Proceedings, September 23, 24, 25, 1957 , 1957 What is wrong with this picture That s the question Judith Warner asks after taking a good hard look at the world of modern motherhood at anxious women at work and at home and in bed with unhappy husbands When Warner had her first child she was living in Paris where parents routinely left their children home with state subsidized nannies When she returned to the States she was stunned by the cultural differences she found toward motherhood None of the mothers she met seemed happy Instead they worried about the possibility of not having the perfect child panicking as each developmental benchmark approached Combining close readings of mainstream magazines TV shows and pop culture with a thorough command of dominant ideas in recent psychological social and economic theory this book addresses our cultural assumptions and examines the forces that have shaped them

Literature Search Strategies for Interdisciplinary Research Linda G. Ackerson, 2007 The amount of published literature can be overwhelming for scientists and researchers moving from a broad disciplinary research area to a more specialized one particularly in fields that use information from more than one discipline Without a focused inquiry the researcher may find too little information or may be overcome by too much Striking the correct balance of information is the focus of Literature Search Strategies for Interdisciplinary Research This useful reference tool studies diverse interdisciplinary areas revealing the general and individual qualities that dictate the strategies of successful searches Beginning with a bare bones search strategy for finding primary research in interdisciplinary areas the book then goes on to provide hints for research in specific disciplines as the unique traits of the individual fields compound the difficulties in interdisciplinary research Individual chapters written by experts in that particular area address ten research fields in depth disclosing the common qualities of interdisciplinary research The study areas covered include Paleontology Crystallography Quaternary Research Human Factors Engineering Nanotechnology Atmospheric Chemistry Bioethics Computational Biology Engineering Entrepreneurship and Machine Learning For scientists and engineers new to their fields as well as librarians whose responsibilities include collecting library materials for newly emerging interdisciplinary research areas Linda Ackerson's guide provides all that is needed to develop a successful search strategy

Implementing Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Management in Organizational Change Initiatives El-Amin, Abeni, 2022-06-17 The social and political changes of this era have created a climate change and fundamental shift in how businesses view the impact of diversity equity inclusion and belonging DEIB in the workplace It is essential to understand how leaders make significant sustainable changes utilizing communication abilities envisioning conflict management skills and innovative DEIB initiatives However leaders must be careful not to rely on anecdotal evidence as it does not always reflect DEIB realities Implementing Diversity Equity Inclusion and Belonging Management in Organizational Change Initiatives analyzes how leaders implement DEIB organizational change initiatives It provides an interdisciplinary perspective of how issues and challenges pertaining to DEIB management affect organization performance Covering topics such as inclusive organizational identity socio intercultural entrepreneurship and supplier diversity programs this book is an indispensable resource for business leaders managers entrepreneurs academic administration students and educators of higher education government officials researchers and academicians The Routledge Companion to International Management Education Denise Tsang, Hamid H. Kazeroony, Guy Ellis, 2013-06-19 Crises and scandals in the world of international management have brought a new spotlight onto how the subject is taught studied and understood There has been a plethora of literature on international management but a lack of focus on how international management education IME can be shaped to respond to existing and future global business challenges The Routledge Companion to International Management Education gathers together contributors from academia industry and university administration involved in IME to introduce the domain of IME describe the emerging state in new geographical areas discuss the major issues and debates revolving around IME explore the linkage of technology and international management and shed light on the future of IME The diverse background of the contributors provides a global perspective that challenges the dominant Anglo American view with up to date specific insights originating from their indigenous view points which has often been neglected and inadequately covered The volume answers important questions such as Do we need a vision in IME What is the current state of IME How has IME grown in emerging market segments What roles does technology play in its recent development The volume provides thought provoking reading for educators administrators policy makers human resources professionals and researchers It will also give future international management students a glimpse of IME from a global inside out perspective Reference and Information Services Melissa A. Wong, Laura Saunders, 2020-05-04 This revised and updated sixth edition of Reference and Information Services continues the book's rich tradition covering all phases of reference and information services with less emphasis on print and more emphasis on strategies and scenarios Reference and Information Services is the go to textbook for MSLIS and i School courses on reference services and related topics It is also a helpful handbook for practitioners Authors include LIS faculty and professionals who have relevant degrees in their areas and who have published extensively on their topics The first half of the book provides an overview of reference services and techniques for service provision including the reference interview ethics instruction reader's advisory and services to diverse populations including children This part of the book establishes a foundation of knowledge on reference service and frames each topic with ethical and social justice perspectives The second part of the book offers an overview of the information life cycle and dissemination of information followed by an in depth examination of information sources by type including dictionaries encyclopedias indexes and abstracts as well as by broad subject areas including government statistics and data health and legal information This second section introduces the tools and resources that reference professionals use to provide the services described in the first half of the text Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency United States.
