Manhood An Action Plan For Changing Mens Lives:

Manhood Steve Biddulph, 1995 Manhood an action plan for changing men s lives Gender and Sexuality Chris Beasley, 2005-05-20 About various theories of gender sexuality feminism and masculinity including queer theory transgender theorizing modernist liberationism and social constructionism Teachers, Gender and the Feminisation Debate Marie-Pierre Moreau, 2019-01-15 Teachers Gender and the Feminisation Debate critically engages with the claim that teaching is a feminised profession and offers a comprehensive and authoritative analysis of the way gender and power play out in the lives of male and female teachers Informed by social constructivist feminist theories of work and education the book adopts a relational and intersectional approach to gender Drawing on a range of primary and secondary sources including national and international datasets policy and research texts and an original corpus of interviews conducted by the author in England and France the book provides a timely assessment of a view of teaching as feminised It explores the various discourses and debates about the feminisation of teaching which circulate in media and policy circles in a range of local national and international contexts and questions some of the claims underpinning these discourses It also analyses the experiences of men and women who teach looking at the way gender and power impact on their careers and private lives in the context of the feminisation debate Teachers Gender and the Feminisation Debate offers a research informed and comprehensive account of gender issues in the teaching profession and will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of education sociology and gender studies Private World(s) Joanna Ostrouch-Kamińska, Cristina C. Vieira, 2015-03-17 This book is the fourth production from the ESREA Gender network and the third in the ESREA Sense bookseries Once more there is an opportunity for readers to gain a better understanding of questions related to gender and adult learning from researchers deeply involved in this specific field of adult education The notion of informal learning has already been treated as a chapter in the 2003 book but it becomes central and relevant in this new book with the growing complexity of our society The editors emphasise private world s s in the book title but the content of the book proves that informal learning processes aside from the self are combined with contextual opportunities which have been chosen or not Their introduction covers the essential concepts of gender and informal learning The contributors enlighten the debate with their geographical diversity all over Europe but also with their diverse theoretical systems of references to the diverse social contexts that have been analysed The first part of this book entitled private spheres presents and analyses painful gendered discriminations and injustices We can t escape to the emotions it evokes from the soldiers after the war to men s breast cancer both relate to men and the specificity of their suffering This is an interesting and quite new opportunity to question gender In the second part related to minorities and activism we discover groups who learn through their organised fight against discriminations Emotions give way to a positive energy when we discover the strategies that feminists or migrants or also retired men find to question the society in which they live The authors show us not only what is learned by such communities but also what their environment can learn from them The last part of the book leads us to different contexts of informal learning mostly related to opportunities and obstacles in education and work situations Community training social work studies scientist s work and management school are the contexts chosen to clarify stereotypes and the discrimination along the lifespan for women From East to West and North to South of Europe it seems once more that the debate presents a lot of similarities This book can be considered as original in its area and useful mostly because it presents a mixture of sadness and hope within gendered learning processes In this book it seems that men take their place in the gender debate and its analysis with a new vision of the male realities More than anything else this book is a reminder of what has to be done in our society specifically in adult education to imagine and to create better pathways conditions and issues to respect all learners women as well as men Edmee Ollagnier Ex University of Geneva Switzerland

Gender and the Media Rosalind Gill, 2015-10-02 Written in a clear and accessible style with lots of examples from Anglo American media Gender and the Media offers a critical introduction to the study of gender in the media and an up to date assessment of the key issues and debates Eschewing a straightforwardly positive or negative assessment the book explores the contradictory character of contemporary gender representations where confident expressions of girl power sit alongside reports of epidemic levels of anorexia among young women moral panics about the impact on men of idealized representations of the six pack but near silence about the pervasive re sexualization of women s bodies along with a growing use of irony and playfulness that render critique extremely difficult The book looks in depth at five areas of media talk shows magazines news advertising and contemporary screen and paperback romances to examine how representations of women and men are changing in the twenty first century partly in response to feminist queer and anti racist critique Gender and the Media is also concerned with the theoretical tools available for analysing representations A range of approaches from semiotics to postcolonial theory are discussed and Gill asks how useful notions such as objectification backlash and positive images are for making sense of gender in today's Western media Finally Gender and the Media also raises questions about cultural politics namely what forms of critique and intervention are effective at a moment when ironic quotation marks seem to protect much media content from criticism and when much media content from Sex and the City to revenge adverts can be labelled postfeminist This is a book that will be of particular interest to students and scholars in gender and media studies as well as those in sociology and cultural studies more generally

Men at Play Jonathan Bollen, Bruce Parr, Adrian Kiernander, 2008 How are masculinities enacted in Australian theatre How do Australian playwrights depict masculinities in the present and the past in the bush and on the beach in the city and in the suburbs How do Australian plays dramatise gender issues like father son relations romance and intimacy violence and bullying mateship and homosexuality race relations between men and men's experiences of war and migration Men at Play explores theatre's role in presenting and contesting images of masculinity in Australia It ranges from often produced plays of the 1950s to successful contemporary plays from Dick Diamond's Reedy River Ray Lawler's Summer of the Seventeenth Doll Richard Beynon's The Shifting Heart and Alan Seymour's The One Day of the Year to David Williamson's Sons of Cain Richard Barrett's The Heartbreak Kid Gordon Graham's The Boys and Nick Enright's Blackrock The book looks at plays as they are produced in the theatre and masculinity as it is enacted on the stage It is written in an accessible style for students and teachers in drama at university and senior high school The book's contribution to contemporary debates about masculinity will also interest scholars in gender race and sexuality studies literary studies and Australian history

Sex, Culpability, and the Defence of Provocation Danielle Tyson, 2013 The partial defence of provocation is one of the most controversial doctrines within the criminal law It has now been abolished in a number of international jurisdictions Addressing the trajectory of debates about reform of the provocation defence across different jurisdictions Sex Culpability and the Defence of Provocation considers the construction and representation of subjectivity and sexual difference in legal narrations of intimate partner homicide Undeniably the most vexing exculpatory cultural narrative of our times is that of a woman asking for it This book explores how the process of judgment in a criminal trial involves not only the drawing of inferences from the facts of a particular case but also operates to deliver a narrative Law it is argued constructs a narrative of how the female body incites male violence And pursuing an approach that is informed by socio legal studies literary theory and feminist theories of the body Sex Culpability and the Defence of Provocation considers how this narrative is constructed via a range of discursive practices that position woman as a threat to masculine norms of propriety and autonomy Once we have a clear understanding of the significance of narrative in legal decision making we can then formulate textual strategies of resistance to the violence of law's victim blaming narratives by rewriting them

journey into the lives of contemporary women who plan to have it all marriage motherhood and work yet have been derailed by reluctant men insatiably demanding jobs and ever climbing expectations of what it takes to be a good mother The Australian Bureau of Statistics predicts that 25% of Australian women who are currently in their reproductive years will never have children Yet respected researcher and ethicist Leslie Cannold argues that women want to mother as much as they ever did What has changed is their willingness to sacrifice everything they've built everything they are to do so Drawing on demographic data social research and insights gained from interviews with women in their 20s 30s and 40s Cannold shows that the easier society makes it for women to combine parenthood and paid work the closer women get to having the number of children they want At the end of the 21st century it is women's freedom to mother that is most at risk Guaranteed to reshape the current debate around declining fertility What No Baby is a must read for everyone concerned about Australia's fertility decline and for women who want to better understand and to solve the social problems keeping them from fulfilling lives in which children play a part

Teaching Boys Martin Mills, 2020-07-22 Persistently cheeky disruptive even aggressive boys can be found in classrooms everywhere as can the victims of bullying These boys' behaviours often pose a problem to themselves as well as to others As the hotly contested debates about boys' education swirl around them what can teachers actually do to improve boys' performance in the classroom Teaching Boys provides a practical framework for teachers to improve boys' education in ways that are appropriate for their school context and also sustainable Drawing on intensive research in classrooms where innovative teachers are achieving good outcomes with boys Keddle and Mills show how other teachers can learn from their success They acknowledge that there are no simple solutions but show that what teachers do in the classroom really does matter They emphasise the importance of understanding the impact of dominant and subversive masculinities at all levels of schooling on both boys and girls What is original about this book is that it marries theory and practice in a way that speaks to the everyday realities and concerns of teachers who work with boys in schools Associate Professor Wayne Martino The University of Western Ontario What is impressive about Teaching Boys is the way in which Keddle and Mills pull together the best research on boys and schooling with the best research on pedagogies Professor Bob Lingard The University of Edinburgh

The Ethical Dimensions of School Leadership P.T. Begley, Olof Johansson, 2006-04-11 Among the many significant features of this volume is the dedication to the late Don Willower Professor of Education at Pennsylvania State University It is significant in light of Willower's long record of major contributions to the empirical literature in Educational Administration and his mentorship of many students steeped in the tradition of the so-called science of administration These include scholars like Wayne Hoy and Peter Cistone who readily acknowledge their personal and intellectual debt to Willower How is it then that Willower a colleague of the giants of Educational Administration in the 60s and 70s people such as Dan Griffiths Jack Culbertson and Roald Campbell to name just a few came to associate himself with this relatively upstart group of academics and practitioners interested in values of all things As an inheritor of the mantle thrown down by Getzels and Guba all those years ago it might seem strange to see Willower consorting with people who argue about the distinction between fact and value It is true of course that Willower majored in philosophy at the State University of New York at Buffalo as an undergraduate So the language and the ways of thinking among many of those interested in values and ethics were not all that foreign to him He could certainly hold his own in debate with his friend Chris Hodgkinson the foremost philosopher of Educational Administration in the field today and a contributor to this volume The Routledge International Handbook of Jungian Film Studies Luke

Hockley,2019-12-09 Winner of the IAJIS award for best edited book of 2018 The Routledge International Handbook of Jungian Film Studies weaves together the various strands of Jungian film theory revealing a coherent theoretical position underpinning this exciting recent area of research while also exploring and suggesting new directions for further study The book maps the current state of debates within Jungian orientated film studies and sets them within a more expansive academic landscape Taken as a whole the collection shows how different Jungian approaches can inform and interact with a broad range of disciplines including literature digital media studies clinical debates and concerns The book also explores the life of film outside cinema what is sometimes termed post cinema offering a series of articles exploring Jungian approaches to cinema and social media computer games mobile screens and on line communities The Routledge International Handbook of Jungian Film Studies represents an essential resource for students and researchers interested in Jungian approaches to film It will also appeal to those interested in film theory more widely and in the application of Jung's ideas to contemporary and popular culture Violence and Subjectivity Veena Das,2000-10-02 A collection of original essays that address the ways in which violence manifests itself on societal and interpersonal levels analyzing how different kinds of violence are and are not interpreted on the world stage By looking at hotspots of conflict the contributors discuss the nature of violence in an age of worldwide crisis management

Boys and Their Schooling John Whelen,2011-04-28 This book re evaluates the debate over why so many boys are failing at school moving it from a focus on gender construction and the panic about achievement to the broader question of what it is to experience being schooled as a boy in the new liberal educational environment

The Invisible Man , Boys and Schooling B. Lingard,W. Martino,M. Mills,2008-11-12 Exploring current approaches to addressing boys education in schools this book highlights the limitations of structural reform initiatives and the failure to address the impact of socioeconomic status race sexuality disability and hegemonic masculinity on both boys and girls participation in schooling
