political temporality is therefore at stake and that the thinking in question has been and is best represented in modern philosophy and art above all modern literature Ranging through early modern and modern thought from Hobbes Pascal and Leibniz to Rousseau Kant Schopenhauer and Kierkegaard to Foucault Lacan Badiou Jambet and Rancière and in modern literature and art from Wordsworth and Byron to Goya and Wagner Huysmans and Wilde Joyce and Woolf Joseph Roth Vicki Baum Gabriele Tergit and the Weimar novel Evelyn Waugh and George Orwell to R S Thomas and Norman Nicholson Gibson seeks to compile a modern political aide memoire a treasury for a politics to come

Soldiers for Christ Dr. Brian J. Bailey,2021 Dr Brian Bailey presents this commentary on the epistle to the Ephesians which beautifully portrays Christ as the warrior King clothed with the armor of God This same armor is available to us by His grace so that we too may be victorious over the enemy It is the author s prayer that the readers might enter into these beautiful truths that we might be raised up to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus 2 6 Tropical Truth(s) Armin Burkhardt,Brigitte Nerlich,2010-04-23 Tropes are not only rhetorical means which are used as a creative and or persuasive linguistic means in poetry and public speech They are also a cognitive tool which helps people to understand the world and to express their world As they are the basis on which our worldview and even our everyday speech is founded the question must be posed as to whether utterances containing tropes can be said to be true This has been an epistemological problem since Nietzsche expressed his doubts about the possibility that figurative language could give access to truth However since then research has paid little attention to this question 18 papers by linguists philosophers psychologists and literary scholars have been collected in this volume Their 21 authors use various approaches or paradigms in order to define metaphor metonymy synecdoche irony euphemism antonomasia and hyperbole and find an answer to the crucial epistemological questions namely whether and to what extent utterances containing tropes can be said to be true or false Lies That Tell the Truth

Carolyn Pinkard,2000-12 This book is about metaphor what it is what it does Putting aside overly technical definitions the author proposes one intended for the general reader A metaphor is a lie that tells the truth An example Uncle Pat is a hog A literal lie anyone who observes Uncle Pat forking it in will agree that this lie is also true Drawn from such diverse arenas as literature sports education oratory religion and philosophy even the stock market the book presents more than two hundred metaphors that demonstrate that no society anywhere on earth does or did not have metaphors Convincingly the author shows that this incredibly wide use of metaphor depends on its startling colorful language that is easy to understand and easy to remember The heart of the book is a collection of metaphors that offer an alternative to description of things spiritual in abstract language By contrast the author maintains metaphor throws light on the spiritual world even into its most shadowed corners What The Ceo Really Wants From You R. Gopalakrishnan,2012-09-28 There are many books on leadership What the CEO Really Wants from You is one of the few to address the question that is uppermost in the mind of any manager What he should be doing to make his or her boss his partner rather than his opponent We spend most of our lives at work or thinking about it Starting from a young age fired by boundless energy and optimism we launch into our careers sure of our abilities Yet things do not always turn out as we expect they would It is not our abilities alone The business environment is one of change and ambiguity It is no easy task for any manager to negotiate the journey to success As Paul Polman CEO of Unilever points out in his foreword partnerships with others but above all with your direct boss and organization are more important than ever before Not only that a good boss has an instinct for the right people and getting them to do better A good manager by eliciting his help helps himself Few people are better qualified to guide on this journey than R Gopalakrishnan He brings forty five years of experience to this subject in some of the most challenging jobs In this immensely practical book informed by the wisdom he has gleaned over the years he offers the reader the benefit of all he has learnt summarized in the four As Accomplishment Affability Advocacy and Authenticity This is a book that will be of immense use to any manager and one that just might bring him the answers it takes years to find what the CEO really expects from him You can also buy from Online stores Buy from a nearby bookstore Flipkart com Reliance Timeout Homeshop18 com DC books Infibeam com Crossword Bookstore Uread com Landmark Bookstore Indiaplaza com Om Book Shop Starmark Bookstore Sapna Bookstore Full Circle Bookstore Bahri Sons Bookstore Teksons Bookstore Sankars Bookstore

Basic Training for the Fight of Your Life, the Final Stand Robert Mayhew, 2013-02 The purpose of the book is to revive the spirit of real Christianity in the United States stand against our Adversary and turn from our collective moral drift Done as an analogy by telling my experiences in Basic Training in the Army and how those experiences relate to Christianity The book is divided into three parts The first part is Individual Training skill sets For example my volunteering in the Army and the transition from civilian to soldier Likewise the transition from not being a Christian to voluntarily wanting to be one and the transition that takes place Another is my experience on a compass course where I started out doing well but got lost and finally found my way to the finish I compare the compass to the Bible and relate it to life Other examples as well The second part is Opposing Forces Training where I learned how the enemy operates and received training focused around defeating him I apply that to learning the ways of Satan because just like a victorious army you must know your spiritual enemy to be successful against him And the third and last phase is the reclamation which is brought about only by the application of the first two phases That is reinforced by quotes from prominent people from the past

Theological Method and Imagination Julian Hartt, 2006-08-01 What kind of reality can be perceived when the core problems of theology are freed from dependency upon highly technical and arcane ways of thinking and speaking Writing with the logical clarity and critical acumen for which he is well known in theological circles Julian N Hartt demonstrates the reality of theology's problems and shows how they can be perceived as part of a divine restiveness in living Hartt finds the demands of revelation to be most profoundly registered upon the imagination that power of the spirit by which the shape of things to come is grasped Sensing a great hunger for fresh approaches to fundamental theological concerns Hartt presents a boldly original scholarly work In it the persistent theological puzzles about method are clarified the elements of that method are described and major historical controversies about method are critiqued Topics discussed include beliefs and reasons knowing and proving God faith and hope authority and scripture revelation and historical evidence A significant contribution to theology this book shows that theological method entails describing the ways in which faith makes sense Doing this it speaks about incorrigible beliefs those convictions so fundamental that without them the very sense of life and world would disappear Sensing that society has begun to think of theological matters as mere inventions of theologians Hartt seeks to return to those fundamental questions that are the concrete situation of the serious minded Christian in the contemporary world
