Managing Scarce Resources for Jails Mark Pogrebin, 1982      The Management of Correctional Institutions Marilyn D. McShane, Franklin P. Williams, 1993 Section 1 pages 1 to 68 presents an overview of the literature on prison management and the results of a national survey of wardens which enquired into actual management styles problem solving techniques and decision making approaches The national survey aimed to determine how much the literature reflected the wardens management practices Findings showed that corrections management largely reflects the literature in that it has inconsistencies an emphasis on personnel experience and an inward focus These results were used to develop a perspective focusing on a humane and caring relationship between manager and staff Section 2 pages 72 to 301 contains abstracts of the 100 most important works both essay and research on correctional institution management      The Jail John

Irwin, 1987-06-01 Combining extensive interviews with his own experience as an inmate John Irwin constructs a powerful and graphic description of the big city jail Unlike prisons which incarcerate convicted felons jails primarily confine arrested persons not yet charged or convicted of any serious crime Irwin argues that jail disorients and degrades and instead of controlling the disreputable actually increases their number of helping to indoctrinate new recruits to the rabble class In a forceful conclusion Irwin addresses the issue of jail reform and the matter of social control demanded by society      Federal Probation, 1992      Programs and Activities Mark D. Martin, 2010      Correctional Administration and Change

Management Martha Henderson Hurley, Dena Hanley, 2010-06-02 Change is an inevitable part of any correctional institution as new trends and initiatives constantly bombard the system However as budgetary constraints increasingly require correctional agencies to do more with less a paradigm shift in the way they operate is imperative to ensure success Correctional Administration and Change Management exam      American Jails Joel A.
