Painting And History During The French Restoration:

Painting and History During the French Restoration Beth Segal Wright, 1997 Interdisciplinary study of painting historical literature and political events during the French Revolution and Restoration French Grand Opera and the Historical Imagination Sarah Hibberd, 2009-04-30 Closely examining five French operas this book reveals how and why grand opera sought to bring the past alive "Painting and Narrative in France, from Poussin to Gauguin " Nina L?bbren, 2017-07-05 Before Modernism narrative painting was one of the most acclaimed and challenging modes of picture making in Western art yet by the early twentieth century storytelling had all but disappeared from ambitious art France was a key player in both the dramatic rise and the controversial demise of narrative art This is the first book to analyse French painting in relation to narrative from Poussin in the early seventeenth to Gauguin in the late nineteenth century Thirteen original essays shed light on key moments and aspects of narrative and French painting through the study of artists such as Nicolas Poussin Charles Le Brun Jacques Louis David Paul Delaroche Gustave Moreau and Paul Gauguin Using a range of theoretical perspectives the authors study key issues such as temporality theatricality word and image relations the narrative function of inanimate objects the role played by viewers and the ways in which visual narrative has been bound up with history painting The book offers a fresh look at familiar material as well as studying some little known works of art and reveals the centrality and complexity of narrative in French painting over the course of three centuries "Art, Theatre, and Opera in Paris, 1750-1850 " Richard Wrigley, 2017-07-05 Art Theatre and Opera in Paris 1750 1850 Exchanges and Tensions maps some of the many complex and vivid connections between art theatre and opera in a period of dramatic and challenging historical change thereby deepening an understanding of familiar and less familiar artworks practices and critical strategies in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Throughout this period new types of subject matter were shared fostering both creative connections and reflection on matters of decorum legibility pictorial and dramatic structure Correspondances were at work on several levels conception design and critical judgement In a time of vigorous social political and cultural contestation the status and role of the arts and their interrelation came to be a matter of passionate public scrutiny Scholars from art history French theatre studies and musicology trace some of those connections and clashes making visible the intimately interwoven and entangled world of the arts Protagonists include Diderot Sedaine Jacques Louis David Ignace Eug Marie Degotti Marie Malibran Paul Delaroche Casimir Delavigne Marie Dorval the Bleeding Nun from Lewis s The Monk the Com e Fran se and Etienne Jean Del uze A History of the European Restorations Michael Broers, Ambrogio A. Caiani, Stephen Bann, 2019-11-14 The second volume shines a light on the cultural and social changes that took place during the epoch of European Restorations when the death of the Napoleonic empire existed as a crucial moment for contemporaries Expanding the transnational approach of Volume I the chapters focus on the transmutation of ordinary experiences of war into folklore and popular culture the emergence of grassroots radical politics and conspiracies on the Left and Right and the relationship between literacy and religion with new cases included from Spain Norway and Russia A wide ranging and impressive work this book completes a collection on the history of the European Restorations "The Artist and the State, 1777-1855" Daniel R. Guernsey, 2017-07-05 The Artist and the State 1777 1855 The Politics of Universal History in British French Painting is the first book length study to examine political uses of universal history or the philosophy of history in European art from 1777 to 1855 Daniel R Guernsey discusses a range of mural paintings and sculptural works produced in England and France between the American Revolution and the Universal Exposition of 1855 comparing the ways artists such as James Barry Eug Delacroix Paul Chenavard David d Angers and Gustave Courbet expressed linear or cyclical histories of progress and decline By considering the work of these important European artists together he reveals not only the rich artistic interaction that took place between England and France as well as Germany at this time but also how the notion of universal history was to become a major preoccupation in the work of these individual artists each one participating in shaping a highly significant mode of eighteenth and nineteenth century political art Representing the Past in the Art of the Long Nineteenth Century Matthew C. Potter, 2021-09-30 This edited collection explores the intersection of historical studies and the artistic representation of the past in the long nineteenth century The case studies provide not just an account of the pursuit of history in art within Western Europe but also examples from beyond that sphere These cover canonical and conventional examples of history painting as well as more inclusive popular and vernacular visual cultural phenomena General themes explored include the problematics internal to the theory and practice of academic history painting and historical genre painting including compositional devices and the authenticity of artefacts depicted relationships of power and purpose in historical art the use of historical art for alternative Liberal and authoritarian ideals the international cross fertilisation of ideas about historical art and exploration of the diverse influences of socioeconomic and geopolitical factors This book will be of particular interest to scholars of the histories of nineteenth century art and culture Teaching Representations of the French Revolution Julia Douthwaite Viglione, Antoinette Sol, Catriona Seth, 2019-08-01 Offers techniques for teaching literature of the French Revolution in college courses including considerations of the revolution s effects on modern ideas republicanism and human rights la cit and Charlie Hebdo along with comparative approaches involving Germany Greece Haiti Italy Latin America and Spain Provides bibliographical resources a timeline and filmography

What Was History Painting and What Is It Now? Mark Salber Phillips, Jordan Bear, 2019-10-10 The dominant visual language of European painting from the Renaissance to the nineteenth century history paintings were formidable in their monumental scale ambitious moral lessons and intricate narratives With the rise of modernist avant gardes the genre receded from the forefront of artistic production into the realm of nostalgia Yet history painting cast a shadow that would subtly colour even the works that sought to displace it Exploring the resilience of this distinctive mode of visual representation What Was History Painting and What Is It Now brings together an internationally distinguished group of scholars to trace the endurance adaptation and mutation of history painting These studies offer a reexamination of the fortunes of the genre from North America to Europe and Africa Organized around illuminating themes the book explores the creation of an audience attuned to the genre s didactic aims the entry of history painting into the marketplace of commercial art and attractions and the reimagination of the mode in response to the edicts of modern and contemporary art Spanning the full range and diversity of history painting this collection is a broad reconsideration of the tradition and the vibrant ways in which it resonates through the art of the present Humanities ,1999
