Putting Children And Families First A Challenge For Our Church Nation And World Publication:

Putting Children and Families First United States Catholic Conference, 1991 The bishops examine the needs of all children in an increasingly difficult world and present the moral and religious dimensions of caring for children both here and abroad Pastoral Letters of the United States Catholic Bishops Catholic Church. National Conference of Catholic Bishops, Patrick W. Carey, 1998 Vol 6 spine title Pastoral letters Includes bibliographical references and indexes v 6 1989 1997 A Family Perspective in Church and Society, 1998 This central document in family ministry includes techniques for implementing a family perspective into all policies programs and services of the Church The Harvest of Justice is Sown in Peace Catholic Church. National Conference of Catholic Bishops, 1994 Issued in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the pastoral letter The Challenge of Peace God's Promise and Our Response A Decade After Economic Justice for All National Conference of Catholic Bishops, 1995-11 United States Welfare Policy Thomas J. Massaro, 2007-05-02 The Welfare Reform Act of 1996 drastically changed the delivery of social services in the United States for the first time in sixty years More than a decade later according to Catholic social ethicist Thomas Massaro a disturbing gap exists between the laws we have enacted as a nation and the moral concerns we profess as a people Massaro contends that ethicists too often focus on strictly theoretical concerns rather than engaging concrete social and political issues while public policy experts are uncomfortable drawing ethical judgments about legislation United States Welfare Policy takes a fresh approach to the topic by using Catholic social teaching as a lens through which to view contemporary American welfare policies citing the tradition's emphasis on serving the needy including a preferential option for the poor and the common good Massaro maintains that the most important outcome of welfare policy is not the cost effectiveness of programs but the well being of individual families The concluding analysis of this thoughtful study applies Catholic ethical concerns to specific aspects of welfare reform including the funding mechanisms for the Temporary Assistance to Needy Families TANF program work participation requirements affecting the bond between mothers and children eligibility rules the intrusion of family caps into reproductive decisions and the imposition of disproportionate burdens upon particular demographic groups Massaro offers possible alternatives in each case and as the fight over reauthorization of the welfare act continues he calls on Catholic churches and clergy and laity to take action and advocate publicly for a more ethical approach to welfare reform Formation and Development for Catholic School Leaders: The principal as educational leader, expectations in the areas of leadership, curriculum, and instruction Maria J. Ciriello, 1996 A three volume preparation program for future and neophyte principals Cover Includes bibliographical references p 279 285 Revisioning the Parish Pastoral Council Mary Ann Gubish, Susan Jenny, Arlene McGannon, 2001 A practical guidebook for all persons involved in developing pastoral councils on a parish level Confronting a Culture of Violence United States Catholic Conference, United States Catholic Conference. Committee for Domestic Social Policy, 1994 Addresses the need for a moral revolution and a renewed ethic of justice responsibility and community Recognizes impressive examples in dioceses parishes and schools across the country

The American Paradox David G. Myers, 2008-10-01 DIV For Americans entering the twenty first century it is the best of times and the worst of times Material wealth is at record levels yet disturbing social problems reflect a deep spiritual poverty In this compelling book well known social psychologist David G Myers asks how this paradox has come to be and more important how we can spark social renewal and dream a new American dream Myers explores the research on social ills from the 1960s through the 1990s and concludes that the materialism and radical individualism of this period have cost us dearly imperiling our children corroding general civility and diminishing our happiness However in the voices of public figures and ordinary citizens he now hears a spirit of optimism The national dialogue is shifting away from the expansion of personal rights and toward enhancement of communal civility away from efforts to raise self esteem and toward attempts to arouse social responsibility away from whose values and toward our values Myers analyzes in detail the research on educational and other programs that deal with social problems explaining which seem to work and why He then offers positive and well reasoned advice suggesting that a renewed social ecology for America will rest on policies that balance me thinking with we thinking div Sharing Catholic Social Teaching ,1998 In this thoughtful reflection the bishops present a compelling explanation of how Catholic social teaching is central to keeping the Church strong Sex, Gender, and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill,1996-08-28 This book endorses feminist critiques of gender yet upholds the insight of traditional Christianity that sex commitment and parenthood are fulfilling human relations Their unity is a positive ideal though not an absolute norm Women and men should enjoy equal personal respect and social power In reply to feminist critics of oppressive gender and sex norms and to communitarian proponents of Christian morality Cahill argues that effective intercultural criticism of injustice requires a modest defence of moral objectivity She thus adopts a critical realism as its moral foundation drawing on Aristotle and Aquinas Moral judgment should be based on reasonable practical prudent and cross culturally nuanced reflection on human experience This is combined with a New Testament model of community centred on solidarity compassion and inclusion of the economically or socially marginalised Origins ,2003 Faith Traditions and the Family Phyllis D. Airhart,Margaret Lamberts Bendroth,1996-01-01 This exploration offers readers fresh and broad ranges of ways to evaluate their own religious traditions when dealing with issues related to the future of the family Beyond Biology Jacob M. Kohlhaas,2021 By integrating Catholic social thought and social scientific studies of child well being in order to offer a more diverse and inclusive interpretation of parenthood Jacob M Kohlhaas s Beyond Biology creates room for meaningful intellectually convincing and theologically rich responses to challenges facing Catholic families today Christian Marriage and Family Michael G. Lawler,William P. Roberts,1996 A definite shift in the Catholic Church s understanding of marriage took place at Vatican Council II Rather than perceiving marriage as a contract whose primary purpose was the procreation of children the council spoke of marriage as an intimate partnership of life and love Then recapturing an earlier tradition it went on to describe the family as a domestic church In this book seven theologians who have lectured and written extensively on marriage probe the rich theology of marriage and family that emerged from Vatican II and explore some of the implications that flow from this theology Part One reflects on the sacramentality of marriage and on the family as a church of the home Part Two examines the pastoral implications this has for marital and family ministry and spirituality BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Resources in Education ,1999-04
