Manifestoes Provocations Of The Modern:

Manifestoes Janet Lyon, 1999 Manifestoes and public spheres probing modernity Manifestoes and revolutionary discourse women in the cross fire Militant allies strange bedfellows suffragettes and vorticists before the war Modernists and gatekeeping manifestoes Pound Loy and modern sanctions A second wave problematic how to be a radical The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry Cary Nelson, 2012-01-06 The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry gives readers a cutting edge introduction to the kaleidoscopic world of American poetry over the last century Offering a comprehensive approach to the debates that have defined the study of American verse the twenty five original essays contained herein take up a wide array of topics the influence of jazz on the Beats and beyond European and surrealist influences on style poetics of the disenfranchised religion and the national epic antiwar and dissent poetry the AIDS epidemic digital innovations transnationalism hip hop and more Alongside these topics major interpretive perspectives such as Marxist psychoanalytic disability queer and ecocritical are incorporated Throughout the names that have shaped American poetry in the period Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens Marianne Moore Mina Loy Sterling Brown Hart Crane William Carlos Williams Posey Langston Hughes Allen Ginsberg John Ashbery Rae Armantrout Larry Eigner and others serve as touchstones along the tour of the poetic landscape Manifestos for the Future of Critical Disability Studies Katie Ellis, Rosemarie Garland-Thomson, Mike Kent, Rachel Robertson, 2018-10-03 This collection identifies the key tensions and conflicts being debated within the field of critical disability studies and provides both an outline of the field in its current form and offers manifestos for its future direction Traversing a number of disciplines from science and technology studies to maternal studies the collection offers a transdisciplinary vision for the future of critical disability studies Some common thematic concerns emerge across the book such as digital futures the usefulness of anger creativity family as disability allies intersectionality ethics eugenics accessibility and interdisciplinarity However the contributors who write as either disabled people or allies do not proceed from a singular approach to disability often reflecting different or even opposing positions on these issues Containing contributions from established and new voices in disability studies outlining their own manifesto for the future of the field this book will be of interest to all scholars and students working within the fields of disability studies cultural studies sociology law history and education The concerns introduced here are further explored in its sister volume Interdisciplinary approaches to disability looking towards the future A Dirty South Manifesto L.H. Stallings, 2019-12-10 From the shutdown of Planned Parenthood clinics and rising rates of HIV to opposition to marriage equality and bathroom bills the New South is the epicenter of the new sex wars Antagonism toward reproductive freedom partner rights and transgender rights has revealed a new and unacknowledged era of southern reconstruction centered on gender and sexuality In A Dirty South Manifesto L H Stallings celebrates the roots of radical sexual resistance in the New South a movement that is antiracist decolonial and transnational For people within economically disenfranchised segments of society those in sexually marginalized communities and the racially oppressed the South has been a sexual dystopia Throughout this book Stallings delivers hard hitting manifestos for the new sex wars With her focus on contemporary Black southern life Stallings offers an invitation to anyone who has ever imagined a way of living beyond white supremacist heteropatriarchy The Modern Essay in French Charles Forsdick, Andy Stafford, 2005 As a textual form the essai predominates in modern and contemporary literature in French Emerging from an earlier tradition and distinguished from its English language counterpart the French language essay ranges from Stéphane Mallarmé to Colette Victor Segalen to Aimé Césaire Jean Grenier to Pierre Michon The essai remains however one of the most hazily identified of textual forms its definition often depending on the progressive elimination of all other generic possibilities Excluded from the archigenres theatre poetry etc it can even be seen as a hold all category whose role is to absorb the anarchic extremes of writing It is perhaps this very lack of pretension to orthodoxy that has drawn so many writers to the essai The conventional understanding of the term as a tentative unsystematic exploration stresses the genre's provisional nature its refusal of any claims to comprehensiveness The essai exploits the devices of anecdote illustration and humour it is addressed to a wide and often general audience it is also intricately linked to the performance of ideological and writerly strategies often reordering the classical art of rhetoric and persuasion As the contributions to this volume show there is a need to outline an ethics and politics as well as poetics of essayism Pragmatic Modernism Lisi Schoenbach, 2014-11-28 Pragmatic Modernism traces an alternative strain of modernism influenced by pragmatist philosophy and characterized by its commitment to gradualism continuity and habit rather than spectacular events and radical rupture Through original readings of Gertrude Stein Henry James Marcel Proust and Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr this study rediscovers an overlooked cultural and social matrix and suggests an expanded range of responses to modernity The Manifesto Handbook Julian Hanna, 2020-01-31 The Manifesto Handbook describes the hidden life of an undervalued genre the conduit for declarations of principle advertisements for newisms and provocations in pamphlet form Often physically slight and small in scale the manifesto is always grand in style and ambition A bold charismatic genre it has founded some of the most important and revolutionary movements in modern history from the declaration of wars and the birth of nations to the launch of countless social political and artistic movements worldwide Julian Hanna provides a brief genealogy of the genre analyses its complex speaking position traces the material process of manifesto making from production to dissemination unpacks its extremist underbelly and follows the twenty first century resurgence of the manifesto as a re politicised and reinvigorated digital form Doing Time Rita Felski, 2000-09 Nine essays that Felski English U of Virginia has revised from publication elsewhere grapple with whether people live in the same time whether it is possible to talk about men's time and women's or Western and non Western time how to explain that individuals and groups may perceive time very differently and yet seem to inhabit the same time in crucial respects and what the stakes are in either affirming or denying the contemporaneity and coevalness of others c Book News Inc When

Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green, Heather Barker, 2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists

AI for Arts Niklas Hageback, Daniel Hedblom, 2021-08-24 AI for Arts is a book for anyone fascinated by the man machine connection an unstoppable evolution that is intertwining us with technology in an ever greater degree and where there is an increasing concern that it will be technology that comes out on top Thus presented here through perhaps its most esoteric form namely art this unfolding conundrum is brought to its apex What is left of us humans if artificial intelligence also surpasses us when it comes to art The articulation of an artificial intelligence art manifesto is long overdue so hopefully this book can fill a gap that will have repercussions not only for aesthetic and philosophical considerations but possibly more so for the development of artificial intelligence

Modernism and Masculinity Natalya Lusty, Julian Murphet, 2014-03-31 Modernism and Masculinity explores the varied dimensions and manifestations of masculinity in modernist literature and culture

The Cambridge Companion to Modernist Poetry Alex Davis, Lee M. Jenkins, 2007-07-19 This Companion offers the most comprehensive overview available of modernist poetry its forms its major authors and its contexts The first part explores the historical and cultural contexts and sexual politics of literary modernism and the avant garde The chapters in the second part concentrate on individual authors and movements while the concluding part offers a comprehensive overview of the early reception and subsequent canonisation of modernist poetry As well as insightful readings of canonical poets the Companion features extended discussions of poets whose importance is now being increasingly recognised such as Mina Loy poets of the Harlem Renaissance and postcolonial poets in the Caribbean Africa and India While modernist poets are often thought of as difficult these essays will help students to understand and enjoy their experimental playful and fascinating responses to contemporary social and cultural change and their dialogue with the arts and with each other Recovering the New Edward S. Cutler,2003 An innovative look at the process and development of nineteenth century modernism The New York School Poets and the Neo-Avant-Garde Mark Silverberg,2016-02-17 New York City was the site of a remarkable cultural and artistic renaissance during the 1950s and 60s In the first monograph to treat all five major poets of the New York School John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler Mark Silverberg examines this rich period of cross fertilization between the arts Silverberg uses the term neo avant garde to describe New York School Poetry Pop Art Conceptual Art Happenings and other movements intended to revive and revise the achievements of the historical avant garde while remaining keenly aware of the new problems facing avant gardists in the age of late capitalism Silverberg highlights the family resemblances among the New York School poets identifying the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions they shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature of the book is Silverberg s annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists To comprehend the coherence of the New York School Silverberg demonstrates one must understand their shared commitment to a reconceptualized idea of the avant garde specific to the United States in the 1950s and 60s when the adversary culture of the Beats was being appropriated and repackaged as popular culture Silverberg s detailed analysis of the strategies the New York School poets used to confront the problem of appropriation tells us much about the politics of taste and gender during the period and suggests new ways of understanding succeeding generations of artists and poets Blue Studios Rachel Blau DuPlessis,2006-09-03 Publisher description Modernism Astradur Eysteinnsson,Vivian Liska,2007-10-04 The two volume work Modernism has been awarded the prestigious 2008 MSA Book Prize Modernism has constituted one of the most prominent fields of literary studies for decades While it was perhaps temporarily overshadowed by postmodernism recent years have seen a resurgence of interest in modernism on both sides of the Atlantic These volumes respond to a need for a collective and multifarious view of literary modernism in various genres locations and languages Asking and responding to a wealth of theoretical aesthetic and historical questions 65 scholars from several countries test the usefulness of the concept of modernism as they probe a variety of contexts from individual texts to national literatures from specific critical issues to broad cross cultural concerns While the chief emphasis of these volumes is on literary modernism literature is seen as entering into diverse cultural and social contexts These range from inter art conjunctions to philosophical environmental urban and political domains including issues of race and space gender and fashion popular culture and trauma science and exile all of which have an urgent bearing on the poetics of modernity

Legitimizing the Artist Luca Somigli, 2003-12-15 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the production of literary and cultural manifestoes enjoyed a veritable boom and accompanied the rise of many avant garde movements Legitimizing the Artist considers this phenomenon as a response to a more general crisis of legitimation that artists had been struggling with for decades The crucial question for artists confronted by the conservative values of the dominant bourgeoisie and the economic logic of triumphant capitalism was how to justify their work in terms that did not reduce art to a mere commodity In this work Luca Somigli discusses several European artistic movements decadentism Italian futurism vorticism and imagism and argues for the centrality of the works of F T Marinetti in the transition from a fin de si cle decadent poetics exemplified by the manifestoes of Anatole Baju to a properly avant garde project aiming at a complete renewal of the process of literary communication and the abolition of the difference between producer and consumer It is to this challenge that the English avant garde artists and Ezra Pound in particular responded with their more polemical pieces Somigli suggests that this debate allows us to rethink the relationship between modernism and post modernism as complementary ways of engaging the loss of an organic relationship between the artist and his social environment

On the Outskirts of Form Michael Davidson, 2012-01-01 This new book by eminent scholar Michael Davidson gathers his essays concerning formally innovative poetry from modernists such as Mina Loy George Oppen and Wallace Stevens to current practitioners such as Cristina Rivera Garza Heriberto Y pez Lisa Robertson and Mark Nowak The book considers poems that challenge traditional poetic forms and in doing so trouble normative boundaries of sexuality subjectivity gender and citizenship At the heart of each essay is a concern with the politics of form the ways that poetry has been enlisted in the constitution and critique of community Davidson speculates on the importance of developing cultural poetics as an antidote to the personalist and expressivist treatment of postwar poetry A comprehensive and versatile collection On the Outskirts of Form places modern and contemporary poetics in a cultural context to reconsider the role of cultural studies and globalization in poetry

From Jeremiad to Jihad John D. Carlson, Jonathan H. Ebel, 2012-06-06 From Jeremiad to Jihad is an ambitious volume The selections here introduce new perspectives on the intersection of religious institutions and American culture Whereas the subject of just war has largely been the provenance of religious and philosophical studies with some input from international relations and political science the authors of this volume have brought methods and questions from the study of history to bear on the discussion Carlson and Ebel have pulled together a significant work that fosters new conversations between scholars interested in just war and American religious history John Kelsay author of Arguing the Just War in Islam Why is America one of the world s most religious societies also one of the most violent In a sophisticated thoughtful and accessible manner the essays in this collection provide an important examination of the complexities of American character that sees the sacred as sanctioning violence and allows violence to be sanctified Mark Juergensmeyer author of Terror in the Mind of God: The Global Rise of Religious Violence This is a stunning collection of essays the single most comprehensive and wide ranging set yet prepared With jeremiad and jihad as their guiding tropes the contributors brilliantly trace the life of this rhetorical strain This volume is ideally suited for courses in religion and history as well as anyone interested in the role of religious violence in American culture and life Harry S Stout author of Upon the Altar of the Nation: A Moral History of the Civil War
