Conversing with God Terry Giles, 2022-04-01 Talk is essential to human social life Through conversation we form friendships share dreams and hopes and develop a common outlook on the world around us Talk with God can achieve the same thing This book examines the conversational prayers in the Hebrew Bible their structure and content to understand how talk with God forms friendship shares dreams and hopes and develops a Divine human outlook on the world

Conversation forces the petitioner to surrender control of the encounter and become susceptible to unscripted give and take with the Divine Conversation with God is always a risk but the rewards can be great Through conversation Abraham and Moses became friends with God The same can be true for us Adam as Israel Seth D. Postell,2011-03-14 The story of Adam is the story of Israel writ small In this text centered interpretation of Genesis 1-3 Seth Postell contends that the opening chapters of the Bible when interpreted as a strategic literary introduction to the Torah and to the Tanakh intentionally foreshadows Israel's failure to keep the Sinai Covenant and their exile from the Promised Land in order to point the reader to a future work of God whereby a king will come in the last days to fulfill Adam's original mandate to conquer the land Gen 1:28 Thus Genesis 1-3 the Torah and the Hebrew Bible as a whole have an eschatological trajectory Postell highlights numerous intentional links between the story of Adam and the story of Israel and in the process explains numerous otherwise perplexing features of the Eden story
