National Security Strategy of the United States United States. President (1981-1989 : Reagan),1987 War Against the Poor Jack Nelson-Pallmeyer,2017-01-09 The strategy of low intensity conflict or LIC is a little known yet sophisticated and deadly form of U S intervention in the Third World Drawing heavily on his own experience of living and working in Central America Nelson Pallmeyer shows how LIC victimizes the poor through various techniques disinformation manipulation of elections economic exploitation even as with the contras in Nicaragua outright terrorism Low intensity conflict does more than disable the poor It also threatens U S democracy and undermines Christian faith By integrating economic psychological diplomatic and military aspects of war into a unified package designed to manage or block social change in the Third World U S special interests use LIC to protect their elite positions and profits So cynical in outline and so damaging in practice Nelson Pallmeyer argues LIC presents Christians in the United States with a situation similar to that faced by the Confessing Churches in Nazi Germany United States-Third World Relations in the New World Order Abbas P. Grammy,C. Kaye Bragg,1996 This book explores the primary issues and organising principles that define the United States Third World relations in the New World Order This book consists of six sections The first section includes three essays on the political economy of the United States Third World relations and American political economic and military involvement in the developing countries In section two there are two chapters that address the political and cultural challenges facing the United States Latin American relations in the post Cold War era followed by a regional and a country study Section three devoted to the United States Asia relations in the New World Order consists of two general essays and three case studies In section four we find a chapter that will focus on the relationship between the United States and the Middle East an essay on economic development and two case studies Section five consists of one general essay on the economic decline of countries in Sub Saharan Africa in the post Cold War era followed by a case study of structural adjustments in an African country The final section of the book is comprised of four chapters on the political economy of development in the New World Order
