Mentoring Matters Rick Lewis, 2012-09-12 Mentoring Matters explains a reproducible model for maximizing the potential of leaders and helping them go the distance It gets behind the issues of leadership skills to address the leader as a person their spirituality emotional health key relationships vulnerabilities and rhythms of life This approach to mentoring is highly flexible so that it can be tailor made for each mentoring partnership not relying on a strict format or curriculum The mentor functions as a doctor of the soul pulling us back to our most noble intentions and perceptive insights The approach is formal and organised and highly effective

Educating People of Faith John H. Van Engen, 2004 A much needed addition to the emerging literature on the formative power of religious practices Educating People of Faith creates a vivid portrait of the lived practices that shaped the faith of Jews and Christians in synagogues and churches from antiquity up to the seventeenth century This significant book is the work of Jewish Roman Catholic Orthodox and Protestant scholars who wished to discover and describe how Jews and Christians through history have been formed in religious ways of thinking and acting Rather than focusing solely on either intellectual or social life the authors all use the concept of practices as they attend to the embodied contextual character of religious formation Their studies of religious figures community life and traditional practices such as preaching sacraments and catechesis are colorful detailed and revealing The authors are also careful to cover the nature of religious education across all social levels from the textual formation of highly literate rabbis and monks engaged in Scripture study to the local formation of illiterate medieval Christians for whom the veneration of saints shrines street performances of religious dramas and public preaching by wandering preachers were profoundly formative Educating People of Faith will benefit scholars and teachers desiring a fuller perspective on how lived practices have historically formed people in religious faith It will also be useful to practical theologians and pastors who wish to make the resources of the past available to practitioners in the present Contributors John C Cavadini Anne L Clark Lawrence S Cunningham Joseph Goering Robert Goldenberg Stanley Samuel Harakas Robert M Kingdon Blake Leyerle Michael A Signer Philip M Soergel David C Steinmetz John Van Engen Lee Palmer Wandel Robert

Louis Wilken Elliot R Wolfson A Guide to Ministry Self-Care Richard P. Olson, Ruth Lofgren Rosell, Nathan S. Marsh, Angela Barker Jackson, 2018-09-10 Ministry has never been an easy path and the challenges of today's changing church landscape only heighten the stress and burn out of congregational leaders A Guide to Ministry Self Care offers a comprehensive and up to date overview of both the causes of stress and strategies for effective self care Written for both new and long time ministers the book draws on current research and offers practical and spiritual insights into building and maintaining personal health and sustaining ministry long term The book addresses a wide range of life situations and explores many forms of self care from physical and financial to relational and spiritual The Living Church ,2002-06

The Reluctant Spiritual Director Fleetwood Range, 2008-10-27 Spiritual direction is a particular way of walking the path of spiritual discovery in close company with another person The Reluctant Spiritual Director speaks to both the prospective spiritual director uncertain of his or her call and the prospective directee uncertain of the benefits This book answers the most basic questions about spiritual direction What is it How does it work Who does it Would spiritual direction help me Am I being called into this ministry myself Though spiritual direction is an ancient Christian spiritual practice it has only recently been rediscovered by mainstream Christianity because of the widespread longing for something more Spiritual

Direction and the Encounter with God William A. Barry, 2004 Is what we call the encounter with God merely a depth experience of the psyche or does it have a specific theological character In this revised edition of his best selling book William Barry shows how it is possible to understand an encounter with the Triune God in this world and how that process can be interpreted and aided by a spiritual director Using the insights of John Macmurray and John Smith Barry describes how a relationship with God develops and how one can discern whether a particular experience is from God or not This understanding of religious experience comes from a theology of community communal discernment and ministry in the church This book will be helpful to spiritual directors educators and theologians as well as all educated seekers desiring a deeper relationship with God In this revised edition the author has added reflections on God's presence to suffering and evil and to evildoers updated the bibliography and freshened his examples for the 21st century reader Cultivating Teen

Faith Richard R. Osmer, Katherine M. Douglass, 2018-10-25 What are churches doing to form the faith of their young people Many church denominations that practice infant baptism offer confirmation or an equivalent ministry when children reach adolescence and enter a new phase of spiritual growth but all churches regardless of tradition wrestle with how to get young adults to actively join the church What really works In this book twelve authors draw on a three year study of more than three thousand US congregations across five denominations United Methodist Church African Methodist Episcopal Church Episcopal Church Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and Presbyterian Church USA to answer this pressing question They tell stories of excellent and innovative confirmation programs that work and that show above all what good discipleship with young people looks like Youth pastors church leaders and parents alike will benefit from the practices and new ways of teaching presented here that have proven helpful in forming and enhancing the faith of youth Contributors Joy L Arroyo Reginald Blount Kenda Creasy Dean Katherine M Douglass Terri Martinson Elton Lisa Kimball Gordon S Mikoski Kermit Moss Richard R Osmer Kate Harmon Siberine Jacob Sorenson Kate O Unruh Transfiguration and Hope D. Gregory Van Dussen, 2018-09-17 To read and visualize the transfiguration of Christ is to enter its mystery and encounter its hope Like the Gospel writers and the disciples who climbed the mountain with Jesus we struggle to tell the story and explain its meaning Yet this astounding event reveals God's ultimate purpose in sending his Son the complete restoration of humanity and all creation our transfiguration in Christ The light and glory of that moment reveal a destiny that is infinite and eternal made possible by the power of grace Transfiguration is the trajectory and goal of our spiritual journey Across time and space Christians have reflected on the mystery and hope epitomized in the transfiguration yet their voices have been heard primarily within their own cultural and ecclesiastical contexts This study gathers many of those voices from the panorama of Scripture and church history and finds in them the common theme of radical transformation in Christ The point of this theological conversation is spiritual transfiguration and hope for each of us as we reach toward the future Christ has shown us in himself
