Klein, David E. Garland, Todd D. Still, Arthur A. Rupperecht, 2017-03-07 Continuing a Gold Medallion Award winning legacy this completely revised edition of The Expositor's Bible Commentary series puts world class biblical scholarship in your hands Based on the original twelve volume set that has become a staple in college and seminary libraries and pastors studies worldwide this new thirteen volume edition marshals the most current evangelical scholarship and resources The thoroughly revised features consist of Comprehensive introductions Short and precise bibliographies Detailed outlines Insightful expositions of passages and verses Overviews of sections of Scripture to illuminate the big picture Occasional reflections to give more detail on important issues Notes on textual questions and special problems placed close to the texts in question Transliterations and translations of Hebrew and Greek words enabling readers to understand even the more technical notes A balanced and respectful approach toward marked differences of opinion Paul's Letters from Prison James Leslie Houlden, 1977 Modern translations have made it clearer than ever that many of Paul's assumptions and ideas are utterly foreign to us This commentary guides the reader into a new understanding of Paul's letters and a new appreciation of his theology and ethics as having meaning for us in today's world Paul is important at two levels At the level of events it was he who brought the Church out of its Jewish cocoon At the level of doctrine it was Paul who first provided a way of formulating the significance of Jesus which made it possible to universalize his mission Paul also brought simplicity and directness into the relationship of the individual with God Finally Paul the Hellenistic Jew was able to go far in expressing the Christian gospel in terms congenial to Greeks to launch the Church's teaching safely on non semitic waters Jacket flap Paul's Letters from Prison, 1976 The letters Paul wrote to the Ephesians Philippians Colossians and Philemon have one feature in common that distinguishes them from the other letters he wrote in them Paul calls himself a prisoner This thought provoking study examines closely the metaphorical and literal meaning of Paul's bonds and chains Through analysis of the letters themselves Caird considers whether Paul was actually behind bars when he wrote them and if so in which prison or prisons whether he may have been referring to himself figuratively as a prisoner of Jesus Christ and whether he was the actual author of all four letters In assessing these issues

Caird outlines each letter's intended audience vocabulary style historical setting literary references and theology

Dunnam, 1991-05 Philippians, Colossians, Philemon (Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture) Dennis Hamm, SJ, 2013-11-05 Examine the New Testament from within the living tradition of the Catholic Church. Philippians Colossians and Philemon, written by Paul from prison in the middle of the first century, were addressed to specific Christian communities facing concrete challenges. What did these letters mean at the time and what do they mean for us today? In this addition to the Catholic Commentary on Sacred Scripture, seasoned New Testament scholar Dennis Hamm explores the significance of these letters and their enduring relevance to the life and mission of the church. The CCSS relates Scripture to Christian life today, is faithfully Catholic and is supplemented by features designed to help pastoral ministers lay readers and students better comprehend the Bible and use it more effectively. Commentary features include Biblical text from the New American Bible Revised Edition (NABRE), References to the Catechism, the Lectionary and related biblical texts, Theological insights from Church fathers, saints and popes, Reflection and application sections for daily Christian living, Suggested resources and an index of pastoral subjects. Attractively packaged and accessibly written, the CCSS aims to help readers understand their faith more deeply, nourish their spiritual life and share the good news with others. The Expositor's Bible Commentary Frank Ely Gaebele, James Dixon, Douglas, Dick Polcyn,
