New American Cinema Through his collaborations with such various artists as Richard Leacock Shirley Clarke Norman Mailer and Jean Luc Godard Pennebaker has continually reworked and redefined the forms of documentary filmmaking This book also includes a recent interview with the director and a full filmography The Art and Craft of Motion Pictures Vincent LoBrutto,2019-08-02 This volume can rightfully be called a film school in a single book Investigating and analyzing the elements and concepts of motion picture creation this book looks closely at 25 films that represent a wide range of styles and subjects Although most motion picture viewers have seen numerous movies in their lifetime few in the general public have a firm and deep understanding of how motion pictures are created or a grasp of the intricacies of cinematic storytelling and content By presenting 25 films American and international Hollywood and independent this book educates and enlightens readers about the details of the motion picture creation process Some readers will have viewed certain films in the volume but many will be introduced to major cinematic works within the canon of great and essential films for the very first time Topics explored include animation period films editing directorial style and non linear cinematic structure Readers will learn about the origin of the jump cut in Breathless time and space in Hiroshima Mon Amour and the editing in Orson Welles s essay film F is for Fake The Art and Craft of Motion Pictures 25 Movies to Make You Film Literate will educate the novice and avid moviegoer alike about the inner workings of this dynamic popular and culturally significant art form Becoming Film Literate Vincent LoBrutto,2005-03-30 Though movies have remained our foremost cultural pastime for over 100 years many of us still know very little about the tools used to create them In this groundbreaking new book Vincent LoBrutto provides an enjoyable and accessible education in the art of cinema using 50 landmark films spanning the history of the medium LoBrutto illustrates such important concepts as editing production design cinematography sound screen acting narrative structure and various genres nationalities and film eras Each concept is illustrated by the selection of a film that epitomizes its use so that readers will learn about film authorship in Citizen Kane multiplot narrative in Nashville widescreen filmmaking in Rebel without a Cause and screen violence in The Wild Bunch Explaining the various tricks of the moviemaking trade Becoming Film Literate offers a crash course in cinema one designed to give even the novice reader a solid introduction to this complex and multifaceted medium Though movies have remained our foremost cultural pastime for over 100 years many of us still know very little about the tools used to create them In this groundbreaking new book Vincent LoBrutto provides an enjoyable and accessible education in the art of cinema using 50 landmark films spanning the history of the medium LoBrutto illustrates such important concepts as editing production design cinematography sound screen acting narrative structure and various genres nationalities and film eras Each concept is illustrated by the selection of a film that epitomizes its use so that readers will learn about film authorship in Citizen Kane multiplot narrative in Nashville widescreen filmmaking in Rebel without a Cause and screen violence in The Wild Bunch Providing a unique opportunity to become acquainted with important movies

This collection aims to give insight to the reader as to how poetic approaches to documentary filmmaking have helped to develop the documentary form into a rich and diverse way of representing the real world in film. As such it is the aesthetics of documentary filmmaking that becomes the primary focus of discussion within this collection. The majority of the chapters are written by documentary filmmakers who give insight into how poetics have influenced their own approach to documentary filmmaking while other chapters are written by film scholars who analyse the work of others in order to uncover how poetics are manifested in existing documentary films. This book will be of interest to those who produce documentary films as well as those who have an interest in the work of other documentary filmmakers.
