Manet and the Modern Tradition Anne Coffin Hanson,1979      Manet and the Modern Tradition Anne Coffin Hanson,1977      Manet's Modernism Michael Fried,1996
Fried put forward a highly original beholder centered account of the evolution of a central tradition in French painting from Chardin to Courbet P 4 of cover      Cultures of Femininity in Modern Fashion Ilya Parkins,Elizabeth M. Sheehan,2012-04-10 An interdisciplinary collection illuminating how fashion shaped concepts and practices of femininity and modernity      Painting and the Turn to Cultural Modernity in Spain Andrew Ginger,2007 Cultural modernity has habitually been defined as a focus on the means of representation themselves as opposed to art that imitates external reality or expresses its maker's inner life The crucial moment is usually considered the emergence of Edouard Manet in mid nineteenth century France and the features of French developments have been seen as defining terms in the theory of modernity However recent art and cultural history have often spoken of plural modernities distinct from the pattern set in France For the first time this study in cultural history explores how Spanish culture took a radical turn toward the medium of representation itself in the 1850s and early 1860s It argues that this happened in a way that is critically at odds with many fundamental theoretical suppositions about modernity      Feminist Subjects, Multi-media Penny Florence,Dee Reynolds,1995 Examines a range of media from paintings and family photography through to opera film and TV to novels and poetry and challenges the traditional boundaries between the creative and the critical      Painting as an Art Richard Wollheim,2023-10-17 One of the twentieth century's most influential texts on philosophical aesthetics Painting as an Art is acclaimed philosopher Richard Wollheim's encompassing vision of how to view art Transcending the traditional boundaries of art history Wollheim draws on his three great passions philosophy psychology and art to present an illuminating theory of the very experience of art He shows how to unlock the meaning of a painting by retrieving almost reenacting the creative activity that produced it In order to fully appreciate a work of art Wollheim argues critics must bring a much richer conception of human psychology than they have in the past This classic book points the way to discovering what is most profound and subtle about paintings by major artists such as Titian Bellini and de Kooning      "French Paintings of Childhood and Adolescence, 1848-1886" Anna Green,2017-07-05 The premise of Anna Green's timely and original book is that nineteenth century representations of childhood and adolescence in paintings but also in other forms of visual culture and in diverse written discourses of the period are critical for understanding modernity Whilst such well worn signifiers for modernity as the city the dandy and the prostitute have been well mined childhood and adolescence have not Paintings of the young produced in France from 1848 to 1886 Green contends inform not only our understanding of modern life but also our perception of modernist or avant garde painting Figuring largely are Manet and the Impressionists as well as a gamut of more traditional painters of children who are crucial in providing context for the avant garde Because modernity is an essentially urban phenomenon Green's focus is primarily on the city usually Parisian child The painted youth of her study are organized initially by class and gender Then the chapters are structured according to themes parent child relations modes of discipline work education and play the spectacle sexuality that straddle the congruences among the book's triple trajectory the young their modernist representations and the experience of modernity Green's interdisciplinary approach ensures that this book will be of interest not only to art historians but to all those concerned with the cultural and social history of childhood

Kierkegaard, Religion and the Nineteenth-Century Crisis of Culture George Pattison, 2002-07-04 Kierkegaard is often viewed in the history of ideas solely within the academic traditions of philosophy and theology The secondary literature generally ignores the fact that he also took an active role in the public debate about the significance of the modern age that was taking shape in the flourishing feuilleton literature during the period of his authorship Through a series of sharply focussed studies George Pattison contextualises Kierkegaard's religious thought in relation to the debates about religion culture and society carried on in the newspapers and journals read by the whole educated stratum of Danish society Pattison brings Kierkegaard into relation to not only high art and literature but also to the ephemera of his contemporary culture This has important implications for our understanding of Kierkegaard's view of the nature of religious communication in modern society Black Venus 2010 Deborah Willis, 2010-01-08 Analyzing contemporaneous and contemporary works that re-imagine the Hottentot Venus

Twelve Views of Manet's Bar Bradford Collins, 2021-01-12 Bradford Collins has assembled here a collection of twelve essays that demonstrates through the interpretation of a single work of art the abundance and complexity of methodological approaches now available to art historians Focusing on Manet's A Bar at the Folies Bergère each contributor applies to it a different methodology ranging from the more traditional to the newer including feminism Marxism Lacanian psychoanalysis and semiotics By demonstrating the ways that individual practitioners actually apply the various methodological insights that inform their research Twelve Views of Manet's Bar serves as an excellent introduction to critical methodology as well as a provocative overview for those already familiar with the current discourse of art history In the process of gaining new insight into Manet's work and into the discourse of methodology one discovers that it is not only the individual painting but art history itself that is under investigation An introduction by Richard Shiff sets the background with a brief history of Manet scholarship and suggestions as to why today's accounts have taken certain distinct directions The contributors selected to provide a broad and balanced range of methodological approaches include Carol Armstrong Albert Boime David Carrier Kermit Champa Bradford R Collins Michael Paul Driskel Jack Flam Tag Gronberg James D Herbert John House Steven Z Levine and Griselda Pollock Cézanne Steven Platzman, 2001 Platzman's accessible and richly illustrated book examines the stylistic development of Cézanne's self-portraits in an effort to understand how the artist saw himself and others 111 b w 82 color illustrations A World History of Art Hugh Honour, John Fleming, 2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity's artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well-balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression Gender, Space, and the Gaze in Post-Hausmann Visual Culture Temma Balducci, 2017-03-27 Charles Baudelaire's fl neur as described in his 1863 essay The Painter of Modern Life remains central to understandings of gender space and the gaze in late nineteenth century Paris despite misgivings by some scholars Baudelaire's privileged and leisurely figure at home on the boulevards underlies theorizations of bourgeois masculinity and by implication bourgeois femininity whereby men gaze and roam urban spaces unreservedly while women lacking the freedom to either gaze or roam are wedded to domesticity In challenging this tired paradigm and offering fresh ways to consider how gender space and the gaze were constructed this book attends to several neglected elements of visual and written culture the ubiquitous male beggar as the true denizen of the boulevard the abundant depictions of well to do women looking sometimes at men the popularity of windows and balconies as viewing perches and the overwhelming emphasis given by both male and female artists to domestic scenes The book's premise that gender space and the gaze have been too narrowly conceived by a scholarly embrace of Baudelaire's flâneur is supported across the cultural spectrum by period sources that include art criticism high and low visual culture newspapers novels prescriptive and travel literature architectural practices interior design trends and fashion journals
