The Great War and the British Empire Michael Walsh, Andrekos Varnava, 2016-11-25 In 1914 almost one quarter of the earth's surface was British When the empire and its allies went to war in 1914 against the Central Powers history's first global conflict was inevitable It is the social and cultural reactions to that war and within those distant often overlooked societies which is the focus of this volume From Singapore to Australia Cyprus to Ireland India to Iraq and around the rest of the British imperial world further complexities and interlocking themes are addressed offering new perspectives on imperial and colonial history and theory as well as art music photography propaganda education pacifism gender class race and diplomacy at the end of the pax Britannica      International Diplomacy and Colonial Retreat Kent Fedorowich, Martin

Thomas, 2013-10-23 The problems investigated in this collection had lasting consequences not only in the field of colonialism but in international politics as well Decolonization and the Cold War which brought about the most significant changes to global politics after 1945 are treated together      The Richest East India Merchant Anthony Webster, 2007 John Palmer was the most influential and wealthiest British merchant in British India for the first three decades of the nineteenth century He ran an agency house a global commercial firm involved in banking the opium trade shipping plantation agriculture and trade with Britain Europe China south east Asia and the USA When his firm went bankrupt in 1830 thousands of people European and Indian were ruined triggering the worst commercial crisis in British India up to that time This book the first major study of a British agency house in India presents an account of both of Palmer's business and personal life showing how his personal relations and circumstances shaped his commercial strategies with ultimately disastrous consequences for Anglo Indian relations as well as his clients      Defence and Decolonisation in South-East Asia Karl Hack, 2013-12-16 This book explains why British defence policy and practice emerged as it did in the period 1941-67 by looking at the overlapping of colonial military economic and Cold War factors in the area Its main focus is on the 1950s and the decolonisation era but it argues that the plans and conditions of this period can only be understood by tracing them back to their origins in the fall of Singapore Also it shows how decolonisation was shaped not just by British aims but by the way communism communalism and nationalism facilitated and frustrated these      Defence and Decolonisation in Southeast Asia Karl Hack, 2001 This text explains British defence policy by examining the overlapping of colonial military economic and Cold War factors in Southeast Asia      Nation Building Wang Gungwu, 2005 The book addresses questions such as how should historians treat the earlier pasts of each country and the nationalism that guided the nation building tasks Where did political culture come in especially when dealing with modern challenges of class secularism and ethnicity What part do external or regional pressures play when the nations are still being built The authors have thought deeply about the issues of writing nation building histories and have tried to put them not only in the perspective of Southeast Asian developments of the past five decades but also the larger areas of historiography today
