The Man-Eaters of Tsavo and Other East African Adventures J. H. Patterson, J H Patterson D S O, 2016-03-27 The Tsavo Man Eaters were a pair of notorious man eating Tsavo lions responsible for the deaths of a number of construction workers on the Kenya Uganda Railway from March through December 1898 Illustrated In March 1898 the British started building a railway bridge over the Tsavo River in Kenya The project was led by Lt Col John Henry Patterson During the next nine months of construction two maneless male Tsavo lions stalked the campsite dragging Indian workers from their tents at night and devouring them Crews tried to scare off the lions and built campfires and bomas or thorn fences around their camp for protection to keep the man eaters out to no avail the lions leaped over or crawled through the thorn fences After the new attacks hundreds of workers fled from Tsavo halting construction on the bridge Patterson set traps and tried several times to ambush the lions at night from a tree After repeated unsuccessful attempts he shot the first lion on 9 December 1898 Twenty days later the second lion was found and killed The first lion killed measured nine feet eight inches from nose to tip of tail It took eight men to carry the carcass back to camp The construction crew returned and finished the bridge in February 1899 The exact number of people killed by the lions is unclear Patterson gave several figures overall claiming that there were 135 victims Patterson writes in his account that he wounded the first lion with one bullet from a high caliber rifle This shot struck the lion in its back leg but it escaped Later it returned at night and began stalking Patterson as he tried to hunt it He shot it through the shoulder penetrating its heart with a more powerful rifle and found it lying dead the next morning not far from his platform The second lion was shot at most nine times five with the same rifle three with a third and once with a fourth rifle The first was fired from atop a scaffolding Patterson had built near goat kills done by the lion Two both from the second rifle were shot into it eleven days later as the lion was stalking Patterson and trying to flee When they had found the lion the next day thereafter Patterson shot it three more times with the same rifle severely crippling it and shot it three times with the third rifle twice in the chest and once in the head which killed it He claimed it died gnawing on a fallen tree branch still trying to reach him After 25 years as Patterson's floor rugs the lions skins were sold to the Chicago Field Museum in 1924 for a sum of 5 000 The lions skins arrived at the museum in very poor condition The lions were then reconstructed and are now on permanent display along with the original skulls

Patterson, 2014-05-30 The historic true account of how two man eating lions wreaked havoc amongst the workers on the Tsavo railway bridge project in the present day Kenya The basis of the film The Ghost and the Darkness 1996 starring Val Kilmer In 1898 the British East Africa Company commissioned Col John H Patterson to oversee the construction of a railway bridge over the Tsavo River in present day Kenya Almost immediately after his arrival lion attacks started to take place on the workers with the lions dragging men out of their tents at night and feeding on their victims Despite taking various precautionary measures to curb the attacks the carnage escalated dramatically and eventually the bridge construction stopped due to a mass exodus of the workers The superstitious workers became increasingly hostile and many of them were certain that the lions were evil spirits who came to punish the bridge builders With his reputation livelihood and personal safety at stake Patterson realized that he had to confront this crisis in the only way he knew how hunt the man eaters down and kill them      The Man-Eaters of Tsavo John Patterson, 2015-11-20 The Man Eaters of Tsavo is a book written by John Henry Patterson in 1907 that recounts his experiences while overseeing the construction of a railroad bridge in what would become Kenya It is most widely known for recounting the story of a pair of lions that he killed known as the Tsavo maneaters The book describes attacks by man eating lions on the builders of the Uganda Railway in Tsavo Kenya in 1898 and how the lions were eventually killed by Patterson It was remarkable that 135 people were killed by the man eaters in less than a year before Patterson managed to kill them Col Patterson s 1907 book itself states that between them the lions no less than 28 Indian coolies in addition to scores of unfortunate African natives of whom no official record was kept were killed This lesser number was confirmed in Dr Bruce Patterson s definitive book The Lions of Tsavo Exploring the Legacy of Africa s Notorious Man Eaters published by McGraw Hill in 2004 Patterson wrote the book at the Field Museum in Chicago where the lions are on display He showed that the greater toll attributed to the lions resulted from a pamphlet written by Col Patterson in 1925 stating these two ferocious brutes killed and devoured under the most appalling circumstances 135 Indian and African artisans and laborers employed in the construction of the Uganda Railway      The Man-Eaters of Tsavo and Other East African Adventures John Henry Patterson, 2016-12-10 Why buy our paperbacks Standard Font size of 10 for all books High Quality Paper Fulfilled by Amazon Expedited shipping 30 Days Money Back Guarantee BEWARE of Low quality sellers Don t buy cheap paperbacks just to save a few dollars Most of them use low quality papers binding Their pages fall off easily Some of them even use very small font size of 6 or less to increase their profit margin It makes their books completely unreadable How is this book unique Unabridged 100% Original content Font adjustments biography included Illustrated About The Man Eaters of Tsavo and Other East African Adventures By John Henry Patterson The Man eaters of Tsavo is a book written by John Henry Patterson in 1907 that recounts his experiences while overseeing the construction of a railroad bridge in what would become Kenya It is most widely known for recounting the story of a pair of lions that he killed known as the Tsavo maneaters      The
