May,2009-03-31 Now in paperback a distinguished psychiatrist spiritual counsellor and bestselling author shows how the dark sides of the spiritual life are a vital ingredient in deep authentic healthy spirituality Gerald G May MD one of the great spiritual teachers and writers of our time argues that the dark shadow side of the true spiritual life has been trivialised and neglected to our serious detriment Superficial and naively upbeat spirituality does not heal and enrich the soul Nor does the other tendency to relegate deep spiritual growth to only mystics and saints Only the honest sometimes difficult encounters with what Christian spirituality has called and described in helpful detail as the dark night of the soul can lead to true spiritual wholeness May emphasises that the dark night is not necessarily a time of suffering and near despair but a time of deep transition a search for new orientation when things are clouded and full of mystery The dark gives depth dimension and fullness to the spiritual life Mansions of the Heart R. Thomas Ashbrook,2019-03-01 A roadmap for spiritual formation

Evening's Empire Craig Koslofsky, 2011-06-30 What does it mean to write a history of the night? Evening's Empire is a fascinating study of the myriad ways in which early modern people understood, experienced, and transformed the night. Using diaries, letters, and legal records together with representations of the night in early modern religion, literature, and art, Craig Koslofsky opens up an entirely new perspective on early modern Europe. He shows how princes, courtiers, burghers, and common people nocturnalized political expression, the public sphere, and the use of daily time. Fear of the night was now mingled with improved opportunities for labour and leisure; the modern night was beginning to assume its characteristic shape. Evening's Empire takes the evocative history of the night into early modern politics, culture, and society, revealing its importance to key themes from witchcraft, piety, and gender to colonization, race, and the Enlightenment.

The Dark Ellen Datlow, 2004-09-01 Ghosts are among us. On the other side of death, the spirits of departed souls have been part of human myths and beliefs as long as anyone can recall. Some of the most powerful and affecting images in fiction are of ghosts, spirits, visitations from beyond the veil of death. Ellen Datlow, an editor whose stellar career has garnered her World Fantasy Awards, a Stoker Award, and a Hugo Award, has long been fascinated by ghosts. Now she has brought together an array of all new original ghost stories for the shivering delight of readers who are ready to be frightened. And that's no idle threat. These are not friendly ghost stories. This book is called The Dark because the editor asked her favorite authors specifically for stories that would provoke fear or disquietude, tales that would cause shivers down the spine and make readers want to keep a light on when they retire to bed for the night. The authors who answered her call compose an all-star cast of brilliant storytellers, including such award-winning, certifiably masterful authors as Ramsey Campbell, Jeffrey Ford, Charles L. Grant, Glen Hirshberg, Kathe Koja, Tanith Lee, Kelly Link, Sharyn McCrumb, Joyce Carol Oates, Lucius Shepard, and Gahan Wilson. Frighteningly good writers. Each has penned a unique tale, unlike any of the others. All have cast dark spells that are sure to inspire fear or unease in the hardest of readers. At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied.
