Managing Existence In Naples Morality Action And Structure:

Managing Existence in Naples Italo Pardo, 1996-09-19 Neapolitan scholar Italo Pardo has produced a thoughtful and original account of the moral life of Naples where the ethics of family and neighborhood exist in tension with the constraints of church and government Dr Pardo shows how different ethical systems are accommodated in the choices of everyday life while success is measured by satisfying spiritual obligations as well as by material gain This is one of the very few ethnographic studies of a European city it questions old assumptions and raises fresh issues in the field of urban studies

Post-socialist Informalities Abel Polese, Lela Rekhviashvili, Borbála Kovács, Jeremy Morris, 2018-10-19 This book is a comprehensive collection of key scholarship on informality from the whole post socialist region From Bosnia to Central Asia passing through Russia and Azerbaijan the contributions to this volume illustrate the multi faceted and complex nature of informality while demonstrating the growing scholarly and policy debates that have developed around the understanding of informality In contrast to approaches which tend to classify informality as bad or transitional meaning that modernity will make it disappear this edited volume concentrates on dynamics and mechanisms to understand and explain informality while also debating its relationship with the market and society The authors seek to explain informality beyond a mere monetaristic economic approach rediscovering its interconnection with social phenomena to propose a more holistic interpretation of the meaning of informality and its influence in various spheres of life They do this by exploring the evolving role of informal practices in the post socialist region and by focusing on informality as a social organisation determinant but also looking at the way it reshapes emergent social resistance against symbolic and real political order s This book was originally published as two special issues of Caucasus Survey and the Journal of Contemporary Central and Eastern Europe

Workers and Narratives of Survival in Europe Angela Procoli, 2012-02-01 Workers and Narratives of Survival in Europe explores the growing problem of job uncertainty in Europe at the end of the twentieth century The management of professional precariousness is reconsidered against the backdrop of far reaching social economic and political changes in Europe in recent decades including the instability of the traditional family the emergence of new forms of parenthood globalization of the economic sphere attempts to impose a uniform pattern of culture and the breakdown of borders with former Communist countries The contributors utilize extensive field studies in both Western and Central Europe to understand the meaning of professional uncertainty as perceived by its victims and the strategies they develop to face it

Encountering Entrepreneurs Elena Sischarenco, 2019-04-09 This book shows the daily life of businessmen in a particularly productive area of Northern Italy Lombardy It provides insights into their business entrepreneurialism and of them as individuals allowing the reader to immerse themselves in these businessmen s world full of plans ideas hopes and failures in the struggle to survive during a time of economic recession The analysis reveals the importance of trust and networks as a way of opposing the vulnerability and risk involved in entrepreneurialism As such the book has an appeal that extends beyond anthropology It will be of interest not only to students of sociology Italian studies and business studies but also to anyone with an interest in seeing business through different lenses Through its close ethnographic accounts of businessmen it provides a different approach to capitalism and a reflection on human nature Beyond Multiculturalism Giuliana B. Prato,2016-04-15 While the anthropological field initially shied away from the debate on multiculturalism it has been widely discussed within the fields of political theory social policy cultural studies and law Beyond Multiculturalism is the first volume of its kind to offer a comparative worldwide view of multiculturalism considering both traditional multicultural multiethnic societies and those where cultural pluralism is relatively new Its varied case studies focus on the intersections and relationships between cultural groups in everyday life using employment identity consumption language legislation and policy making to show the unique contribution anthropologists can bring to multiculturalism studies Their work will be of great interest to scholars of race ethnicity migration urban studies and social and cultural geography Morals of Legitimacy Italo Pardo,2001-01-01 With the growing fragmentation of western societies and disillusionment with the political process the question of legitimacy has become one of the key issues of contemporary politics and is examined in this volume in depth for the first time Drawing on ethnographic material from the U S Europe India Japan and Africa anthropologists and legal scholars investigate the morally diversified definitions of legitimacy that co exist in any one society Aware of the tensions between state morality and community morality they offer reflections on the relationship between agency individual and collective and the legal and political systems In a situation in which politics has only too often degenerated into vacuous rhetoric this volume demonstrates how critical the relationship between trust and legitimacy is for the authoritative exercise of power in democratic societies Anthropology in the City Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato,2016-05-23 With half of humanity already living in towns and cities and that proportion expected to increase in the coming decades society both Western and non Western is fast becoming urban and even mega urban As such research in urban settings is evidently timely and of great importance Anthropology in the City brings together a leading team of anthropologists to address the complex methodological and theoretical challenges posed by field research in urban settings clearly identifying the significance of the anthropological paradigm in urban research and its centrality both to mainstream academic debates and to society more broadly With essays from experts on wide ranging ethnographic research from fields as diverse as China Europe India Latin and North America and South East Asia this book demonstrates the contribution that empirically based anthropological analysis can make to our understanding of our increasingly urban world Vertical Cities Maloutas, Thomas,Karadimitriou, Nikos,2022-10-20 Exploring the social implications of dense and compact cities this enlightening book looks at micro scale segregation through several lenses These include the ways that the housing market constantly reconfigures social mix how the structure of the housing stock shapes it and the ways that policies are deployed to manage these effects The Liminal Worker Manos Spyridakis,2016-03-03 The Liminal Worker examines the experience of work employment employment insecurity and precariousness in a context of high unemployment and welfare state crisis in modern Greece A theoretically informed anthropological exploration of the notion of work in contemporary western society and its relation to processes of political decision making this book challenges the mainstream conception of work as an economic or purely productive activity presenting a comparative analysis of work as a social phenomenon Drawing on original empirical research it explores the key themes of the transformation experience meaning and narrative of work and its relation to attendant social policies A unique examination of the complicated experience of work and labour relations within power systems institutions and organisations as well as the reactions and survival strategies of ordinary actors facing precariousness in their daily existence The Liminal Worker elaborates upon the notion of the anthropology of work and investigates the connection between ethnographic data and its critical analysis and the formation of policy As such it will be of interest to anthropologists sociologists policy makers and geographers concerned with questions of work labour relations and policy formation

Citizenship and the Legitimacy of Governance Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2016-05-23 Against the background of unease at the increasingly loose and conflictual relationship between citizenship and governance this book brings together rich ethnographic studies from EU member states and post Communist and Middle Eastern countries in the Mediterranean Region to illustrate the crisis of legitimacy inherent in the weakening link between political responsibility and trust in the exercise of power With close attention to the impact of the ambiguities and distortions of governance at the local level and their broader implications at the international level where a state's legitimacy depends on its democratic credentials Citizenship and the Legitimacy of Governance initiates a comparative discussion of the relationship between established moralities politics law and civil society in a highly diversified region with a strong history of cultural exchange Demonstrating that a comparative anthropological analysis has much to offer to our understanding this volume reveals that the city is a crucial arena for the renegotiation of citizenship democracy and belonging

New Anthropologies of Italy Paolo Heywood, 2024-07-01 Anthropologists working in Italy are at the forefront of scholarship on several topics including migration far right populism organised crime and heritage This book heralds an exciting new frontier by bringing together some of the leading ethnographers of Italy and placing together their contributions into the broader realm of anthropological history culture and new perspectives in Europe

International Migrations and Local Governance Thomas Lacroix, Amandine Desille, 2017-11-24 This volume provides a comprehensive overview of the role of local governments around the world in the management of the migration integration and development nexus Drawing on case studies from the Global North and South this comparative work fills a lacuna in the existing literature which has focused largely on migration as addressed by European and North American cities Further it widens the current debate by confronting northern experiences with attitudes and strategies observed in sending countries clearly demonstrating that international mobility has become a global issue for cities at both end of the migration spectrum This innovative work will provide a valuable resource for students and scholars working in the social sciences public policy and development in addition to practitioners and policymakers

The Broken Fountain Thomas Belmonte, 2005 As Ida Susser writes in reference to Belmonte's Broken Fountain good ethnographies have long lives This classic of urban anthropology one of the most acclaimed ethnographies of recent years offers vivid literary descriptions of Fontana del Re an impoverished Neapolitan neighborhood Belmonte documents the struggles of Neapolitans surrounded by crumbling buildings and economic insecurity He details family dynamics as well as the working of Naples's informal economy the day to day struggle for economic subsistence and the intermittent begging and thieving of the young Taking us from the bustling vibrant and gritty streets and alleyways of Naples to the kitchen tables of poor Neapolitan homes Belmonte resists simplistic depictions of the poor Instead he presents subtle compelling portraits and analyses that capture the emotional social and economic lives of his subjects In addition to the continuing relevance of his insights into the effects of poverty Belmonte's willingness to reflect on his own reactions and emotions while in the field has influenced a generation of scholars In The Broken Fountain he poignantly describes the experience of living alone in a strange urban environment and his interactions with the residents of Fontana del Re This edition includes a foreword by Ida Susser and an afterword by Pellegrino D Acierno and Stanislao G Pugliese

The End of the City of Gold? Industry and Economic Crisis in an Italian Jewellery Town Michele Filippo Fontefrancesco, 2013-09-17 How does Europe's economic crisis affect the ways in which industry and entrepreneurship are experienced on a grassroots level The book offers an answer to this question by exploring the Italian jewellery town of Valenza and the downturn of its principal industry Through the experiences of its inhabitants the study investigates the social role that jewellery production had in Valenza and provides an ethnographic account of the crisis the city endures This analysis delves into the relationship between a community and its industry in order to understand the social and cultural challenges Italy and Europe will face in the future

Anthropology of Transformation Juraj Buzalka, Agnieszka Pasieka, 2022-10-31 This collection of essays is the result of the joint efforts of colleagues and students of the leading social anthropology and post socialism theorist Professor Chris Hann With the thirtieth anniversary of the collapse of the Berlin Wall in 2019 as their catalyst the authors reflect upon Chris Hann's lifelong fieldwork in the discipline spanning regions as diverse as East Central Europe Turkey and the Chinese north west The collapse of the Berlin Wall naturally triggered a plethora of analysis and scholarly research Sociocultural anthropology with its focus on ethnographic study and on the gradual evolution of social relations sharply contrasted with the emphasis on dramatic rupture brought about by the 1989 transition Continuing in this tradition this volume through micro level analysis of societal transformation from the post war years to the present day provides an alternative perspective to the neoliberalist views often encountered in the scholarship on political and economic modernisation The more nuanced analysis of social transformations proposed here is a particularly useful tool in the investigation of contemporary issues such as the COVID 19 pandemic the refugee crisis and the rise of right wing populism in Eastern Europe and elsewhere Anthropology of Transformation will be of interest to researchers in the fields of socio cultural anthropology religion and economics Moreover the book s discussion of issues widely discussed beyond the field of academia such as neoliberalism and the welfare state and populist and exclusionary politics will appeal to non specialist readers Ambivalent Europeans Jon P. Mitchell,2012-11-12 Ambivalent Europeans examines the implications of living on the fringes of Europe In Malta public debate is dominated by the question of Europe both at a policy level whether or not to join the EU and at the level of national identity whether or not the Maltese are European Jon Mitchell identifies a profound ambivalence towards Europe and also more broadly to the key processes of modernisation He traces this tendency through a number of key areas of social life gender the family community politics religion and ritual

The Oxford Handbook of the Quality of Government Andreas Bågenholm,Monika Bauhr,Marcia Grimes,Bo Rothstein,2021-07-20 Recent research demonstrates that the quality of public institutions is crucial for a number of important environmental social economic and political outcomes and thereby human well being The Quality of Government QoG approach directs attention to issues such as impartiality in the exercise of public power professionalism in public service delivery effective measures against corruption and meritocracy instead of patronage and nepotism This Handbook offers a comprehensive state of the art overview of this rapidly expanding research field and also identifies viable avenues for future research The initial chapters focus on theoretical approaches and debates and the central question of how QoG can be measured A second set of chapters examines the wealth of empirical research on how QoG relates to democratization social trust and cohesion ethnic diversity happiness and human wellbeing democratic accountability economic growth and inequality political legitimacy environmental sustainability gender equality and the outbreak of civil conflicts The remaining chapters turn to the perennial issue of which contextual factors and policy approaches national local and international have proven successful and not so successful for increasing QoG The Quality of Government approach both challenges and complements important strands of inquiry in the social sciences For research about democratization QoG adds the importance of taking state capacity into account For economics the QoG approach shows that in order to produce economic prosperity markets need to be embedded in institutions with a certain set of qualities For development studies QoG emphasizes that issues relating to corruption are integral to understanding development

The Servant Class City David J. Karjanen,2016-07-15 San Diego California is frequently viewed as a model for American urban revitalization It looks like a success story with blight and poverty replaced by high rises and jobs But David J Karjanen shows that the much touted job opportunities for poor people have been concentrated in low paying service work as the cost of living in San Diego has soared The Servant Class City documents how over a period of three decades San Diego s urban transformation actually eroded the economic standing of the city s working poor Karjanen demonstrates that urban policy in San Diego which has been devoted to increasing tourism has fostered the creation of jobs that do not actually provide either livable wages or paths to upward mobility Marshaling a wealth of heretofore uncollected data he challenges the presumption that decades long stagnation of job mobility in the united states is a result of insufficient worker training or a skills mismatch or is attributable to various personal qualities of the urban poor Karjanen interweaves profiles of people with a compelling presentation of data Each chapter addresses a significant topic hospitality industry jobs retail work informal employment fringe banking and economic barriers to mobility In revealing the true story of the poverty traps that are associated with low wage jobs in the service economy The Servant Class City complicates the rosy picture of life in an American tourist boomtown

Forms of Inequality and the Legitimacy of Governance, Volume One Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2025-02-07 This edited volume uses ethnographic cases to examine social political and economic inequality in diverse urban settings This book is couched in the idea that ethnographically based analysis helps to bring out the nature and interconnections between different forms of inequality and sheds light on the major forces that combine to create inequalities Ethnography also helps to identify the dynamics that undergird the principle of freedom of thought and of action a key principle that is of associated life in a democracy and recognize empirically that these dynamics not only protect difference but increase it for they underpin the freedom of the individual to use their talents to manage their lives and achieve their goals This first volume in a two part series focuses on legitimacy governance labour and urban change and stereotypes and individual choice This book will be of interest to scholars and students in sociocultural anthropology sociology politics socio legal studies urban change and education

Sheltering Women Sonja Plesset, 2006-10-11 Residents of Parma Italy pride themselves on their sophistication and connection to European modernity But despite a reputation for civility intimate partner violence continues to take place largely hidden from public view Offering a detailed ethnography of two women s shelters one leftist the other Catholic this book provides the political cultural and legal contexts of competing explanations for intimate partner violence Some contend that violence against women reflects the cultural and historical gender inequalities embedded in Italian society including old fashioned or traditional understandings of masculinity Others argue that it stems from confusion and ambivalence over new or modern forms of gender relations While the first explanation places the blame on tradition and the second cites the transition to modernity both emphasize societal understandings of gender and point to collective rather than individual responsibility Through an intimate portrayal of everyday life Sheltering Women reveals how violence against women can be studied as one part of a continuum of locally relevant understandings of gender relations and gender change
