Quai Des Brumes:

Child of Paradise Edward Baron Turk, 1989 Traces the career of the influential French director and uses psychoanalytical concepts to analyze his major films Le Quai Des Brumes Marcel Carné, 1979 Landscapes of Loss Naomi Greene, 1999-03-29 In Landscapes of Loss Naomi Greene makes new sense of the rich variety of postwar French films by exploring the obsession with the national past that has characterized French cinema since the late 1960s Observing that the sense of grandeur and destiny that once shaped French identity has eroded under the weight of recent history Greene examines the ways in which French cinema has represented traumatic and defining moments of the nation's past the political battles of the 1930s the Vichy era decolonization the collapse of ideologies Drawing upon a broad spectrum of films and directors she shows how postwar films have reflected contemporary concerns even as they have created images and myths that have helped determine the contours of French memory This study of the intricate links between French history memory and cinema begins by examining the long shadow cast by the Vichy past the repressed memories and smothered unease that characterize the cinema of Alain Resnais are seen as a kind of prelude to a fierce battle for national memory that marked so called retro films of the 1970s and 1980s The shifting political and historical perspectives toward the nation's more distant past which also emerged in these years are explored in the light of the films of one of France's leading directors Bertrand Tavernier Finally the mood of nostalgia and melancholy that appears to haunt contemporary France is analyzed in the context of films about the nation's imperial past as well as those that hark back to a golden age a remembered paradis perdu of French cinema itself Mists of Regret Dudley Andrew, 2021-11-09 Just before World War II French cinema reached a high point that has been dubbed the style of poetic realism Working with unforgettable actors like Jean Gabin and Arletty directors such as Renoir Carné Gremillon Duvivier and Chenal routinely captured the prizes for best film at every festival and in every country and their accomplishments led to general agreement that the French were the first to give maturity to the sound cinema Here the distinguished film scholar Dudley Andrew examines the motivations and consequences of these remarkable films by looking at the cultural web in which they were made Beyond giving a rich view of the life and worth of cinema in France Andrew contributes substantially to our knowledge of how films are dealt with in history Where earlier studies have treated the masterpieces of this era either in themselves or as part of the vision of their creators and where certain recent scholars have reacted to this by dissolving the masterpieces back into the system of entertainment that made them possible Andrew stresses the dialogue of culture and cinema In his view the films open questions that take us into the culture while our understanding of the culture gives energy direction and consequence to our reading of the films The book demonstrates the value of this hermeneutic approach for one set of texts and one period but it should very much interest film theorists and film historians of all sorts Marcel Carné Jonathan Driskell, 2019-01-04 This book provides a scholarly yet accessible account of the work of Marcel Carné one of the great directors of classical French cinema and the key figure behind the poetic realist film movement of the 1930s His films a number of which were made in collaboration with the poet turned scriptwriter Jacques Prévert include such well known works as Le Quai des brumes Le Jour se lève and Les Enfants du paradis As the first book to be written on Carné for a number of years it offers a fresh perspective on his cinema particularly through a re examination of his post war work although many of these films were very popular and offer a fascinating insight into France at the time they have until now largely been neglected Adopting a carefully crafted aesthetic his films explore a tension between pessimism and entrapment on the one hand and transcendence idealised romantic love and a populist celebration of working class life on the other His career traversed key moments in French cinema including poetic realism the tradition of quality and the French New Wave and spanned important historical moments such as the Popular Front of the 1930s the Second World War and France's post war modernisation This book will be of interest to scholars students and film lovers alike

Class, Crime and International Film Noir D. Broe, 2014-04-08 Class Crime and International Film Noir argues that in its postwar classical phase this dark variant of the crime film was not just an American phenomenon Rather these seedy tales with their doomed heroes and heroines were popular all over the world including France Britain Italy and Japan

'Inquiétude' in the work of Pierre Mac Orlan Roger W. Baines, 2021-10-25 This is the first major study in English of the work of the French novelist essayist journalist poet and chansonnier Pierre Mac Orlan 1882-1970 It assesses Mac Orlan's contribution to the post 1918 phenomenon of intellectual disillusionment and disorientation which was termed the nouveau

mal du siècle or inquietude Although he has largely been ignored by critics thus far Mac Orlan was part of mainstream French literary production and a major exponent of inquietude Where he differs from his contemporaries is in his subject matter in his use of sociological rather than abstract intellectual material His expression of inquietude encompasses le fantastique social adventure marginality le cafard and sadistic sexuality His originality lies in his invention of le fantastique social in his constant use of certain techniques as well as the subject matter of German Expressionism via the depiction of the disturbing landscape of the modern city post 1918 inflation and decadence prostitutes and criminals doomed adventurers the mystery of modern technology and in the expression of a morbid interest in sexual violence This volume will be of particular interest to students of inter war French literature and thought

France in 1938 Benjamin F. Martin, 2006-09-01 When Benjamin Martin's latest report from the front of French fallibility does not read like a tragedy whose end is foreordained it reads like a melodrama sensational doings punctuated by catchy melodies like L Internationale and La Marseillaise In both cases it reads well French life in the run up to World War II was a gangrenous decomposition to be followed by still worse The country's leaders found nary a pratfall that they could avoid They chose a semblance of peace above honor and ended up with neither In spite of a masterful prologue successful synthesis elegant concision and lucid presentation or perhaps thanks to them the reader can't help sharing the nation's shames A tribute to the historian's talent Eugen Weber Phi Beta Kappa Key Reporter At the beginning of 1938 containment of Nazi Germany by a coalition of eastern and western democracies without resorting to war was still a distinct possibility By the end of 1938 however Germany was much stronger the western democracies stood alone and war was all but certain The primary cause for these developments argues Benjamin F Martin was the foreign and domestic policies adopted by the French government and embraced by the French people In a riveting account of the dark days leading up to France's defeat and occupation Martin reveals a great and civilized nation committing a kind of suicide in 1938 Using movies novels newspapers and sensational court cases Martin weaves an absorbing tale of France's collective fear and melancholy during this troubled prewar period

The Lives of Others Annie Ring, 2022-10-06 This study offers a fresh approach to the remarkable German film The Lives of Others 2006 known for its compelling representation of a Stasi surveillance officer and the moral and ethical turmoil that results when he begins spying on a playwright and his actress lover Annie Ring analyses the film's cinematography mise en scène and editing tracing connections with Hollywood movies such as Casablanca and Hitchcock's Torn Curtain in the film's portrayal of an individual rebelling against a brutal dehumanising regime Drawing on archival sources including primary research from the Stasi files themselves as well as Enlightenment philosophies of art and Brecht's theories on theatre dating from his GDR years she explores the film's strong but much disputed claims to historical authenticity She examines the way the film tracks the world changing political shift that took place at the end of the Cold War away from the collective dreams of socialism and towards the dreams of the private individual arguing that this is what makes it at once widely appealing and fascinatingly problematic In doing so she highlights why The Lives of Others is a crucial film for thinking at the horizon between film and recent world history

French Film Theory and Criticism Richard Abel, 1993-09-12 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English The French in Love and War Charles Rearick, 1997-01-01 Describes developments in French popular culture between 1914 and 1945 and argues that the harsh times led to the emergence of images glorifying the common Frenchman in songs film and popular literature The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2014-05-06 With more than 100 new entries from Amy Adams Benedict Cumberbatch and Cary Joji Fukunaga to Joaquin Phoenix Mia Wasikowska and Robin Wright and completely updated here from David Thomson The greatest living writer on the movies John Banville New Statesman Our most argumentative and trustworthy historian of the screen Michael Ondaatje is the latest edition of The New Biographical Dictionary of Film which topped Sight Sound s poll of international critics and writers as THE BEST FILM BOOK EVER WRITTEN 3 7 The Classic French Cinema, 1930-1960 C. G. Crisp, 1993 Colin Crisp re evaluates the stylistic evolution of the classic French cinema and represents the New Wave film makers as its natural heirs rather than the mould breakers they perceived themselves to be Still Moving Steven Higgins, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2006 Founded in 1935 The Museum of Modern Art s Department of Film and Media is home to one of the most important film archives in the world The collections include over twenty thousand works from the earliest movies to the most contemporary moving picture art from a twenty seven second film made by W K L Dickson and William Heise in 1893 to video art and media works by artists such as Chris Marker Pipilotti Rist and Joan Jonas Here for the first time is a volume that celebrates this remarkable archive with over five hundred images from individual films drawn largely from the Museum s collection of still photographs Special sections detail significant collections including those of works by Andy Warhol and Joseph Cornell of films starring Douglas Fairbanks and of films produced by the Edison and Biograph companies two of the world s first commercial film producers An introduction by Steven Higgins Curator in the Department of Film and Media outlines the history of the Museum s collections and gives some insight into how The Museum of Modern Art goes about fulfilling its mandate acquiring preserving and exhibiting these extraordinary and singular works which form such a large part of the history of the moving image BOOK JACKET Roots of Film Noir Kevin Grant, 2022-12-07 Individual reviews of 90 films created and released before 1941 are included here in the first title by title reference guide to the forerunners of film noir

Silent Hitchcock thrillers and German expressionist masterpieces French poetic realist dramas and forgotten Hollywood B movies pseudo Freudian gangster films and costume melodramas are among the works covered The collection spans subgenres and cultures of filmmaking aiming to demonstrate that the roots of noir were sown far and wide long before the lasting and mysterious genre flowered in America during the war years Le Jour se Lève Ben McCann,2014-06-10 Le Jour se leve 1939 directed by Marcel Carne is widely recognised as the classic French Poetic Realist film Told in flashback it recounts the story of a man who has committed a murder and who awaits his fate as the police close in Carne shuttles between different registers tones and textures throughout marshalling the studio s resources to create striking pictorial compositions The film also contains the great French star Jean Gabin s most iconic performance as Francois marooned at the top of his apartment building Ben McCann s perceptive and lively book traces the evolution of Le Jour se leve and situates it in a very specific historical moment He also underlines the importance of actors Jules Berry and Arletty production designer Alexandre Trauner writer Jacques Prevert and cinematographer Curt Courant in establishing the film s tone mood and visual style He charts the national and international reception of the film uncovering a work that deeply divided critics at a time of national crisis He also reveals Le Jour se leve to be a key transitional work between European and American noir and compares it with the 1947 Hollywood remake Highlighting its combination of the poetic and the realist this book finally stresses how Le Jour se leve represents the very best of pre war French studio filmmaking The Popular Front in France Julian Jackson,1990-05-25 This is the first full length study in English of the Popular Front the left wing coalition which emerged in France during the 1930s in response to the threat of fascism and which went on to win the elections of 1936 giving France her first socialist premier L on Blum After a brief narrative history of the Popular Front the book is organised thematically around the main historiographical debates to which the Popular Front has given rise Among the issues considered are the origins of the strikes of 1936 the reasons for the failure of the Popular Front economic policy the relationship between culture and politics in France in the 1930s and the causes of France s policy of non intervention in the Spanish Civil War The book views the Popular Front at three levels as a mass movement political coalition and government and argues that it must not be seen just as a narrowly political phenomenon but as a political social and cultural explosion which attempted to break down the barriers between all areas of human activity in the highly compartmentalised society of France in the 1930s Even if the Popular Front ultimately failed in this aim it has acquired legendary status in France and the epilogue to the book briefly examines the myth of the Popular Front from 1936 to the present day Surrealism and Cinema Michael Richardson,2006-03 Tracing the work of Luis Bu nuel Jacques Pr evert Nelly Kaplan Walerian Borowczyk Jan Svankmajer Raul Ruiz and Alejandro Jodorowsky this work charts the history of surrealist film making in both Europe and Hollywood from the 1920s to 2005 Americanism, Media and the Politics of Culture in 1930s France David A. Pettersen,2016-05-20 First book to focus on Americanism and its consideration of French film and literature The book is organized around individual figures texts and films making it easy to adopt for individual units in courses The book is written in clear accessible and jargon free language The book brings a new and innovative transatlantic perspective to 1930s French culture The books offers new perspectives on important figures that we thought we knew well The book mixes cultural history with the analysis of individual films and novels in a way that is engaging to read
