new idea of marriage based on a belief in the transformative power of love and emotion carried within it the seeds of its own destruction Romantic love particularly when tied to sexual satisfaction ultimately proved an unreliable foundation upon which to build marriages fatally it had the potential to evaporate over time and under pressure Scratching beneath the surface of the apparent golden age of marriage Claire Langhamer uncovers the real story of love in the twentieth century via the recollections of ordinary people who lived through the period It is a tale of quiet emotional instability persistent subversion and unsettling change At its end the idea of life long marriage was in serious decline And as Langhamer shows this was a decline directly rooted in the contradictions and tensions that lay at the heart of the emotional revolution itself
