Medicine And Hygiene In The Works Of Flavius Josephus Studies In Ancient Medicine Vol 9:

Legal Exegesis of Scripture in the Works of Josephus Michael Avioz, 2020-11-12 Michael Avioz builds upon his earlier work on Josephus as an exegete providing a comprehensive study of Josephus contribution to the crystallization of the Halakha which focuses on the similarities and dissimilarities between his work and the tannaitic sources as well as contemporary Second Temple sources Avioz begins by providing a clear definition of Halakha and offering an explanation of methodology and sources He then examines the structure and contents of the Pentateuch in Josephus writing before moving on to more specific coverage of the Decalogue in the work of Josephus and its relation to other laws in the Pentateuch Further analysis is applied to the laws in the books of Leviticus Deuteronomy and on laws that appear outside the Pentateuch Throughout Avioz makes close comparisons between biblical laws and Josephus rewriting of them in order to consider the reasons behind this rewriting and the origins of the texts that Josephus may have had access to in his exegetical work Avioz is consequently able to draw clear conclusions about the interpretative traditions that Josephus had access to and worked within and about how he used them in his writing
