Entrepreneurial Values and Strategic Management V. Coda, 2010-10-20 Vittorio Coda's discussion of the goals and purpose of the business enterprise illuminates the long running debate over the goals of the firm His conceptualization of the firm and its relationships within society transcends stale arguments over shareholders versus stakeholders by viewing the firm less as an agent of individual interests and more as an engine of social development that unifies the interests of the different participants In articulating a model of the entrepreneurial firm embedded in a social system and a values system based upon notions of fairness and social responsibility Coda offers an original approach to interpret the business system The view of a socially responsible entrepreneurial business sector surfacing in this book offers an attractive alternative to most of the prevailing models of market capitalism that have attracted criticism over the past decades

Organization of Transnational Corporations Gunnar Hedlund, 1993

The Value Creating Board Morten Huse, 2008-11-19 This book presents boards of directors from a strategic and entrepreneurial management perspective Boards of directors are receiving increased interest in the business world as well as among academic audiences however few contributions integrate corporate governance and organizational behavior In this book a research stream about value creating boards is introduced Boards of directors have during the recent decades mostly been studied within a framework of corporate governance where the interests of external investors are emphasized This book aims to go further and explore actual board behavior The framework and the contributions in the book include concepts such as board leadership and structure boardroom decision making board task performance corporate entrepreneurship and innovation boards in small and medium sized firms board diversity and women directors The book also presents the results of a research agenda about value creating boards which was conducted throughout various European countries

The New Strategist Günter Müller-Stewens, 2020-02-03 As organizations face an unprecedented rate of change how should the role of the strategist adapt to address new challenges Based on original research and consulting projects from the Institute of Management and Strategy University of St Gallen The New Strategist is a practical guide which explains how to execute strategy not just think about the theory It examines day to day strategy work explores the competences required by strategic leaders and maps out the strategist's tools of the trade including processes, initiatives and discourse. Using a rich and unique data set, this book looks at the roles of different strategists in an organization and emphasizes the importance of managers and strategy consultants as well as Chief Strategy Officers and other leaders. Crucially, The New Strategist focuses on the practice of strategy rather than the theory, answering key questions around how professional strategists should work and which methods and techniques they should draw upon. This timely and authoritative text will support and strengthen managers in fulfilling their strategic leadership responsibilities, allowing them to contribute to the professionalization of the field and ensure their role is suitable for the future of business.

The Oxford Handbook of Innovation Management Mark Dodgson, David M. Gann, Nelson Phillips, 2014. While innovation is widely recognised as being critical to organisational success and the well-being of societies, it requires careful management to ensure that innovation processes have the best possible impact. This volume provides a wide range of perspectives on the nature of innovation management and its influences.
