This book is an excellent survey of practice on a truly international scale which many will find valuable Educational Management Administration and Leadership Few people could be better qualified to write about this topic than Tony Bush The book draws on a wealth of experience and detailed research Typically it is extremely well structured written with great clarity and combines the highest levels of scholarship with an accessible style that will enable it to appeal to a wide audience This is a book that many in the field have been waiting for

Professor Mark Brundrett Professor of Educational Research Liverpool John Moores University Liverpool This book is far and away the best international comparative study of leadership development for schools There are countless books highlighting the importance of leadership but none have satisfactorily gone to the heart of the issue especially for developed and developing countries and Tony Bush has done it here It is a sure guide to policymakers practitioners and researchers who want to make a difference

Professor Brian J Caldwell Managing Director of Educational Transformations and former Dean of Education at the University of Melbourne Australia

Leadership is critical to educational development and specific preparation is vital if leaders are to maximise their effectiveness. In this major new text Tony Bush draws on his extensive international experience and research to examine the case for leadership development and assess the different modes of preparation used in Europe including the U K North America Asia Pacific Australia New Zealand and Africa. He also examines research on how leadership impacts on school and student outcomes and considers future directions for leadership and management development in education. This text is essential reading for students of educational leadership and management as well as for policy makers headteachers and principals.

Leadership and Strategic Management in Education Marianne Coleman, 2000-05-28 Leadership and strategic management are both issues of central importance in raising achievement in schools and colleges and thus are at the heart of the educational debate today. This book is concerned with such major issues as the nature of strategic management in education the importance of vision and mission styles of leadership models of educational management and the purposes of strategic management which here are equated with the effectiveness and improvement of the institution. It will be invaluable for students of educational management such as those following masters degrees. It is also directly relevant to teachers and lecturers and schools of all phases and in further education colleges.

Managing the Curriculum in South African Schools Marianne Coleman, M. Graham-Jolly, David Middlewood, 2003 The introduction of Curriculum 2005 and Outcomes Based Education mark both a sea change in the way in which education is offered in schools and a challenge to all involved. This book considers the main issues in curriculum management as education switches to a more devolved framework.

Leading and Managing Indigenous Education in the Postcolonial World Zane Ma Rhea, 2014-07-11 This book brings together the academic fields of educational leadership educational administration strategic change management and Indigenous education in order to provide a critical multi perspective systems level analysis of the provision of education services to Indigenous people. It draws on a range of theorists across these fields internationally mobilising social exchange and intelligent complex adaptive systems theories to address the key problematic of intergenerational educational failure. Ma Rhea establishes the basis for an Indigenous rights approach to the state provision of education to Indigenous peoples that includes recognition of their distinctive economic linguistic and cultural rights within complex globalized postcolonial education systems. The book problematizes the central concept of a partnership between Indigenous people and non Indigenous school leaders staff and government policy makers even as it holds this key concept at its centre. The infantilising of Indigenous communities and Indigenous people can take priority over the education of their children in the modern state. This book offers an argument for a profound rethinking of the leadership and management of Indigenous education. Leading and Managing Indigenous Education in the Postcolonial World will be of value to researchers and postgraduate students focusing on Indigenous education as well as teachers education administrators and bureaucrats sociologists of education Indigenous education specialists and those in international and comparative education.

Managing Special and Inclusive Education Stephen Rayner, 2007-09-18 This book is about putting the theory of effective management and leadership into practice in the constantly changing context of meeting the complex needs of children and young people. It is an excellent resource for those who work in or who aspire to work in children's services, education or multidisciplinary settings at managerial or leadership level. British Journal of Special Education. This book is a guide to special and inclusive education and provides a comprehensive overview of this complex field. The author examines context, policy and practice and shows how to successfully navigate the managerial challenges involved while contributing to the way forward through leadership in a diverse field. The author considers the present inclusion imperative with its implications for strategic leadership planning and provision. He presents an inclusive style of leadership for an integrative management of individual differences in education as well as a critical review of managing inclusive learning and teaching in school contexts. Written for aspiring and practising school leaders, this book is essential for those with responsibility for inclusion: school leaders in special schools, SENCOs, SEN advisors and students on SEN management CPD or NPQH courses.
