Menlo park reminiscences: volume three F. Jehl, 1941 Knowledge Management and Intellectual Property Stathis Arapostathis, Graham Dutfield, 2013-01-01 This diverse and insightful volume investigates changing patterns of knowledge management practices and intellectual property regimes across a range of different techno scientific disciplines and cultures The book links the practices and regimes of the past with those of contemporary and emerging forms covering the mid 19th century to the present The contributors are noted scholars from various disciplines including history of science and technology intellectual property law and innovation studies The chapters offer original perspectives on how proprietary regimes in knowledge production processes have developed as a socio political phenomenon of modernity as well as providing an analysis of the way individuals institutions and techno sciences interact within this culture With in depth analysis this book will appeal to academics and students of STS Science Technology and Society history of science and technology business history innovation studies law science and technology policy as well as business studies Historians of science and technology and business will also find much to interest them in this book Menlo Park Reminiscences Francis Jehl, 1941 This three volume set records the day by day details of working at the restoration of the original Menlo Park laboratory in Greenfield Village Dearborn by Francis Jehl whom Edison referred to as one of my old associates and fellow workers The Reminiscences also include a list of the men who assisted in that great work at Menlo Park With hundreds of rare photographs this 3 volume set is historically fascinating scientifically stimulating and metaphysically enlightening as it depicts read how Edison conceived the idea of inventions and how he brought them into material existence Ford News, 1932 The Morals of Measurement Graeme Gooday, 2004-04 The Morals of Measurement is a contribution to the social histories of quantification and electrical technology in nineteenth century Britain Germany and France It shows how the advent of commercial electrical lighting stimulated the industrialization of electrical measurement from a skilled labour intensive activity to a mechanized practice Challenging traditional accounts that focus on the metrological standards used in measurement this book shows the central importance of trust when measurement was undertaken in an increasingly complex division of labour Alongside ambiguities about the very nature of measurement and the respective responsibilities of humans and technologies in generating error free numbers the book also addresses controversies over the changing identity of the measurer through the themes of body gender and authorship The reader will gain fresh insights into a period when measurement was widely treated as the definitive means of gaining knowledge of the world Empires of Light Jill Jonnes, 2004-10-12 The gripping history of electricity and how the fateful collision of Thomas Edison Nikola Tesla and George Westinghouse left the world utterly transformed In the final decades of the nineteenth century three brilliant and visionary titans of America s Gilded Age Thomas Edison Nikola Tesla and George Westinghouse battled bitterly as each vied to create a vast and powerful electrical empire In Empires of Light historian Jill Jonnes portrays this extraordinary trio and their riveting and ruthless world of cutting edge science invention intrigue money death and hard eyed Wall Street millionaires At the heart of the story are Thomas Alva Edison the nation s most famous and folksy inventor creator of the incandescent light bulb and mastermind of the world s first direct current electrical light networks the Serbian wizard of invention Nikola Tesla elegant highly eccentric a dreamer who revolutionized the generation and delivery of electricity and the charismatic George Westinghouse Pittsburgh inventor and tough corporate entrepreneur an industrial idealist who in the era of gaslight imagined a world powered by cheap and plentiful electricity and worked heart and soul to create it Edison struggled to introduce his radical new direct current DC technology into the hurly burly of New York City as Tesla and Westinghouse challenged his dominance with their alternating current AC thus setting the stage for one of the eeriest feuds in American corporate history the War of the Electric Currents The battlegrounds Wall Street the 1893 Chicago World s Fair Niagara Falls and finally the death chamber Jonnes takes us on the tense walk down a prison hallway and into the sunlit room where William Kemmler convicted ax murderer became the first man to die in the electric chair BPA and the Struggle for Power at Cost Gene Tollefson,1987 I Died for Beauty Marjorie Senechal,2012-11-01 In the vein of A Beautiful Mind The Man Who Loved Only Numbers and Rosalind Franklin The Dark Lady of DNA this volume tells the poignant story of the brilliant colorful controversial mathematician named Dorothy Wrinch Drawing on her own personal and professional relationship with Wrinch and archives in the United States Canada and England Marjorie Senechal explores the life and work of this provocative scintillating mind Senechal portrays a woman who was learned restless imperious exacting critical witty and kind A young disciple of Bertrand Russell while at Cambridge the first woman to receive a doctor of science degree from Oxford University Wrinch s contributions to mathematical physics philosophy probability theory genetics protein structure and crystallography were anything but inconsequential But Wrinch a complicated and ultimately tragic figure is remembered today for her much publicized feud with Linus Pauling over the molecular architecture of proteins Pauling ultimately won that bitter battle Yet Senechal reminds us some of the giants of mid century science including Niels Bohr Irving Langmuir D Arcy Thompson Harold Urey and David Harker took Wrinch s side in the feud What accounts for her vast if now forgotten influence What did these renowned thinkers in such different fields hope her model might explain Senechal presents a sympathetic portrait of the life and work of a luminous but tragically flawed character At the same time she illuminates the subtler prejudices Wrinch faced as a feisty woman profound culture clashes between scientific disciplines ever changing notions of symmetry and pattern in science and the puzzling roles of beauty and truth Herald ,1943 The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt,2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E s Biography best selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals
