Oliver De la Paz

Pale Bird Spouting Fire:

Requiem for the Orchard Oliver De la Paz, 2010 These are vivid visceral poems about coming of age in a place where the Ferris Wheel was the tallest thing in the valley where a boy would learn to fire a shotgun at nine and wring a chicken's neck with one hand by twirling the bird and whipping it straight like a towel In spite of such hardscrabble cruelties or because of them there is also a real tenderness in these poems the revelations of bliss driving along an empty highway like opening a heavy book letting the pages feather themselves and finding a dried flower The poet has a gift for rendering his world in cinematic images In short these poems are the stuff of life itself ugly and beautiful wherever or whenever we happen to live it Martin Espada Other Latitudes Brian Brodeur, 2008 Attempting to repair the fissures of everyday life Brian Brodeur negotiates the psychological distances between desire and disgust humor and catastrophe banality and dream The poems of Other Latitudes begin in the realm of personal experience and expand into larger territories of cultural narcissism and political blindness These poems meditate on the tenuous relationship between artist and subject the curiosities of self-inflicted wounds and the presence of hope in a landscape that is intrinsically scarred Brodeur's debut illustrates the conflict between inner lives and their outward appearances with an eye turned to the unforgiving natural world Fire Wheel Sharmila Voorakkara, 2005 Collection of original poems by Sharmila Voorakkara Provided by publisher Pale Bird, Spouting Fire Susan Yuzna, 2000 Susan Yuzna's new collection of poetry builds on the success of her 1995 Akron Poetry Prize winner Her Slender Dress which also won the Poetry Society of America's Norma Farber First Book Award The new poems speak in a voice recognizably Yuzna's though now deepened and darkened with a quickening twist of mordant humor Feisty or contemplative in Eden or on the mean streets these poems look at the long tradition of women struggling towards fulfillment Using figures mythical and real from Venus to Billie Holiday Yuzna explores the links that exist between the physical transformations unique to female experience and their spiritual and emotional epiphanies Encompassing these themes is the paradox of poetry though a small thing a pale bird it is also a source of passion and power spouting fire strong enough to lift us beyond the commonplace to change daily experience into moments when we recognize the presence of the extraordinary The Bride Minaret Heather Derr-Smith, 2008 Heather Derr-Smith's second collection journeys to the rough core of desire creating and destroying binaries along the way Familiar artifacts of domesticity become as volatile as land mines and the streets of Damascus Calcutta and other faraway locales obliterate the American landscape Yet Derr-Smith's poetry transcends time and place illuminating the ties that bind man to woman mother to child The Bride Minaret is a relentless chronicle of experience where the sacred and profane become interchangeable where Every tent has a name and every name is the breath of you The Book of Accident Beckian Fritz Goldberg, 2006 In her latest collection of poems The Book of Accident Beckian Fritz Goldberg invites the reader into a shadowy atmosphere where her language prowls among strange images hummingbirds become a fistful of violet amphetamines and desire gnaws away like a live rat sewed up inside us Reading The Book of Accident is like entering a graphic novel with missing panels a noir world of queasy glints and feral adolescents a world where no one has to love you Characters go by odd names Torture Boy Skin Girl Lala Petite Wolf Boy his body pale as the plucked end of light They are punk kids fending for themselves in an expressionistic version of those old stories that began Let s take the children out to the woods and leave them And on every page there s Goldberg s hard edged wit with the speed and flash of a video game These poems show mercy but give no ground They make you feel heartbroken and frightened and exhilarated at the same time Detail from The Garden of Earthly Delights Dennis Hinrichsen,2000 In the title poem Detail from The Garden of Earthly Delights Dennis Hinrichsen writes a line about his failing grandfather that could encompass the entire book But then the mystery takes over Ranging from backyard trees to the Shroud of Turin from a John Wayne movie to the passionate poetry of Catullus Hinrichsen explores the pulse and counterpulse that pull us simultaneously towards life and death often leaving us stranded in the zone between them where the erotic and the spiritual the extravagant and the mundane inform our daily lives If any solace is to be found there these poems suggest that it will come through acceptance and celebration of all the uneasy but natural juxtapositions that constitute the world we know The Skewed anointings by which the earth is strangely stained and blessed How We Spent Our Time Vern Rutsala,2006 Nearly every poem in How We Spent Our Time flies at its mast a title in the form of a gerund or gerund phrase that humble verbal noun The book s table of contents therefore reads like an equally humble enumeration of the ways a human lifetime can be paid out so to speak looking getting owning learning We all do them all And yet there is exceptional artistry in the testimonials these doings make witness to The arrangement of the poems within the text is part of it Note how keeping immediately precedes spending in the poems Keeping It Together and Spending the Night these poems are conversational but endlessly skilful in the ways they keep the language vivid and fresh and surprising How We Spent Our Time is flush with pangs and satisfactions abundant with wisdom and delight Cage of Water Dennis Hinrichsen,2004 The poems in Dennis Hinrichsen s Cage of Water explore collisions of spirit and matter that thorn and thistle bath as he states in the book s final poem where the limitations and entanglements of the flesh give over to provisional and sometimes fractured radiance and everlasting This radiance takes many forms an uncle with Down Syndrome calling out the makes of cars through the hrsh lght Gds lght faltring ner th crwn of the skul a woman s neck cords flaring leaping out in muscular form fluted arc briefly held instant his father sleeping bird cry pouring out of him like string or knotted rain as the narrator resists waking him and lets mosquitoes feed Confronted with the natural world Hinrichsen peers closely at such things as mules standing in the rain the flight of a swallowtail or cloudwork lighting the weave of trout and fashions uncanny threadings of self and other Throughout the book Hinrichsen transcends the bright beautiful cage of the senses in lines and stanzas that are alert to the fluidity and exactness of perception to find the measureless silk of our common existence Big Muddy River of Stars Alison Pelegrin,2007 In Big Muddy River of Stars her second full length collection of poems Alison Pelegrin continues her celebration of the quirks and characters of south Louisiana tempered now by the devastations of hurricane Katrina and its aftermath These sassy poems come on like a carnival parade with boisterous shout outs to sleepy rivers and Big Shot soda crawfish and trailer trash and those git r done who rebuild homes ravaged by hurricane and high water Presiding over the book is the spirit of Chinese poet Li Po Pelegrin s prodigal mentor and drinking buddy Sharing his exultation and taste of recklessness she wants to write the Li Po way wine and the wide world And she does With lines that laugh and rage and slur in the piquant tongue of her native Louisiana Pelegrin knows how to play the blues in a bold and irreverent key
