□□□□ □□,1993 1938     A History of Chinese Art in the 20th and 21st Century Lü Peng,2025-02-03 This book situates the development of 20th and 21st century Chinese art in such fundamental contexts as Chinese politics and social change and is ideally suited for readers to understand the particularities of Chinese art that are distinct from Western art history. Such an approach is appropriate to the understanding of the development of modern Chinese art which differs from both the Western approach to art history and the approach to traditional Chinese art which is limited to the combining of ink and brush heritage and ideological traditions. Based on the scale and influence of historical works considering the specificity of the term involving fine art in China and the scope of influence of the phenomenon of fine art in the cultural field, this book's study of the phenomena of painting, sculpture, photography, video, and mixed media art follows two linear time lines of historical relevance: 1949-1978 and 1978 to the present. Special attention is paid to the development of modern and contemporary art after 1978. The main readers of this book are undergraduate students in art schools, graduate and doctoral students in art history, students in other humanities disciplines, experts and professors in the study of 20th century Chinese art and cultural history. This book should be important reading for these readers.

The Bureaucracy in the Song Period Deng Xiaonan,2025-06-30 The bureaucracy has always played a crucial role in the exercise of political power and how officials are appointed is directly related to the effectiveness of state governance. This book conducts a clear and structured study of the complex personnel management system in imperial China. It examines the main features of the official appointment system in the Song dynasty (960-1279) such as the separation of official ranks and their duties, the agencies and regulations for appointing officials, the merit rating system, the coexistence of seniority and functional rank in the recruitment and selection of officials, and other important procedures including the recommendation system, the evaluation for reassignment system, and the system of appointments to commissions. Focusing on both the institutional regulations and their practical implementation and effectiveness, the book reveals many contradictions and coping mechanisms in the Song dynasty's personnel management system. This book will appeal to scholars and students of Song dynasty history, personnel administration, and civil service.     □□□□□□,2000

Decoded Messages Hou-mei Sung,2009 During the Ming Dynasty numerous new animal themes were created to convey political and ethical messages current at court As the result a sophisticated language of Chinese animal painting was developed employing both the animals symbolic associations and homonymic puns Hou mei Sung s exciting rediscovery of some of these lost meanings has led to a full scale investigation of the evolving history of Chinese animal painting Distinct symbolic meanings were associated with individual motifs but all animals were assigned a place in the universe according to the Chinese concept of nature From the very early yin yang cosmology to later developments of Daoist and Confucian philosophies and ethics Chinese animals gained new meanings related to their historical contexts This book explores these new findings using the colorful animal images and their rich and evolving symbolic meanings to gain insight into unique aspects of Chinese art as well as Chinese culture and history Exhibition Schedule Cincinnati Museum of Art October 2009 February 2010

Pickowicz, Mark Selden, 2008-10-01 Drawing on more than a quarter century of field and documentary research in rural North China this book explores the contested relationship between village and state from the 1960s to the start of the twenty first century The authors provide a vivid portrait of how resilient villagers struggle to survive and prosper in the face of state power in two epochs of revolution and reform Highlighting the importance of intra rural resistance and rural urban conflicts to Chinese politics and society in the Great Leap and Cultural Revolution the authors go on to depict the dynamic changes that have transformed village China in the post Mao era This book continues the dramatic story in the authors prizewinning Chinese Village Socialist State Plumbing previously untapped sources including interviews archival materials village records and unpublished memoirs diaries and letters the authors capture the struggles pains and achievements of villagers across three generations of social upheaval      A Biographical Dictionary of Later Han to the Three Kingdoms (23-220 AD) Rafe de Crespigny, 2006-12-01 This publication is the long awaited complement to Michael Loewe s acclaimed Biographical Dictionary of the Qin Former Han and Xin Periods 2000 With more than 8 000 entries based upon historical records and surviving inscriptions the comprehensive Biographical Dictionary of Later Han to the Three Kingdoms 23 220 AD now provides information on men and women of the Chinese world who lived at the time of Later or Eastern Han from Liu Xiu founding Emperor Guangwu reg 24 57 to the celebrated warlord Cao Cao 155 220 at the end of the dynasty The entries including surnames personal names styles and dates are accompanied by maps genealogical tables and indexes with lists of books and special accounts of women These features together with the convenient surveys of the history and the administrative structure of the dynasty will make Rafe de Crespigny s work an indispensable tool for any further serious study of a significant but comparatively neglected period of imperial China      田余角川, 1982      The Berkeley Undergraduate Journal , 2003      The Making of Early Chinese Classical Poetry Stephen Owen, 2020-05-11 Over the centuries early Chinese classical poetry became embedded in a chronological account with great cultural resonance and came to be transmitted in versions accepted as authoritative But modern scholarship has questioned components of the account and cast doubt on the accuracy of received texts The result has destabilized the study of early Chinese poetry This study adopts a double approach to the poetry composed between the end of the first century B C E and the third century C E First it examines extant material from this period synchronically as if it were not historically arranged with some poems attached to authors and some not By setting aside putative differences of author and genre Stephen Owen argues we can see that this was one poetry created from a shared poetic repertoire and compositional practices Second it considers how the scholars of the late fifth and early sixth centuries selected this material and reshaped it to produce the standard account of classical poetry As Owen shows early poetry comes to us through reproduction reproduction by those who knew the poem and transmitted it by musicians who performed it and by scribes and anthologists all of whom changed texts to suit their
