Manning the Race Marlon B. Ross, 2004-06 Explores how African American men have been marketed embodied and imaged for the purposes of racial advancement during the first half of the 20th C A Body, Undone Christina Crosby, 2017-10-03 Shortly after her 50th birthday in 2003 Crosby was in a bicycle accident that paralyzed her and here shares her experience of living her new life The Life and Death of Latisha King Gayle Salamon, 2018-03-20 What can the killing of a transgender teen can teach us about the violence of misreading gender identity as sexual identity The Life and Death of Latisha King examines a single incident the shooting of 15 year old Latisha King by 14 year old Brian McInerney in their junior high school classroom in Oxnard California in 2008 The press coverage of the shooting as well as the criminal trial that followed referred to Latisha assigned male at birth as Larry Unpacking the consequences of representing the victim as Larry a gay boy instead of Latisha a trans girl Gayle Salamon draws on the resources of feminist phenomenology to analyze what happened in the school and at the trial that followed In building on the phenomenological concepts of anonymity and comportment Salamon considers how gender functions in the social world and the dangers of being denied anonymity as both a particularizing and dehumanizing act Salamon offers close readings of the court transcript and the bodily gestures of the participants in the courtroom to illuminate the ways gender and race were both evoked in and expunged from the narrative of the killing Across court documents and media coverage Salamon sheds light on the relation between the speakable and unspeakable in the workings of the transphobic imaginary Interdisciplinary in both scope and method the book considers the violences visited upon gender nonconforming bodies that are surveilled and othered and the contemporary resonances of the Latisha King killing Queer Lasting Sarah Ensor, 2025-02-04 Queer Lasting asks what contemporary environmentalism s seemingly necessary emphasis on the future has rendered unthinkable and looks to the literatures from two periods of queer extinction the 1890s and the 1980s for grammars of care continuance and collective action that emerge only at the last Another Country Scott Herring, 2010-06 Another Country expands the possibilities of queer studies beyond the city limits investigating the lives of rural queers across the United States from faeries in the Midwest to lesbian separatist communes on the coast of Northern California Frottage Keguro Macharia, 2019-11-19 Winner 2020 Alan Bray Memorial Prize given by the GL Q Caucus of the Modern Language Association A new understanding of freedom in the black diaspora grounded in the erotic In Frottage Keguro Macharia weaves together histories and theories of blackness and sexuality to generate a fundamentally new understanding of both the black diaspora and queer studies Macharia maintains that to reach this understanding we must start from the black diaspora which requires re thinking not only the historical and theoretical utility of identity categories such as gay lesbian and bisexual but also more foundational categories such as normative and non normative human and non human Simultaneously Frottage questions the heteronormative tropes through which the black diaspora has been imagined Between Frantz Fanon Ren Maran Jomo

Kenyatta and Claude McKay Macharia moves through genres psychoanalysis fiction anthropology poetry as well as regional geohistories across Africa and Afro diaspora to map the centrality of sex gender desire and eroticism to black freedom struggles In lyrical meditative prose Macharia invigorates frottage as both metaphor and method with which to rethink diaspora by reading and reading against discomfort vulnerability and pleasure The Exquisite Corpse of Asian America Rachel C. Lee,2014-12-05 Addresses this central question if race has been settled as a legal or social construction and not as biological fact why do Asian American artists authors and performers continue to scrutinize their body parts The Sex Obsession Janet R. Jakobsen,2023-04-11 The Sex Obsession connects perversity and possibility in American politics

Wedlocked Katherine Franke,2017-10-03 Compares today s same sex marriage movement to the experiences of black people in the mid nineteenth century The staggering string of victories by the gay rights movement s campaign for marriage equality raises questions not only about how gay people have been able to successfully deploy marriage to elevate their social and legal reputation but also what kind of freedom and equality the ability to marry can mobilize Wedlocked turns to history to compare today s same sex marriage movement to the experiences of newly emancipated black people in the mid nineteenth century when they were able to legally marry for the first time Maintaining that the transition to greater freedom was both wondrous and perilous for newly emancipated people Katherine Franke relates stories of former slaves involvements with marriage and draws lessons that serve as cautionary tales for today s marriage rights movements While be careful what you wish for is a prominent theme they also teach us how the rights bearing subject is inevitably shaped by the very rights they bear often in ways that reinforce racialized gender norms and stereotypes Franke further illuminates how the racialization of same sex marriage has redounded to the benefit of the gay rights movement while contributing to the ongoing subordination of people of color and the diminishing reproductive rights of women Like same sex couples today freed African American men and women experienced a shift in status from outlaws to in laws from living outside the law to finding their private lives organized by law and state licensure Their experiences teach us the potential and the perils of being subject to legal regulation rights and specifically the right to marriage can both burden and set you free Black Performance on the Outskirts of the Left Malik Gaines,2017-08-22 Nina Simone s quadruple consciousness Efuia Sutherland Ama Ata Aidoo the state and the stage The radical ambivalence of G nther Kaufmann The Cockettes Sylvester and performance as life Afterword a history of impossible progress The Delectable Negro Vincent Woodard,Dwight McBride,Justin A Joyce,E. Patrick Johnson,2014-06-27 A groundbreaking study of the connections between homoeroticism cannibalism and cultures of consumption in American literature and US slave culture Scholars of US and transatlantic slavery have largely ignored or dismissed accusations that Black Americans were cannibalized Vincent Woodard takes the enslaved person s claims of human consumption seriously focusing on both the literal starvation of the slave and the tropes of cannibalism on the part of the slaveholder and further draws attention to the ways in which Blacks experienced their consumption as a fundamentally homoerotic occurrence The Delectable Negro explores these connections between homoeroticism cannibalism and cultures of consumption in the context of American literature and US slave culture Utilizing many staples of African American literature and culture such as the slave narratives of Olaudah Equiano Harriet Jacobs and Frederick Douglass as well as other less circulated materials like James L Smith s slave narrative runaway slave advertisements and numerous articles from Black newspapers published in the nineteenth century Woodard traces the racial assumptions political aspirations gender codes and philosophical frameworks that dictated both European and white American arousal towards Black males and hunger for Black male flesh Woodard uses these texts to unpack how slaves struggled not only against social consumption but also against endemic mechanisms of starvation and hunger designed to break them He concludes with an examination of the controversial chain gang oral sex scene in Toni Morrison s Beloved suggesting that even at the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century we are still at a loss for language with which to describe Black male hunger within a plantation culture of consumption Praise for The Delectable Negro Winner of the 2015 LGBT Studies Award presented by the Lambda Literary Foundation A bold and brilliant book Carla L Peterson author of Black Gotham A Family History of African Americans in Nineteenth Century New York City With unflinching clarity The Delectable Negro exposes and examines the pervasive cultural fantasies that have rendered the enslaved black body into a consumable object from the eighteenth century to the present Its powerful insights will continue to generate new lines of important inquiry for years to come American Historical Review
