Reading Into Cultural Studies Martin Barker,Anne Beezer,2003-09-02 Reading Into Cultural Studies revisits a selection of key texts central to the formation of cultural studies as a discipline and as a project These texts address questions of power ideology and the possibilities and limits of resistance Each of the eleven essays in the collection renews an early study in one area of cultural investigation bringing such seminal texts as Subculture by Dick Hebdige Loving With a Vengeance by Tania Modleski and Bond and Beyond by Tony Bennett back to the centre of attention However the essays are not purely celebratory Each study is critically examined in a number of ways for its research strategy its implicit theories of power and ideology for the empirical evidence it draws on and its conceptual framework Together the essays provide an introduction to some of the central debates and issues in cultural studies Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology Ian Marsh,Rosie Campbell,Mike Keating,2014-05-12

Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology introduces the reader to sociological issues theories and debates providing extracts of primary source material from both classical and contemporary theorists Theorists are examined within their historical and sociological framework and the text provides an analysis of developments in sociological thought and research The text is divided into four main sections Part One Origins and Concepts surveys the history of the discipline of sociology and examines key themes which have influenced sociological theorising and investigation in particular social control culture and socialisation Parts Two and Four Sociological Theories and Sociological Research include a number of readings from the founding theorists and investigators including Auguste Comte Emile Durkheim Karl Marx Max Weber and Charles Booth and also include more recent theoretical writing and research approaches The focus on theory and research is extended by a selection of readings centred around the theme of Differences and Inequalities Part Three these readings provide students with examples of work from an area where sociological theorising and research has been widely applied Reading

Circles, Novels and Adult Reading Development Sam Duncan,2012-02-23 Adult literacy teachers are constantly searching for effective engaging and distinctly adult ways to develop adult emergent reading and for at least the past two hundred years adults have formed themselves into reading circles to read and discuss novels on a weekly or monthly basis Why then are reading circles rarely used or studied in formal adult literacy provision This book explores adult reading development novel reading and reading circles in the context of a wider examination of reading pedagogies and practices in the English speaking world It discusses reading as both an individual and a communal act and investigates the relationship between literature and literacy development practice and pedagogy including a reassessment of the controversial approaches of reading aloud and phonics for adults Sam Duncan reviews a case study of an adult reading circle in a large London further education college and identifies the wider implications for the teaching and learning of adult emergent reading for the use and understanding of reading circles and for how we understand the novel reading experience more broadly Learning to
