Rm: a Biographical Novel of Ramon Magsaysay Allyn C. Ryan, 2007-11-28 World War II had left the Philippines reeling from poverty unrest and lawlessness Rampant graft and corruption characterized the government of President Elpidio Quirino The farmers in Central Luzon resentful and angry over agrarian problems swelled the ranks of the Hukbalahap a contraction of the name in the vernacular Hukbong Bayan Laban sa Hapon literally translated to National Army Fighting the Japanese They were a rag tag guerrilla force that fought the Japanese occupation in 1941 1945 At the height of the Huk power the Philippine military weak and undisciplined was unable to counter the Huk attacks throughout the country The Huks relentless drive to bring down the government in the early 1950s threatened the Philippines with a communist takeover RM is the story of an extraordinary man who faced these problems against all odds His integrity and perseverance in trying to ameliorate the plight of the downtrodden and the helpless in Philippine society cast him in the limelight As a result he was elected on November 10 1953 as the third president of the Philippines after the United States had granted independence on July 4 1946 RM was the seventh elected leader since June 12 1898 when Emilio Aguinaldo became the first leader after the Filipino revolution against Spain in 1898 and the United States in 1899 1902 RM takes the reader back to his unpretentious beginnings in Zambales where all towns face the China Sea The province was generally poor and the people predominantly Ilocanos except for the northern and southern areas In the north lived a smattering of natives that spoke Zambal and to the south Tagalog because of the proximity to Bataan a Tagalog province RMs great grandparents were not Ilocanos however On his fathers side his great grandmother Paulina Toleido she was blonde with blue eyes was a peninsular Castilian who lived in Makati Rizal Her husband Gregorio Magsaysay an educated man worked as a clerk in an early American firm Smith Bell Co One of their sons became the father of Exequiel Ramons father On his mothers side the del Fierro families were mestizos an admixture of Spanish and native from Catbalogan Samar The Moro pirate attacks during the early part of the nineteenth century drove the del Fierro family northward where they settled in Zambales The Spanish mestizo Juan del Fierro and Maria Quimzon of Cavite became the parents of Perfecta the mother of Ramon RM was a target of several assassination attempts After Bataan and Corregidor fell April 9 and May 6 1942 the Japanese Kempei Tai secret police wanted him dead because of his guerrilla activities He worked closely with the USAFFE U S Armed Forces in the Far East and was subsequently appointed by General Charles P Hall as the military governor of Zambales Because of his sincerity in dealing with his guerrilla followers and what he did for the people during the war years everyone recognized his leadership abilities This paved the way for his entry into politics Monching as people came to call him saw and felt what poverty can do to peoples lives compounded by what politicians promised and never lived up to The shenanigans of RM and his political friends leading up to his nomination as the Nacionalista Party standard bearer could be construed by his foes as machiavellian In many ways he was an uncommon politician who drew the ire of friend and foe alike the infighting of senators and congressmen in the Philippine Congress and the paradoxical support of people who wanted the status quo to continue during his administration. As Secretary of Defense under President Elpidio Quirino he fought the Huk menace on all fronts resulting in blood and tears for the people of Zambales. During the Huk insurrection their assassins stalked his every move. Lack of security p

A large annotated bibliography of primary and secondary works for each author and topic promotes further research and discussion. Features a useful glossary of critical terms.

Asia in Western fiction Robin Winks, 2017-03-01 Any reader who has ever visited Asia knows that the great bulk of Western language fiction about Asian cultures turns on stereotypes. This book, a collection of essays, explores the problem of entering Asian societies through Western fiction since this is the major port of entry for most school children, university students and most adults. In the thirteenth century serious attempts were made to understand Asian literature for its own sake. Hau Kioou Chooan, a typical Chinese novel, was quite different from the wild and magical pseudo-Oriental tales. European perceptions of the Muslim world are centuries old, originating in medieval Christendom's encounter with Islam in the age of the Crusades. There is explicit and sustained criticism of medieval mores and values in Scott's novels set in the Middle Ages, and this is to be true of much English language historical fiction of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Even mediocre novels take on momentary importance because of the pervasive power of India. The awesome, remote and inaccessible Himalayas inevitably became for Western writers an idealised setting for novels of magic, romance and high adventure, and for travellers' tales that read like fiction. Chinese fictions flourish in many guises. Most contemporary Hong Kong fiction reinforced corrupt mandarins, barbaric punishments and heathens. Of the novels about Japan published after 1945, two may serve to frame a discussion of Japanese behaviour as it could be observed or imagined by prisoners of war: Black Fountains and Three Bamboos.
