Breakdown in Pakistan Masooda Bano, 2012-04-25 Thirty percent of foreign development aid is channeled through NGOs or community based organizations to improve service delivery to the poor build social capital and establish democracy in developing nations However growing evidence suggests that aid often erodes rather than promotes cooperation within developing nations This book presents a rare micro level account of the complex decision making processes that bring individuals together to form collective action platforms It then examines why aid often breaks down the very institutions for collective action that it aims to promote Breakdown in Pakistan identifies concrete measures to check the erosion of cooperation in foreign aid scenarios Pakistan is one of the largest recipients of international development aid and therefore the empirical details presented are particularly relevant for policy The book s argument is equally applicable to a number of other developing countries and has important implications for recent discussions within the field of economics New Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney, S. Akbar Zaidi, 2019-09-19 Makes a major intervention in debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics Challenge, Continuity, and Change in Pakistan Amit Ranjan, Ian Talbot, 2025-10-14 This book brings a multi disciplinary approach to studying Pakistan's contemporary political social and environmental challenges. It offers insights from various disciplines to show the interconnectedness of many of Pakistan's problems and their historical roots. The analysis includes issues of political alienation and exclusion, vulnerability to climate change induced disasters and how such challenges might be mitigated. The case studies in the book reveal that reality is complex and that demographic social and technological change is moving apace in Pakistan. This dynamism points to another aspect of Pakistan and its resilience in the face of manmade and natural disasters. An increasingly youthful and urbanised population is challenging social inequalities and power structures whilst the state attempts to respond in old ways to maintain order and stability. The emergence of overseas Pakistani communities and their connectedness with the homeland is another growing development with ramifications for politics and society. A significant contribution on critical affairs in Pakistan, this book investigates if the country is moving towards a critical crossroads in its development. It will be of interest to historians and political scientists of Modern South Asia as well as geographers interested in examining impact of climate change.

Pakistan Mohammad A. Chaudhry, 2024-10-07 It was a pleasant surprise for me. Ashraf Chaudhry, a capable and inspiring professor of English Literature and my friend and my colleague of 35 years, turns into a forceful political analyst, an enlightened commentator of national and international affairs and an active sponsor of interfaith harmony in a foreign land. I have been reading his discourses on varied subjects with interest and am always impressed by the deep thinking and extensive reading that goes into writing them. This collection is a valuable contribution and should be welcomed by those who wish to read thoughts of a mature Pakistani mind in real perspective. Prof M H Hamdani, former Principal F G Syed College Rawalpindi. Mr Ashraf Chaudhry is one of Pakistan Link's most distinguished writers. His articles are studded with facts and figures that are strikingly revealing and wholly incontrovertible. The more learned and serious minded readers admire Mr Chaudhry for his insight, scholarship and perspicacity. Akhtar Mahmud Faruqi, editor Pakistan Link In Rawalpindi. Professor Ashraf Chaudhry and I were neighbors. He was my senior. When the sub continent was divided in 1947 and Pakistan emerged as a new State, our parents migrated from the Indian territory to Pakistan. Prof Chaudhry was a very brilliant and hard working student from his very childhood. He is a self made man. I have read some of his articles and columns in the Pakistan Link. I was much impressed by the candidness and clarity of vision he brings to his writings. He supports democracy and condemns dictatorship. He writes on human rights and human values and believes in the presence of goodness in all human beings. He rejects sectarian and radical approach in religion and stresses on the need of a pluralist aspect of religion. Often he underpins the problems, offers cautiously some solutions and is never hesitant in naming the culprits. He rewards and censures the same political actors depending on their performance and holds no personal grudge against any one of them. Dr Maqsood Jafri, author and political activist.
