All the Powers of old Europe have entered into a holy alliance to exorcise this spectre: Pope and Czar, Metternich and Guizot, French Radicals and German police-spies. Where is the party in opposition that has not been decried as communistic by its opponents in power? Where is the Opposition that has not hurled back the branding reproach of Communism against the more advanced opposition parties as well as against its reactionary adversaries? Two things result from this fact: I. Communism is already acknowledged by all European Powers to be itself a Power. II. It is high time that Communists should openly, in the face of the whole world, publish their views, their aims, their tendencies, and meet this nursery tale of the Spectre of Communism with a manifesto of the party itself. The Manifesto of the Communist Party Karl Marx, Friedrich Engels, Helen MacFarlane, 2014-08-18 Complete

Manifesto of the Communist Party Karl Marx,1964 The Communist Manifesto Karl Marx,Friedrich Engels,2010-02-01 Manifesto of the Communist Party Karl Marx,Friedrich Engels,2012-11-25 The Communist Manifesto reflects an attempt to explain the goals of Communism as well as the theory underlying this movement It argues that class struggles or the exploitation of one class by another are the motivating force behind all historical developments Class relationships are defined by an era s means of production However eventually these relationships cease to be compatible with the developing forces of production At this point a revolution occurs and a new class emerges as the ruling one This process represents the march of history as driven by larger economic forces Modern Industrial society in specific is characterized by class conflict between the bourgeoisie and proletariat However the productive forces of capitalism are quickly ceasing to be compatible with this exploitative relationship Thus the proletariat will lead a revolution However this revolution will be of a different character than all previous ones previous revolutions simply reallocated property in favor of the new ruling class However by the nature of their class the members of the proletariat have no way of appropriating property Therefore when they obtain control they will have to destroy all ownership of private property and classes themselves will disappear The Manifesto argues that this development is inevitable and that capitalism is inherently unstable The Communists intend to promote this revolution and will promote the parties and associations that are moving history towards its natural conclusion They argue that the elimination of social classes cannot come about through reforms or changes in government Rather a revolution will be required The Communist Manifesto has four sections In the first section it discusses the Communists theory of history and the relationship between proletarians and bourgeoisie The second section explains the relationship between the Communists and the proletarians The third section addresses the flaws in other previous socialist literature The final section discusses the relationship between the Communists and other parties Manifesto of the Communist Party Karl Marx,2020-08-15
