Knowledge Management Professor Dr.-Ing. Kai Mertins, Dipl.-Sozw. Peter Heisig, Dipl.-Psych. Jens Vorbeck, 2013-03-14 By Robert C Camp PhD PE Chairman Global Benchmarking Network GBN Best Practice Institute™ Rochester NY USA The perception sharing and adoption of best practices is mostly attributed to the activity called benchmarking Obtaining maximum value from best practices is usually attributed to knowledge management One is an extension of the other Knowledge management can be looked upon as the management of knowledge about best practices whether in the mind as human capital or as intellectual assets or property Most organizations now recognize the absolute imperative for the identification and collection of best practices through benchmarking It can be a strategic strength when practiced and a fatal weakness if not pursued But there is a serious disconnection in the exchange and adoption process Despite significant advances in the approaches and technology that pursue improvement six sigma process redesign customer relationship management etc organizations continue to experience great difficulty in successfully transferring leading practices Some

would say these are exemplary proven observed or promising but in the final analysis they are best practices with the objective of becoming world class More insight is needed into how leading or best practices are transferred and adopted said differently best practices for knowledge transfer or knowledge management 7th International Conference on Knowledge Management in Organizations: Service and Cloud Computing Lorna Uden, Francisco Herrera, Javier Bajo Pérez, Juan Manuel Corchado Rodríguez, 2012-07-18 The seventh International Conference on Knowledge Management in Organizations KMO brings together researchers and developers from industry and the academic world to report on the latest scientific and technical advances on knowledge management in organisations KMO 2012 provides an international forum for authors to present and discuss research focused on the role of knowledge management for innovative services in industries to shed light on recent advances in cloud computing for KM as well as to identify future directions for researching the role of knowledge management in service innovation and how cloud computing can be used to address many of the issues currently facing KM in academia and industrial sectors The conference took place at Salamanca in Spain on the 11th 13th July in 2012
