Mental Health Consultation in Nursing Homes Michael A. Smyer, Diane Brannon, Margaret D. Cohn, 1990-12 The most complete book to date concerning the institutionalized care of the mentally ill elderly A compassionate comprehensive portrayal of the problems of caring for older persons by family members and nursing home staff Essential reading for all those working with the elderly Bertram J Cohler Committee on Human Development University of Chicago The real strength of this book lies in its initial conceptualization of the nursing home as a community with a community's complexity of forces working both for and counter to the best interests of its members contrasting the traditional view that the institution is the enemy of its residents M Powell Lawton Director of Research Philadelphia Geriatric Center This eminently readable book

meets a long standing need in the field of mental health reflected in the fact that many nursing home residents suffer mental and emotional problems not infrequently the cause of their placement Rooted solidly in theory research and clinical evidence yet with a clear eye to practical applications this excellent book will appeal to scholars educators students administrators consultants and practitioners Barbara Silverstone Executive Director The Lighthouse This book come out at the right time in our return to a national discussion of the mental health needs of older adults Scholarly in breadth and thoroughness the authors draw on their wealth of practical experience to edify topics on the nursing home industry and its community of caregivers families and residents and on strategies for mental health consultation assessment and intervention It is thoughtfully written Carrell Wendland Ph D President Beverly Foundation

Nursing Homes and Assisted Living Peter S. Silin, 2009-11-16 Almost a decade ago Peter S Silin wrote Nursing Homes The Family's Journey to provide family members with practical advice and emotional support This successor volume incorporates the new and sometimes baffling world of assisted living Nursing Homes and Assisted Living focuses on the psychological emotional and practical aspects of helping family members and seniors make a difficult transition Silin approaches his subject with compassion and sensitivity guiding readers through the process of finding the best possible care He describes how nursing homes and assisted living facilities work and outlines the selection process he explains how to prepare for the day a relative moves into a facility and suggests ways to help the resident settle in he focuses on the family member's role in solving problems obtaining good quality care and visiting The author's insights help caregivers cope with difficult decisions and deal with emotional issues such as guilt and grief while celebrating the tender rewarding aspects of being a caregiver Vignettes from real life caregivers narrating their experiences amplify Silin's advice and will resonate with families This book provides caregivers family members and seniors with the information they need to effect successful transitions It is also a valuable tool for social workers nurses and family therapists
