Medieval Life Leisure In The Devonshire Hunting Tapestries:

Medieval Life and Leisure in the Devonshire Hunting Tapestries Linda Woolley, 2002 The four magnificent Devonshire Tapestries housed at the Victoria and Albert Museum are the only great 15th century tapestries to survive the ravages of time This book is a celebration of them and offers a unique insight into the world of the late Middle Ages in rich and fascinating detail Tapestries Rosita Sheen, 2019-10-31 Tapestries have been an enigmatic form of artwork for hundreds of years with the intricate symbolism of their woven narratives still fascinating viewers today Unicorns and fantastic beasts rub shoulders with well heeled aristocrats famous biblical and saintly stories are played out allegorical figures gods and goddesses recline in classical landscapes and the arms and military achievements of wealthy patrons are depicted in sparkling glory However far from being an outdated craft tapestries continue to be woven to this day both by talented amateurs in their homes and by highly skilled artisans in studios and workshops around the world In this beautiful illustrated introduction to the history of tapestries Rosita Sheen reveals the fascinating story of these masterpieces exploring their conception manufacture and symbolism right up to the present day Coventry: Medieval Art, Architecture and

Archaeology in the City and its Vicinity Linda Monckton, 2017-07-05 The British Archaeological Association's 2007 conference celebrated the material culture of medieval Coventry the fourth wealthiest English city of the later middle ages The nineteen papers collected in this volume set out to remedy the relative neglect in modern scholarship of the city's art architecture and archaeology as well as to encompass recent research on monuments in the vicinity The scene is set by two papers on archaeological excavations in the historic city centre especially since the 1970s and a paper investigating the relationships between Coventry's building boom and economic conditions in the city in the later middle ages Three papers on the Cathedral Priory of St Mary bring together new insights into the Romanesque cathedral church the monastic buildings and the post Dissolution history of the precinct derived mainly from the results of the Phoenix Initiative excavations 1999-2003 Three more papers provide new architectural histories of the spectacular former parish church of St Michael the fine Guildhall of St Mary and the remarkable surviving west range of the Coventry Charterhouse The high quality monumental art of the later medieval city is represented by papers on wall painting featuring the recently conserved Doom in Holy Trinity church on the little known Crucifixion mural at the Charterhouse and on a reassessment of the working practices of the famous master glazier John Thornton Two papers on a guild seal and on the glazing at Stanford on Avon parish church consider the evidence for Coventry as a regional workshop centre for high quality metalwork and glass painting Beyond the city three papers deal with the development of Combe Abbey from Cistercian monastery to country house with the Beauchamp family's hermitage at Guy's Cliffe and with a newly identified stonemasons workshop in the barn at Kenilworth Abbey Two further papers concern the architectural patronage of the earls and dukes of Lancaster in the 14th century at Kenilworth Castle and in the Newarke at Leicester Castle Rural Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age

Albrecht Classen, 2012-05-29 Older research on the premodern world limited its focus on the Church the court and more recently on urban space The present volume invites readers to consider the meaning of rural space both in light of ecocritical readings and social historical approaches While previous scholars examined the figure of the peasant in the premodern world the current volume combines a large number of specialized studies that investigate how the natural environment and the appearance of members of the rural population interacted with the world of the court and of the city The experience in rural space was important already for writers and artists in the premodern era as the large variety of scholarly approaches indicates The present volume signals how much the surprisingly close interaction between members of the aristocratic and of the peasant class determined many literary and art historical works In a surprisingly large number of cases we can even discover elements of utopia hidden in rural space We also observe how much the rural world was a significant element already in early medieval mentality Moreover as many authors point out the impact of natural forces on premodern society was tremendous if not catastrophic

The Art of Medieval Falconry Yannis Hadjinicolaou, 2024-08-12 A beautifully illustrated tour of the visual culture of medieval falconry in Europe and beyond Medieval falconry was not just about hunting the practice also signified sovereignty power and diplomacy In The Art of Medieval Falconry Yannis Hadjinicolaou describes the visual culture that sprang up around these practices tracking how imagery equipment and even the birds themselves moved through the medieval world Indeed Hadjinicolaou shows that falconry has been a global phenomenon since at least the thirteenth century This beautifully illustrated book offers a unique glimpse at how cultures across the globe adopted and adapted the visual culture of medieval falconry

Medieval Clothing and Textiles 12 Robin Netherton, Gale R. Owen-Crocker, 2016 The best new research on medieval clothing and textiles drawing from a range of disciplines The studies collected here range through art artifacts documentary text and poetry addressing both real and symbolic functions of dress and textiles John Block Friedman breaks new ground with his article on clothing for pets and other animals while Grzegorz Pac compares depictions of sacred and royal female dress and evaluates attempts to link them together Jonathan C Cooper describes the clothing of scholars in Scotland's three pre Reformation universities and the effects of the Reformation upon it Camilla Luise Dahl examines references to women's garments in probates and what they reveal about early modern fashions Megan Cavell focuses on the treatment of textiles associated with the Holy of Holies in Old English biblical poetry Frances Pritchard examines the iconography heraldry and inscriptions on a worn and repaired set of embroidered fifteenth century orphreys to determine their origin Finally Thomas M Izbicki summarizes evidence for the choice of white linen for the altar and the responsibilities of priests for keeping it clean and in good repair

Hunting and the Ivory Tower Douglas Higbee, David Bruzina, 2018-05-11 Seventeen hunter scholars explore the hunting experience and question common negative stereotypes Despite the academy having a reputation for supporting broad and open inquiry in scholarship some academics have not extended this open minded support to colleagues personal pursuits A variety of scholars enjoy hunting which has been stereotyped by some as an activity of the unsophisticated In Hunting and the Ivory Tower Douglas Higbee and David Bruzina present essays by seventeen hunter scholars who explore the hunting experience and question negative assumptions about hunting made by intellectuals and academics who do not hunt Higbee and Bruzina suspect most academics understanding of hunting is based on brief television news reports of hunter politicians and commercials for reality TV shows such as Duck Dynasty The editors contend that few scholars appreciate the complexities of hunting or give much thought to its ethical ecological and cultural ramifications Through this anthology they hope to start a conversation about both hunting and academia and how they relate The contributors to this anthology are academics from a variety of disciplines each with firsthand hunting experience Their essays vary in style and tone from the scholarly to the personal and represent the different ways in which scholars engage with their avocation The essays are grouped into three sections the first focuses on the often fraught relation between hunters and academic culture the second section offers personal accounts of hunting by academics and the third portrays hunting from an explicitly academic point of view whether in terms of value theory metaphysics or history Combined these essays render hunting as a culturally rich deeply personal and intellectually satisfying experience worthy of further discussion A foreword is provided by Robert DeMott the Edwin and Ruth Kennedy Distinguished Professor at Ohio University in Athens Ohio He is a teacher writer critic and internationally respected expert on novelist John Steinbeck
