The lives of early Japanese and Chinese settlers in British Columbia have come to define the Asian experience in Canada Yet many men travelled beyond British Columbia to settle in small Prairie towns and cities Chinese bachelors opened the region's first laundries and Chinese cafes They maintained ties to the Old World and negotiated a place in the new by fostering a vibrant homosocial culture based on friendship everyday religious practices the example of Sun Yat sen and the sharing of food This exploration of the intersection of gender and migration in rural Canada in particular offers new takes on the Chinese quest for identity in North America in general With a preface by the Honourable Inky Mark former Member of Parliament for Dauphin Swan River Marquette Dictionary of Manitoba Biography J.M. Doug Smith,2023-04-13T00:00:00Z Until 1969 the City of Winnipeg had undertaken only two public housing projects even though the failure of the market to provide adequate housing for low income Winnipeggers had been apparent since the beginning of the century By 1919 providing housing was a significant issue in municipal politics that was embraced by civic officials professionals reformers labour leaders and social democratic politicians It also became a proxy issue for refighting the 1919 General Strike at city hall However Winnipeg s business community proved effective opponents of public housing The struggle for public housing was also a struggle for democracy Up until the 1960s public housing required approval by a referendum in which only the city s property owners could vote This rule deprived close to half the city s voters and virtually everyone who might qualify to live in public housing of the right to vote Over decades that barrier to democracy was whittled away An NDP provincial government elected in 1969 added 11 144 units of public housing to the existing 568 units Today public housing is once more under attack Rather being treated as valued public assets they are considered embarrassing encumbrances that should be sold as part of a process of turning public housing over to the private sector The struggle to protect and expand the provision of non profit housing is undermined by the rupture in political memory of the long struggle to build public housing and the current political situation      Canadian Book Review Annual ,1978      Personal Recollections ,1993 Emphasis is on Jews in Manitoba      Jewish Autobiographies and Biographies David S.
