Lpr Visible Islam In Modern Turkey:

Visible Islam in Modern Turkey A. Özdemir, Kenneth Frank, 2000-06-21 Visible Islam in Modern Turkey presents a rich panorama of Islamic practices in today's Turkey. The authors, one a Muslim and one a Christian, introduce readers to Turkish Islamic piety and observances. The book is also a model for Muslims for it interprets the foundations of Islam to the modern mind and shows the relevance of Turkish Islamic practices to modern society. Packed with data and insights, it appeals to a variety of circles, both secular and traditional.

Bibliographie Internationale Des Recensions de la Littérature Savante, 1995 Lpr; Standing Order Sbn (Hc) John Hick, 1997-01-01 Revival of Islam in Modern Turkey Uriel Heyd, 1968 Islam in Modern Turkey Richard Tapper, 1994 A systematic account of the life works and accomplishments of al Kirmani, an important Ismaili Muslim scholar and writer in the fields of philosophy and science who lived during the first half of the 11th century AD. The Veiling Issue, Official Secularism and Popular Islam in Modern Turkey Elisabeth Özdalga, 1998 This text describes the conflict over the veil as it became a burning issue in the decade following the military intervention of 1980. The author argues that the fact that the Islamic movement is on the rise does not mean that it threatens the very foundations of modern Turkish society. Reading Islam Fabio Vicini, 2019-10-21 In Reading Islam Fabio Vicini offers a journey within the intimate relations, reading practices and forms of intellectual engagement that regulate Muslim life in two enclosed religious communities in Istanbul. Combining anthropological observation with textual and genealogical analysis, he illustrates how the modes of thought and social engagement promoted by these two communities are the outcome of complex intellectual entanglements with modern discourses about science, education, the self, and Muslims' place and responsibility in society. In this way, Reading Islam sheds light on the formation of new generations of faithful and socially active Muslims over the last thirty years and on their impact on the turn of Turkey from an assertive secularist Republic to an Islamic-oriented form of governance. Muslims in Modern Turkey Sena Karasipahi, 2009 Modern Turkey is the site of a powerful Islamic revival with a strong intellectual elite dedicated to the overthrow of secular modernism. Why have modern Muslim intellectuals turned against the ideals of Kemalism on which the modern Turkish nation-state is founded? What does this reveal about the future of Turkey? And how are Islamic intellectuals in Turkey affected by developments in the Middle East? Muslims in Modern Turkey is the first book to analyse this phenomenon, tracing the evolution of Muslim intellectual thought from the 1980s to the present day. It focuses on six leading Muslim thinkers: Ali Bulac, Rasim Özdenören, İsmet Özel, İlhan Kutluer, Ersin Nazif Gürdoğan, and Abdurrahman Dilipak, who belong to a single school and share a novel understanding of Islam. They act as public intellectuals who aim to reform and enlighten society by educating them and raising their awareness of Islamic values, arguing not for the compatibility of Islam and European values but the fundamental superiority of Islam over secular democracy. Sena Karasipahi places the Turkish experience in its broader international context and shows how Turkish Islamic intellectuals are affected by the earlier Muslim intellectuals and revivalists in the Arab world and in Turkey This important study makes connections with the Islamic revival process throughout the contemporary Middle East as well as with comparable movements in Turkey s own past making this a crucial contribution to an understanding of contemporary Islamic political thinking Bloomsbury publishing Islam in Modern Turkey: The new Muslim intellectuals in the Republic of Turkey Richard Tapper,1994 Islam in Modern Turkey Kim Shively,2021-01-31 This book provides a survey of Islam in Turkey since the founding of the modern republic in 1923 It examines the secularising policies of Turkey s founders and how these policies have shaped the development of religious institutions and social expectations around religious practice up to the present day A special emphasis is on the relationship between religion and politics with chapters focusing on state based religious institutions religious education Sufi orders and religious communities Alevism Islamic oriented political parties and the effects of economic liberalization on the practice of Islam in Turkey Readers will also learn about the political and social developments that contributed to the rise of the current Islamist government of the Justice and Development Party In this way Islam in Turkey provides vital historical context for understanding both the rise of the controversial President Recep Tayyip Erdo an and current events in Turkey and the Middle East more broadly Muslims in Modern Turkey ,2014 Secularism and State Religion in Modern Turkey Emir Kaya,2017 The Diyanet the official face of Islam in Turkey is the Presidency of Religious Affairs a governmental department established in 1924 after the break up of the Ottoman Empire and the abolition of Caliphate In this book Emir Kaya offers an in depth multidisciplinary analysis of this vital institution Focusing on the role of the Diyanet in society Kaya explores the balance the institution has to strike between the Muslim traditions of the Turkish population and the secular creed of the Turkish state By examining the various laws that either bolstered or hindered the Diyanet s budgets and activities Kaya highlights the institutional mindsets of the Diyanet membership He also evaluates its successes and failures as a state department that must consistently operate within the context of the religiosity of Turkish society By situating all of this within the two competing but often complimentary concepts of religion and secularism Kaya offers a book that is important for those researching the interplay of Islam and the state in Turkey and beyond Bloomsbury Publishing Faith and Fashion in Turkey Nazli Alimen,2018-02-28 Turkey has witnessed remarkable sociocultural change under the regime of Recep Tayyip Erdogan and his Justice and Development Party AKP particularly regarding its religious communities As individuals with pious identities have increasingly gained access to state power and accumulated economic influence so religious appearances and practices have become more visible in Turkey s secular public spaces More than this consumption practices have changed and new Islamic and Islamist identities have emerged This book investigates three of the most widespread faith inspired communities in Turkey the Gulen Suleymanli and the Menzil Nazli Alimen compares these communities looking at their diverse interpretations of Islamic rules related to the body and dress and how these different groups compete for power and control in Turkey In tracing what motivates consumption practices the book adds to the growing interest in the commercial aspects of modest and Islamic fashion It also highlights the importance of clothing and bodily rituals such as veiling grooming and food choices for the formation of community identities Based on ethnographic research Alimen analyses the relationship between the marketplace and religion and shows how different communities interact with each other and state institutions Of particular note are the varied expressions of Islamic masculinities and femininities at play Appealing to a cross disciplinary readership the book will be relevant for scholars within Turkish Studies Gender Studies Islamic Studies Fashion Consumption Studies Sociology of Religion and Middle Eastern Studies Religion and Social Change in Modern Turkey Şerif Mardin,1989-07-01
