Mansions At Dusk:

Mansions at Dusk Pavan K. Varma, Sondeep Shankar, 1992 Indigenous Modernities Jyoti Hosagrahar, 2012-10-02

This book examines how a historic and so called traditional city quietly evolved into one that was modern in its own terms in form use and meaning Through a focused study of Delhi the author challenges prevalent assumptions in architecture and urbanism to identify an interpretation of modernism that goes beyond conventional understanding Part one reflects on transformations and discontinuities in built form and spatial culture and questions accepted notions of the static nature of what is normally referred to as traditional and non Western architecture Part two is a critical discussion of Delhi in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries redefining modernism in a way that separates the city s architecture and society from the objectified realm of the exotic whilst acknowledging non Western ideas of modernity In the final part the author considers indigenous modernities the irregular the uneven and the unexpected in what uncritical observers might call a coherent traditional society and built environment and those on the history of science almost always start with the Greeks with perhaps a mention of the Islamic world as a translator of Greek scientific works The purpose of the Encyclopaedia is to bring together knowledge of many disparate fields in one place and to legitimize the study of other cultures science Our aim is not to claim the superiority of other cultures but to engage in a mutual exchange of ideas The Western academic divisions of science technology and medicine have been united in the Encyclopaedia because in ancient cultures these disciplines were connected This work contributes to redressing the balance in the number of reference works devoted to the study of Western science and encourages awareness of cultural diversity The Encyclopaedia is the first compilation of this sort and it is testimony both to the earlier Eurocentric view of academia as well as to the widened vision of today There is nothing that crosses disciplinary and geographic boundaries dealing with both scientific and philosophical issues to the extent that this work does xi PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE EDITOR Many years ago I taught African history at a secondary school in Central Africa India Today ,1992
