Self-portraits Andrea Peterson,2006 In 1915 Vera Brittain began to wonder whether it was possible to make a book out of the very essence of one s self In this study the author moves away from Brittain s already well documented political passions socialism feminism and pacifism to discuss her enduring fascination with philosophy and the problems surrounding the literary representation of subjectivity Using the psychoanalytical philosophical and literary theories known to Brittain as well as some more recent and pertinent theoretical developments the author examines not only Brittain s explicitly autobiographical writings but also all of her published novels The Dark Tide 1923 Not Without Honour 1924 Honourable Estate 1936 Account Rendered 1945 and Born 1925 1948 This insightful and accessible book details Brittain s innovative writing methods and re evaluates her contribution to the development of the novel during the early twentieth century The author offers a new and interesting perspective on one of the most popular writers of the First World War

An Exposition of the Gospels of St. Matthew and St. Mark Richard Watson,1833 Theological and Homiletical Commentary on the Gospel of St-Matthew and St-Mark Johann Peter Lange,1863 Press Digest ,1964 Prophet Angelique Martin,2012-08 Have you ever been in a position where you have wanted to serve God and you have received opposition upon opposition This writing is from the perspective of standing in the Office of the Prophet and the journey to accept the call and to be accepted in the call

This also is a viewpoint from someone who has experienced just what you have gone through the same choices to be made the same opposition and the same rejection Do not be concerned about the faces Be concerned about the face of God The Bible tells us that we should not be concerned about the face of man but about the ordained purpose for which we have been created and sent through this journey called life All who have wondered about and questioned their calling can relate to the pages that follow You may not be called to the Office of the Prophet but you have been called by God Stand in your calling and run this race with patience
