Palazzi of Sicily Angheli Zalapi, Melo Minnella, Elizabeth Clegg, 1998 Palaces of Reason Robin L. Thomas, 2023-11-28 Palaces of Reason traces the fascinating history of three royal residences built outside of Naples in the eighteenth century at Capodimonte Portici and Caserta Commissioned by King Charles of Bourbon and Queen Maria Amalia of Saxony who reigned over the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies these buildings were far more than residences for the monarchs They were designed to help reshape the economic and cultural fortunes of the realm The palaces at Capodimonte Portici and Caserta are among the most complex architectural commissions of the eighteenth century Considering the architecture and decoration of these complexes within their political cultural and economic contexts Robin L Thomas argues that Enlightenment ideas spurred their construction and influenced their decoration These modes of thinking saw the palaces as more than just centers of royal pleasure or muscular assertions of the crown's power Indeed writers and royal ministers viewed them as active agents in improving the cultural political social and economic health of the kingdom By casting the palaces within this narrative Thomas counters the assumption that they were imitations of Versailles
