Painted Bed Poems:

The Painted Bed Donald Hall, 2021-05-12 The former US poet laureate delivers a book filled with raw sexual disclosures rowdy anger and a self blasting mockery The New York Times Donald Hall s fourteenth collection opens with an epigraph from the Urdu poet Faiz The true subject of poetry is the loss of the beloved In that poetic tradition as in The Painted Bed the beloved might be a person or something else life itself or the disappearing countryside Hall s new poems further the themes of love death and mourning so powerfully introduced in his Without 1998 but from the distance of passed time A long poem Daylilies on the Hill 1975 1989 moves back to the happy repossession of the poet s old family house and its history a structure that persisted against assaults as its generations of residents could not These poems are by turns furious and resigned spirited and despairing mania is melancholy reversed as Hall writes in another long poem Kill the Day In this book s fourth and final section Ardor the poet moves toward acceptance of new life in old age eros reemerges More controlled more varied and more powerful this taut follow up volume to Without reexamines Hall s grief while exploring the life he has made since The book s first poem Kill the Day stands among the best Hall has ever written Publishers Weekly A compelling sometimes shocking and certainly deeply moving depiction of bereavement Poetry Hall has continued growing as a poet and his steady readers may consider this his finest collection Bleakness and beauty characterize the reminiscent lyrics that follow too joined by a breathtaking bluntness Booklist
