Twentieth-century Pacifism Peter Brock, 1970 Twentieth-century Peace Movements Guido Grunewald, Peter Van den Dungen, 1995 Varieties of Pacifism Peter Brock, 1998 A quick tour rather than a comprehensive treatment to ready readers to study pacifism in the 20th century Brock's 1970 account of which has just appeared in a new edition Looks at the prehistory early Christians the age of the democratic revolution the US before and during the Civil War and other topics Revises and updates references from the earlier editions between 1981 and 1994 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Christian Pacifism in the Twentieth Century Norman Bauman Bucher, 1958 Pacifism's Appeal Jorg Kustermans, Tom Sauer, Dominiek Lootens, Barbara Segaert, 2019-03-13 This volume examines the possibility or need of a revitalization of pacifism as a world political practice It takes as its point of departure the observation that although just war thinking has long been dominant in Western debates about war and peace recent events have served to temper enthusiasm about the doctrine Pacifism has been much less prominent a stance in recent decades but there is the impression that it may be staging a return Just war thinking has to a large extent failed Outright bellicism remains as undesirable as ever Pacifism presents itself again as a possible alternative Once upon a time the peace movement was popular and pacifism with it Pacifism appealed to people It stirred hearts and minds It inspired political action and institutional designs This volume examines whether pacifism can claim its ground again and how it should be redefined in light of today's world political circumstances Secular Nonviolence and the Theo-Drama of Peace Layton Boyd Friesen, 2022-02-10 What happens when a five century tradition of Christian pacifism no longer needs Jesus to support nonviolence Why does secularity cause this dilemma for Mennonites in their theology of peace Layton Boyd Friesen offers an ancient theology and spirituality of incarnation as the church's response to the non resistance of Christ He explores three key aspects of von Balthasar's Christology to help Mennonite peace theology regain its momentum in the secular age with a contemplative union with Christ This volume argues that the way to regain a Christ formed pacifism within secularity is to contemplate and enter the mystery unveiled in the Chalcedonian Definition of Christ as interpreted by Hans Urs von Balthasar In this mystery the believer is drawn into real time participation in Christ's encounter with the secular world A Portrait of Pacifists Richard P. Unsworth, 2012-04-27 This biography tells the story of Andr and Magda Trocm two individuals who made nonviolence a way of life During World War II the southern French town of Le Chambon sur Lignon and its surrounding villages became a center where Jews and others in flight from Nazi roundups could be hidden or led abroad and where children with parents in concentration camps could be nurtured and educated The Trocm s courage during World War II has been well documented in books and film yet the full arc of their lives the impulse that led them to devote themselves to nonviolence and their extensive work in the decades following the war has never been compiled into a full length biography Based on the Trocm s unpublished memoirs interviews and the author s research the book details the couple s role in the history of pacifism before during and after the war Unsworth traces their mission of building peace by nonviolence throughout Europe to Morocco Algeria Japan Vietnam and the United States Analyzing the political and religious complexities of the pacifist movement the author underscores the Trocm s deeply personal commitment Regardless of which nation was condoning violence shaping international relations or pressing for peace and regardless of whose theology dominated the pulpits both Andr and Magda remained driven by conscience to make nonviolence the hallmark of their life s work *Twentieth-Century Pacifism.
